CHILDREN'S DIVISION

Many opportunities have been accorded workers with children throughout this past year to improve their teaching methods and aims.

The Third Annual Laboratory School for Church School teachers of Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, Junior and Intermediate children was held at Forest Grove Methodist Church June 25 to 30 with an enrollment of 64. The Misses Clarice Bowman and Emma Jane Kramer, both of Nashville, enriched the School with their capable leadership as they each conducted a leadership training class and did demonstration teaching in one of the departments. Plans are completed for the Fourth Laboratory School which will be held in Eugene June 24 to 30.

At the National Mission to Christian Teachers held at the First Presbyterian Church in Portland in October, Miss Lois Blankinship led the thinking of the children's group. We were thrilled with the new possibilities of reaching and teaching children in a more effective way.

The National Conference of Christian Education held in Nashville Dec. 28 to January 3 was a real inspiration and help. The Children's Commission were made to "stretch" in their thinking as they dealt with the Social Creed of the Methodist Church as it pertains to the children of today.

At the Conference on Summer Agencies for the Portland Area held at the Centenary Wilbur Church in January, Miss Emma Jane Kramer of Nashville led the thinking of the Conference and District Directors of Children's Work. Concrete helps were given on setting up a summer program for children in the local Church as well as conducting a summer conference and Laboratory School for Teachers. Many of these ideas have been shared by the Conference Director with the local churches by means of correspondence.

Several helpful sessions of the Workshop were held at the Manley Community Center in Portland. They were led by the Portland District Director, Mrs. Ray Rogers.

A three day Observation School was held at Coquille in February for the benefit of teachers and pastors from the Coos Bay Area. Demonstration teaching was done with Kindergarten, Primary and Junior children in the afternoon. Morning and evening sessions were devoted to helps in general for both pastors and teachers as they endeavored to enrich their program with the children.

The work of the Conference Director was done largely by correspondence as stimulating, thot-provoking, program planning pamphlets and other helps from our general board were shared with Pastors and Directors of the Children's Division in the local churches. Several visits were made to local churches to assist the children's workers with their particular problems. The Conference Director also taught a second series course of study for Children's Workers in an Interdenominational School.

With the ever increasing needs of children before us, we must continually give of our best and all for Him.

Respectfully submitted,
Esther Shellhart.

YOUTH DIVISION

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

APPRECIATION: We wish to express our deepest appreciation to the ministers and laymen of the Conference for their guidance and understanding in the work of the Youth in this past year. The Conference Council of the Methodist Youth Fellowship is grateful for the support of the Conference Board of Education in making our program financially possible. The worth while Worship service and fellowship on Youth night was made possible through the kind cooperation of the Cabinet.

To Miss Pearl Sherlock, our Evecutive Secretary, and to Rev. Harold Shellhart, our Conference Youth Director, we give our most sincere thanks; for it is through their devotion to youth, that our program has been made a living and growing thing.

EMPHASIS: We feel we are meeting the challenge of our theme, "Our World For Christ," through the Methodist Youth Fund.

The Volunteer Service of the Methodist Youth Fellowship was emphasized at the Annual meeting in Portland. Youth is serving the Church through four main channels—life service, preparing for a full-time Christian career; one year's service; summer work such as caravaning and work camps; and work in the local churches.

VII. Reports

BOARD OF EDUCATION

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

THE CRUSADE FOR CHRIST has challenged the Board of Eductaion this year, for it has felt vitally related to each of the five objectives. A year ago we set Conference Goals, stressing a 10 percent Increase: in Church School Enrollment in Attendance, in Services of Worship, in Accessions on Confession of Faith and in World Service Giving. We believe this united effort has been helpful. We do not have the figures for this report on all these goals.

The Church School Attendance shows an increase of 8½ percent for the Conference. Salem District reached its 10 percent. Some churches have gone far beyond this in their attainment. We appreciate the co-operation of those who mailed results quarterly. From these we wish to call special attention to the following:

Cascade District: Ashland 21 percent, Chiloquin 107 percent, Dillard 70 percent, Fossil 25 percent, Gilchrist 110 percent, Myrtle Point 22 percent, Odell 35 percent.

Portland District: Astoria 30 percent, Estacada 29 percent, Gresham 30 percent, Ellis Street 41 percent, Lents 37 percent, Woodlawn 30 percent, Seaside 21 percent.

Salem District: Eugene 28 percent, Monroe 37 percent, Jason Lee, Salem 24¼ percent, Shedd 77 percent.

WORKERS TOGETHER WITH GOD best expresses my appreciation to those who have done the work and presented the following reports in this booklet. They give some indication of the work of your Conference Board of Education. Recognition for work well done is used and practiced with our youth. It is also most applicable here. As you read these reports think of the hours of time and service given to Kingdom building.

A host of folk out over the state, Pastors and Laymen, work willingly, eagerly and happily. Our Cabinet, Bishop Baxter and The District Superintendents, always lead the way. We have been made sad this year by the loss of J. Edgar Purdy, a superintendent who knew Christian Education and never tired of it. We have missed Dr. Silas E. Fairham in his recent illness but rejoice in his rapid recovery. Dr. H. Guy Goodsell has graciously carried a heavy load.

The Personnel of our Conference Board of Education, its Summer Activity Commission and its Commission on Institute Sites under the leadership of Owen J. Beadles, M. A. Groves and F. A. Magruder respectively, are a faithful group.

Leadership and counsel has been furnished us from the General Board of Education at Nashville, Tennessee for a whole week's Conference on Summer Activities, for Young Adult Camp and for Laboratory School. In addition to this, mailings and letters are most helpful. The Annual Conference on Christian Education at Nashville always brings inspiration and assistance.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES are always a high light bringing relaxation, fellowship and mountain top experiences. Four Christian Adventure Camps, increased to five for this coming summer, served our Intermediates with 312 boys and girls participating. The Institutes with E. J. Aschenbrenner, R. A. Fedje, and Harold Shellhart as deans, provided a valuable week for 471 youth. Suttle Lake is to be commended for its $400 gift to Missions and $1900 to the Building Fund. The Young Adult Camp and the Laboratory School are spoken of in other reports.

VISUAL EDUCATION DEPOSITORY has been taken over by the Board of Education office. Miss Elaine Sorensen, Bishop Baxter's secretary, has given careful and efficient service but finds her duties too heavy to continue. Miss Helen Spicer has been secured to take over this work and give part time as my secretary.

CONFERENCE BOARD COUNCIL meeting is the newest piece of cooperation in our Conference. Representatives of the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Board of Education met to consider ways of projecting a united front for the coming year. Reaching the unreached is not the problem of one but of all. So together we crusade on.

Respectfully submitted,

Pearl E. Sherlock.

ADULT DIVISION

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The year's activities of the Oregon Conference Young Adult Fellowship had onderful start with the very fine camp held at Smith Creek, August, 1944. ple who had been to all four Young Adult camps held so far in the Confer- e said that this was the best camp. Perhaps there are several reasons for . We had a chance to build on past experience. The whole conference was ter represented than it had been before. Young Adult work is comparatively and it is now gaining momentum which, we can expect, takes some time. ch is the result of the self-sacrifice and hard and loyal work of our workers. president, Leonard Uppinghouse, who joined the armed services this spring, rked very faithfully. We young adults are very grateful also to Miss Pearl Sherlock, Executive Secretary, Conference Board of Education; Rev. Ralph en, 1944 and 1945 Dean; and the District advisors.

It is very encouraging to note that several more churches have organized ng Adult Fellowships this past year, and that others report increased inter- and attendance.

Portland District is the only one which has been able to hold several Dist- t Meetings; however, Salem District has been holding sub-district meetings ich have added interest and brought the different local groups together. Some these meetings have proven to be very successful. In the Cascade District tance has made District and Sub-district meetings impossible, except for one d in connection with the annual District Conference. However, there are now number of churches very actively engaged in Young Adult work in Cascade trict.

In 1944 one main objective of the Conference Executive Committee was to mote a feeling of unity throughout the conference. Great strides seem to e been made in this direction judging from the fine friendly spirit of the 1944 mp and the fact that the officers are from different parts of the conference.

The theme of the 1944 camp was "Vision and Strength for Christian Tomor- ws." Very inspiring and healthful classes were conducted by Miss Virginia fford of Nashville, and Prof. John Knight of Willamette University. The ung Adults were grateful to Camp Manager, Rev. O. Leonard Jones of Silver- church for the help given with the camp.

Plans for the 1945 Young Adult Camp are well under way. This will be held gust 12-18. Theme for the week is "Our Homes For Christ." Dean, as men- ned already, is again Rev. Ralph Kleen. Prof. Gertrude Boyd Crane of Pa- ic University, Rev. O. Leonard Jones of Silverton, and Miss Doris Dennison m Nashville will conduct classes. The camp site this year is Friends Camp, in Rocks, not far from Barview. Some time will be spent in working on Bar- w camp site. With four years experience behind this should be even a more ccessful camp than last year.

Respectfully submitted,

Nelson B. Lewis,

Conference Young Adult Vice-President.

CONFERENCE DIRECTORS REPORT

The Adult Division is organized with District Directors in all Districts and h sub-divisions in the Cascade District. The Directors are as follows:

Cascade South, Frank Brown, 334 Washington St., Cottage Grove.

Cascade North, Walter MacArthur, Hermiston.

Portland, John A. Linn, 6144 S. E. Holgate, Portland.

Salem, Raynor Smith, 860 Jefferson St., Salem.

These District Directors, together with the Conference Director of Adult Ed- ation and Miss Pearl Sherlock, Conference Executive Secretary, have outlined following program for immediate use.

1. Survey each district seeking outstanding efforts in adult education, teachers, classes, forums, and other means of Christian Education that may serve as patterns toward general improvement. Also seek to dis- cover natural areas where, by cooperation, a group of churches may work together to attain the larger ends of Christian education.
2. Each District Director will serve as a medium to channel in the program and services of the Board of Christian Education to every local church in his district.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT: which is a part of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, has continued to unite the college students of Oregon. The fall conference was held in Corvallis with Rev. Harold Bremer, Secretary of the National Conference, MYF, as the main speaker. Mel Gilson was chosen to lead this group as President, and has been doing an excellent job in keeping in close cooperation with the work of the Youth Fellowship.

WORKSHOP: The Conference-wide annual meeting was held in Portland, with the keynote address by Bishop Bruce R. Baxter. The four phases of our life, Worship, World Friendship, Community Service, and Recreation, were presented by adults who were competent in these fields and who led discussion from the group. This specialized training for Commission Chairmen has proved so valuable, we wish to continue it in the future.

POWER: An ever increasing number of youth have been using the daily devotional guide, POWER, which is written and published by the Youth Department in Nashville. This guide has become a definite source of inspiration for its readers.

The conference Council has held four main meetings this year, and nearly every meeting has been held under the leadership of a different President. The first two meetings were under the leadership of Paul Jaquith, who left to accept a charge at Waitsburg, Washington; the third meeting was held under the leadership of Marjorie Beadles; who left to continue school in Colorado, and the last meeting under the leadership of Lois Messing.

Three representatives from the Youth Fellowship, Mel Gilson, Marion Burns, and Marjorie Beadles, and two representatives from the Student Movement, Leslie Brocklebank and Tom Riggs, had the privilege to attend the National Convocation held at Lake Geneva, last summer. These youth gained much inspiration from the Convocation, and were able to bring back a little of the work of the National Conference as it ties in with the work of the Annual Conference.

DISTRICT WORK: The four districts, under the able leadership of their presidents, Carolyn Lazenby in the Portland District, Leslie Brockelbank in the Salem District, Mary Cotton in the Cascade East and Betty Adkins in the Cascade South Districts, have carried on the more specialized work which has reached and become a vital part of the lives of many of the young people throughout the entire state.

Again may we thank all of you who have encouraged us with your interest and valuable help in our program during the past year. We look to the future with the confidence we have gained from you with the firm belief that our work can truly aid Youth in finding its place in the pattern that thinking Christans everwhere are weaving to bring about Our World For Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Lois Messing, President and Marjorie Beadles, Past President.

CONFERENCE DIRECTORS REPORT

Indications are that this has been a difficult year for youth work. The armed forces and war work have taken many of our most capable youth and youth counsellors. War-time restrictions prevented the holding of the State Conclave and curtailed district meetings. But, if I sense correctly the attitude of many of our Pastors and Youth, we have passed the most difficult period and are now ready to move forward.

Youth throughout the State have come through the Christian Adventure Camps and are taking places of leadership in local Churches and District and Conference Councils. Churches that have combined all youth into one evening now are taking steps to provide adequate age divisions.

Local and national leaders agree that special attention needs to be given to the 18 to 23 age group. Many of the returning service men and women will come within this range and will need a sustaining Christian Fellowship of their own age.

It has been a privilege to again represent Oregon Youth at the National Conference on Christian Education and to work with the Conference Youth Council and the Conference Board of Education.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Shellhart.

d together the various Methodist Student groups throughout the state we are eady laying plans for our Third Annual Conference to be held at Willamette iversity either the last week-end of November or the first week-end of De-nber, depending upon the schedule of the speaker who is coming from the tral Office in Nashville.

The work of the past year is only the beginning, and we are looking for-rd to more intensive activity on each of the campuses and throughout the Or-n Methodist Student Movement during the coming year.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

TO THE OREGON CONFERENCE, JUNE, 1945

Willamette University is this week completing its fifth war year of opera-n and its second year on the contiuous accelerated program. During the year, have had an enrollment of approximately 450 civilian students and from 145 200 men in the V-12 Navy college program. The Navy will continue the V-12 gram for one additional semester starting July 1, 1945. This will mean that llamette will continue to operate one more year on the program of three six-n-week semesters starting in July, late October and March. In September, 6, it is anticipated that the University will return to the normal schedule of eighteen-week semesters with the college year starting in September. Aft-having housed the Navy in Lausanne Hall for two years, this dormitory will returned to the young women in October this year.

During the past year, Willamette University has given considerable attention s program of development during the next decade. Willamette's fundamental icy will continue to stress the importance of Christian ideals as the basis for ultural education. The University will emphasize its curricula in liberal arts music as well as professional training in law, and at the same time, will, ough preprofessionl curricula and effective vocational guidance, point the y for its graduates to establish themselves as worthy members of society.

During the past year, Willamette has enrolled a dozen returning veterans. new president of the student body is a former Willamette student now back the campus through the G. I. Bill. With the present point program of dis-rges, an increasing number of service men and women will be seeking the d of education that can be found on the campus of a fully accredited Chris-college. Willamette proposes to give these returning veterans the best pos-le education. They will be given credit for actual educational work or ex-iences which they have had in the service, and this credit will count on the uirements for graduation. Willamette will not, however, in an attempt to at-t returning service people under the G. I. Bill, stoop to undesirable educa-nal short cuts, terminal work, and other types of work for which the Uni-sity is not suited. The G. I. who comes to the Willamette campus will get a d education for which there is no satisfactory substitute.

To this end, the University has surveyed its facilities and its assets to deter-e the number of young people who can be properly educated in the Willam-e way, and for a period of three years after the normal return of students, limit of enrollment has been set at 800 students. Willamette's development he past ten years with the erection of the University Library and Collins ence Hall gives us educational facilities to take care of that number, and e facilities are unsurpassed by any college in the northwest. The University does face the immediate need of housing facilities for new students, and during year a program has been launched to provide dormitory facilities for men as n as building conditions will permit. A fund of $321,000 for dormitory and rmary facilities was announced late in 1944 and the friends of the University e to date subscribed in excess of $160,000.

In addition to the Infirmary, the ten year development program includes ad-ons to the Endowment to further strengthen the permanent financial struc-e, the enlargement of athletic and recreational facilities, and the erection of Student Union building to serve as a center of student life.

The University wishes to express the thanks to this Conference for the fin-ncial assistance which has been given through the appropriation through the nference Committee on World Service and Finance, and the College Day Col-ction which this year gave the University a little more than $2,200. These ap-

3. District directors will give aid as wanted in organizing Young Adult and other Adult classes.

4. Demobilization Records—aids in introducing the problem to our churches —are available for use. These may be secured from (1) the Portland office, (2) Frank Brown, or (3) Raynor Smith. See addresses above.

5. Pamphlet boxes, for the distribution of Christian Education literature, are available for purchase at the Annual Conference.

Our young adults are organized into a fellowship that carries on an excellent piece of work. Their report is attached. Leonard Uppinghouse, the Conference President of the Fellowship, now in service, is a member of the National Commission on Young Adult work.

Respectfully submitted,
O. Leonard Jones,
Conference Director.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The program of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement has grown and has become more varied each of the three years of its existence.

This past year under President Leslie Brockelbank the Second Annual Conference was held in the First Methodist Church, Corvallis, December 1, 2, 3, 1944. 110 college students attended. Rev. Harold E. Bremer, Executive Secretary of the National Conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Nashville, was the main speaker. He spoke on the general theme: "It Takes A Nerve." Discussion groups were held on the following topics: (1) "To Live Christianity Effectively," led by Dr. E. W. Warrington, Professor of Religion, OSC. (2) "To Make Marriage A Christian Adventure," led by Dr. Lawrence Bee, U. of O. (3) "To Envision the Peace of Tomorrow," led by Dr. Harry L. Dillin, President of Linfield College. (4) "To Face the Challenge of the Home Church," led by Mr. Frank Bennett, Superintendent of Schools, Salem.

Students came from Willamette University, Oregon State College, University of Oregon, and for the first time from Linfield College and Pacific University.

The following officers were elected for the year 1944-45: President, Cleo Wakefield, O.S.C.; Vice-President, Melvin Gilson, Willamette; Secretary, Evelyn Chapman, Willamette; Treasurer, Harriet Louise Odgers, Linfield.

Representatives: Willamette, Ina Monroe; U. of O., Farrell Rust; O. S. C. Barbara Husbands; Linfield, Orin Sass; Pacific U., Eunice Sande.

Counsellor, Prof. John L. Knight, Williamette.
In January Cleo Wakefield resigned and Melvin Gilson automatically succeeded her as president.

This year for the first time drives were sponsored at Willamette, U. of O., and O. S. C. for the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund. A total of $209.65 was raised in the three campuses, (O. S. C. $50; Willamette $50; U. of O. $109.65). Fifty per cent of this total amount was sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, New York, for use in student missionary projects. The other fifty per cent was sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, Nashville, who sends one-half of this amount back to Oregon to help finance our state work. The other half is used for some project of national importance of the Methodist Student Movement.

The subscriptions to Motive, the publication of the Methodist Student Movement, have been increased on each campus and we are hoping for a still greater increase next fall.

Last August our President, Leslie Brockelbank, represented Oregon at the meeting of the National Methodist Student Commission at Lake Geneva, College Camp, Wisconsin. Many new ideas were gained from this meeting, and it is hoped that the president this year can attend the meeting to be held at Adrian, Michigan, August 24-30.

The past year there has been much interest shown in the Methodist Student Movement on other college campuses in the State and we are hoping that several new organizations may be started. To this end we are sending deputation teams to these campuses in the hope we may help in the organization of these groups.

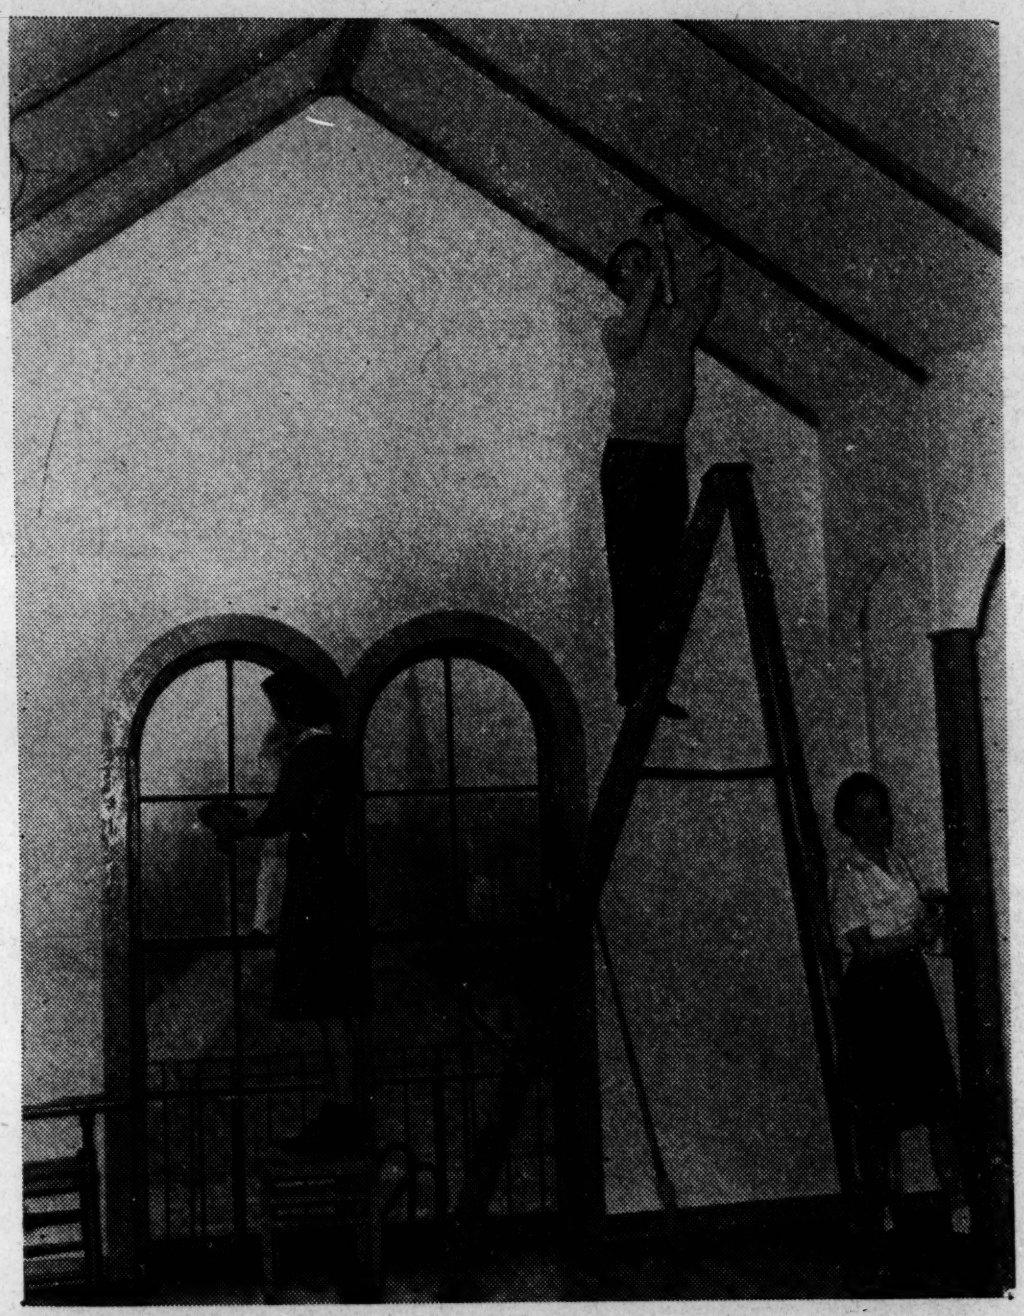

Realizing that the purpose of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement is to

Willamette University---Religious Life Program

The Religious Life Program of Willamette University during the past year s had many varied and interesting features. A survey of activities gives in- cation of increased interest in religious affairs on the part of Willamette stu- nts.

The Interfaith Council, organized last year as the central religious cabinet the campus, functioned this year not only in promoting cooperation among e religious groups, but also in sponsorig special Chapel programs for Thanks- ving, Christmas, Good Friday and Music Week.

The active religious groups on the campus this year were: Y. W. C. A., Y. M. A., I. V. C. F., Catholic Club, University Vespers, Westminister Fellowship and e Methodist Student Movement. Although the student body is predominately ethodist, twenty-five different denominations were represented among the udents this year.

Willamette students put the finishing touches to the new Little Chapel on the top floor of Waller Hall.

The Willamette delegation to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement Conference in Corvallis early in December numbered thirty-two members, nearly twice the number which attended a similar State meeting the previous year. The Methodist Student Movement on the Willamette campus has increased its subscriptions to Motive from eight to twenty-five,, and this year contributed $50 to the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund. The chief campus project of the Methodist Student Movement this year has been the completion of the Little Chapel.

Students have participated in each of the Wednesday Worship Chapel services during the year. Guest speakers of these Chapel programs included: Dr. Silas E. Fairham, Rev. Dudley Strain, Dr. Channing Tobias, Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, Rev. William Genne, Rev. Ralph G. Kleen, Rev. E. J, Aschenbrenner, Rev. G. H. Swift, Rev. O. L. Jones, Dr. Jesse Bunch, Rev. Owen J. Beadles, Rev. L. O. Grifpropriations to the work of the University have been used directly in the ex pansion of the University's offerings in the department of religion and in religious guidance and counselling.

Reverend John L. Knight has served the University with great distinction a counsellor on religious life. During the past year. Reverend Knight has preached in 44 Methodist churches of the Conference, addressed 30 banquets and group meetings, attended 23 youth rallies and Crusade For Christ meetings, acted a counsellor in five full weeks in Institutes, and conducted classes in the Laboratory School for Church Workers. During the year, Professor Knight has acted as state advisor to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement. This widened program of religious work at the University has been made possible in large measure through the support of the Conference. In addition to the regular appropriation from the Conference, the Willamette Day Collection this year gave the University a little more than $2,200. With this help we have been able to make Professor Knight available to the individual churches without charges for expenses.

During the year, the University has published a folder entitled, "Religion On and About the Campus" which is sent to each entering student to emphasize the importance of religious activities at the University.

These appropriations by the Conference have also served to take Willamette from the bottom of the list of Methodist colleges in the direct support received from the Conference. Three years ago, Willamette was listed fifty-fourth among 54 four year Methodist colleges in the financial grants from the Conference. A report dated June, 1945 which has just been received from Dr. John O. Gross now ranks Willamette forty-eighth of 54 four year Methodist colleges in the percentage of the college annual budget derived from direct conference appropriations. Throughout the Methodist church, the senior colleges in the year 1943-44 received six per cent of their total budget from the direct appropriations of their respective conferences. Since 1943-44, this has been an increasing amount. During the past year, Willamette's $2,500 appropriation from the Committee on World Service and Finance of the Oregon Conference amounted to one per cent of the total annual budget of the University.

During the past year, Willamette has been fortunate in receiving the largest single bequest in its history. The endowment fund of the University was named in the will of Charles and Albert Seaquest as residuary legatee in an estate which will add to the permanent endowment of Willamette approximately $200,000. Two generous Methodist laymen had a vision of youth. They saw the importance of Christian education in the building of a better tomorrow through the minds and lives of young people.

"He builded in a heart, a mind
A never dying soul
And as he built his name was writ
Upon forever's scroll.
His gold he used to scatter wide
A chance to see the light
He, handing learning's touch along
For many, shattered night.
Ten thousand boys by his design
Became ten thousand men
Ten thousand hearts which lost the hope
Had hope return again.
These monuments of men will live
And in tomorrow's day
Because of just that thing he did
Will walk the highest way.
Who knows what height may be its end?
For after we are gone
Another boy, another man
It goes forever on!"

In concluding this report, I wish to express my personal appreciation and my very great debt to Dr J. C. Harrison who has served so efficiently and faithfully in the position of President of the Board of Trustees. No college president could have been given more wholehearted and loyal support than I have received at the hands of Dr. Harrison. Without his work, his unfailing support and encouragement, the accomplishments of the past three years would not have been possible. In making these comments, I pay to him only the tribute which is so rightfully due him.

Respectfully submitted,

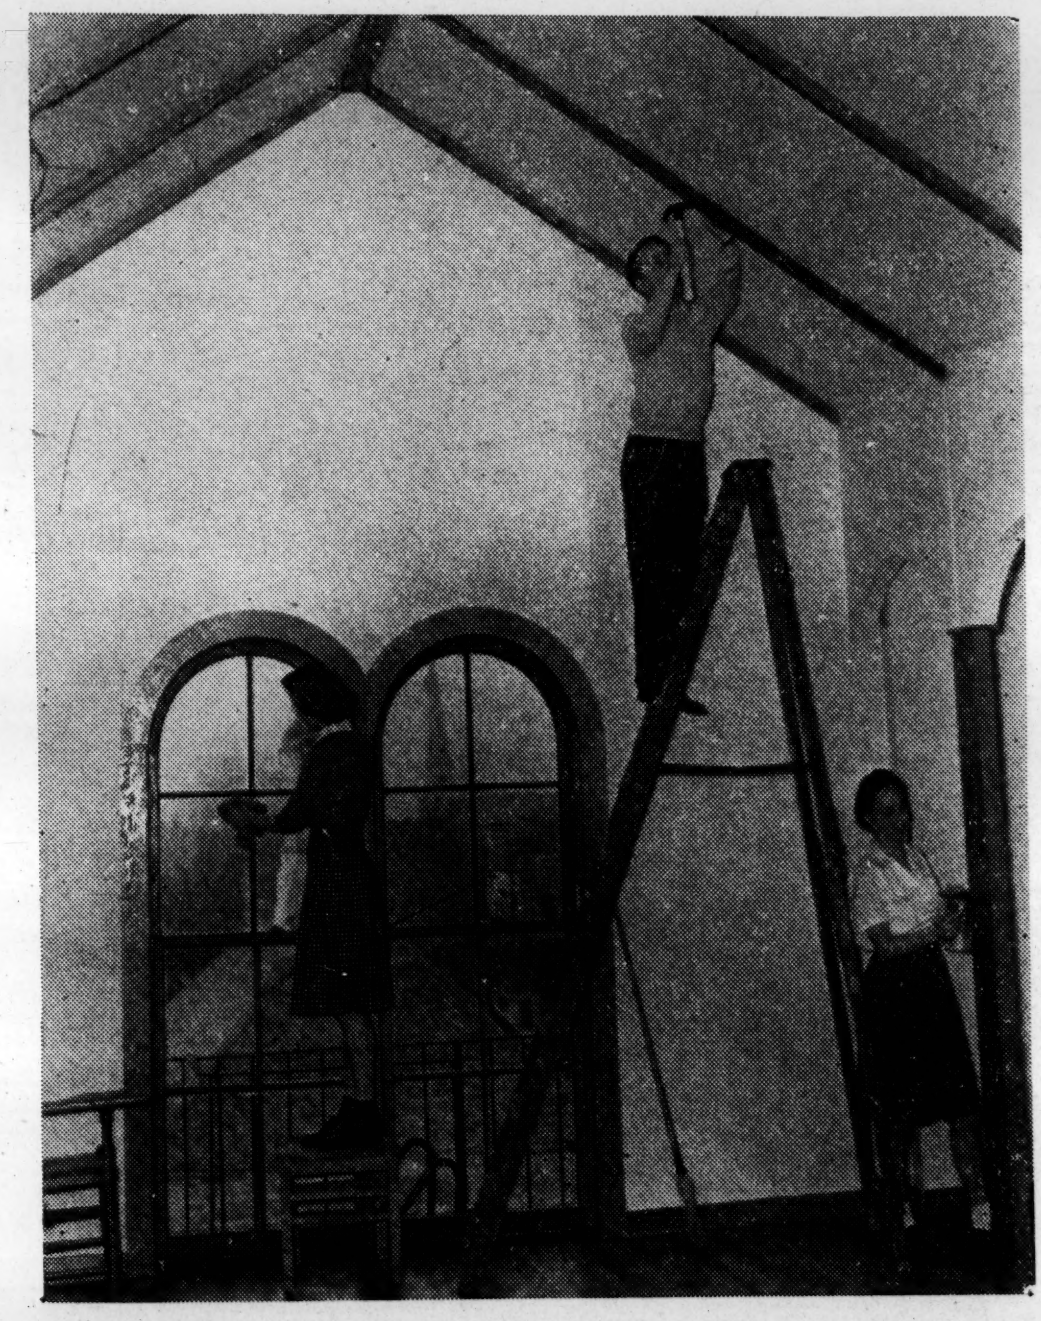

G. Herbert Smith, President.

In concluding this report, I wish to express my personal appreciation and my very great debt to Dr J. C. Harrison who has served so efficiently and faithfully in the position of President of the Board of Trustees. No college president could have been given more wholehearted and loyal support than I have received at the hands of Dr. Harrison. Without his work, his unfailing support and encouragement, the accomplishments of the past three years would not have been possible. In making these comments, I pay to him only the tribute which is so rightfully due him.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Herbert Smith, President.

Wesley Foundation--University of Oregon

EUGENE, OREGON

Loyal student leaders in the Wesley Foundation at the University of Oregon have endeavored to increase the value of the Wesley Foundation program and the interest in its activities and purpose. The student leaders were:

President, Betty Lou Cramer, Monroe; Vice-presidents and Worship-program Chairmen, Doris Craig, Drain, and Wilma Langfelt, Eugene; Treasurer, Ken Hays, Waitsburg, Washington; Recreation Leaders, Louise Smith, Eugene, and Farrell Rust, Salem; Promotion, Evelyn Woodworth, Willamette; Publicity, Velita Durland, Salem; Deputations, Leslie Brockelbank, Eugene.

The program planned by these students in bi-monthly cabinet meetings reached during the year approximately 95 students, 10 college-age young people not in school, and 23 civilian public service men.

The committee on worship planning consisting of eight members met each week to study methods of improving worship service content, to become acquainted with worship materials, to plan the schedule of speakers and study-units for Sunday evening meetings and to plan special worship services for Thanksgiving, and for Good Friday when the play "The Terrible Meek" was presented in the sanctuary of the church.

Wednesday afternoons and evenings have been informal recreational times each week, and Friday or Saturday night parties, the planned recreation for each week.

Summer and spring retreats have combined worship, study, and recreation for 36 students as they have spent some time together away from the campus.

The president attended Lisle Fellowship in New York last summer and three girls attended the Seabeck Student Conference, another working in a Students-in-Industry project in Seattle. Twelve students attended the Oregon Methodist Student Conference in Corvallis, December 1, 2, and 3, 1944.

Wesleyans contributed $109.65 to the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund by answering the challenge of the slogan, "Work a Day for China." One day's time was the minimum asked of each student, the money earned in that day to be given to this fund. Half of the money earned is designated for West China Union University, the chosen "Fellow-College" of the Wesley group.

At the end of two years' residence at 1258 Kincaid Street, the Wesley Foundation finds that new ownership of the property makes a move necessary. During the past decade there has been no permanent location for this student work; this move is another in the series which have retarded the progress which could have been made over these years if there had been one central place for Wesley Foundation activities. It is felt that a permanent location should be established in the near future; the Wesley Foundation Commission has taken this matter into consideration and is investigating possible locations for a new Center, asking the support of the Conference and especially the World Service and Finance Commission in this undertaking.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Beth Carpenter,
Director of Student Activities.

The religious activities on the campus have been under the general direction of Rev. John L. Knight, Counsellor on Religious Life. The Counselling office has also set aside certain hours each day for personal consultation, and the student response throughout the year has been quite gratifying. This office also published a pamphlet, "Religion On and About the Campus," placing the emphasis on religion as a part of campus activities, a copy of which was sent to each of the members of the Conference.

Major activities of the Wesley Foundation during the last year and the attendance at each have been: Freshman Party, 250; World Friendship Banquet, 235; Original Christmas Service, 1000; Original Easter Vesper, 350; 5 Retreats, 217.

Religious Emphasis Week on the campus had Wesleyans in leadership. Eight Wesleyans have served on Round Table's Executive Committee.

$1865.43 has been checked through the student treasurer's books in the course of this year's activity program.

350 Methodist students and 100 Methodist army trainees on the campus have been registered this year.

Regular activities each week have included: Sunday evening forums and firesides; Sunday morning church services; College Sunday School class taught by Dean U. G. Dubach; Wednesday evening Upper Room fellowship groups; Friday night parties, and Executive committee meetings each week.

Several returned service men and several international students are active in the Foundation. One Retreat had in its personnel: 5 service men home on furloughs and leaves; 5 army student trainees; 4 international students; 3 faculty members, including Dean Buena M. Maris.

Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Bunch have been loved by the students, to whom they have given a creative and devoted leadership. Dr. S. M. Zeller and the faculty committee are always a scurce of counsel and strength. Gladys Beckendorf and Barbara Husbands have had the whole-hearted and earnest cooperation of their fellow students in the building of a program whose aim has been the enrichment of individual lives through growth in Christian experience and service.

Personally, I am deeply grateful for the privilege of association with these students and their leaders as they see their dreams emerge into plans for fulfillment.

The student's quest for God finds practical expression in the program of the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church.

The past year in the church center at Oregon State has been an inspiring one Deep joy and deep sorrow have left their indelible trace in character patterns of youth.

The death of Archie Fanger of Medford in Italy has colored the thinking and program of the year. Archie, former president of the Foundation, who graduated with honors in Engineering, left a rich heritage of earnest and devoted Christian living which has been a challenge for us.

Seven Wesley Cabinet members at Oregon State in the last six years are now either in the Ministry or preparing for it. These young men are:

Clark Enz—Minister at Dallas, Oregon.

Harold Huff—Graduating from Garrett this July as Naval Chaplain.

Bob Burtner—Entering Garrett Naval Chaplaincy graduate program this spring.

Kiyoshi Yumibe—Government Intelligence service in the Philippines.

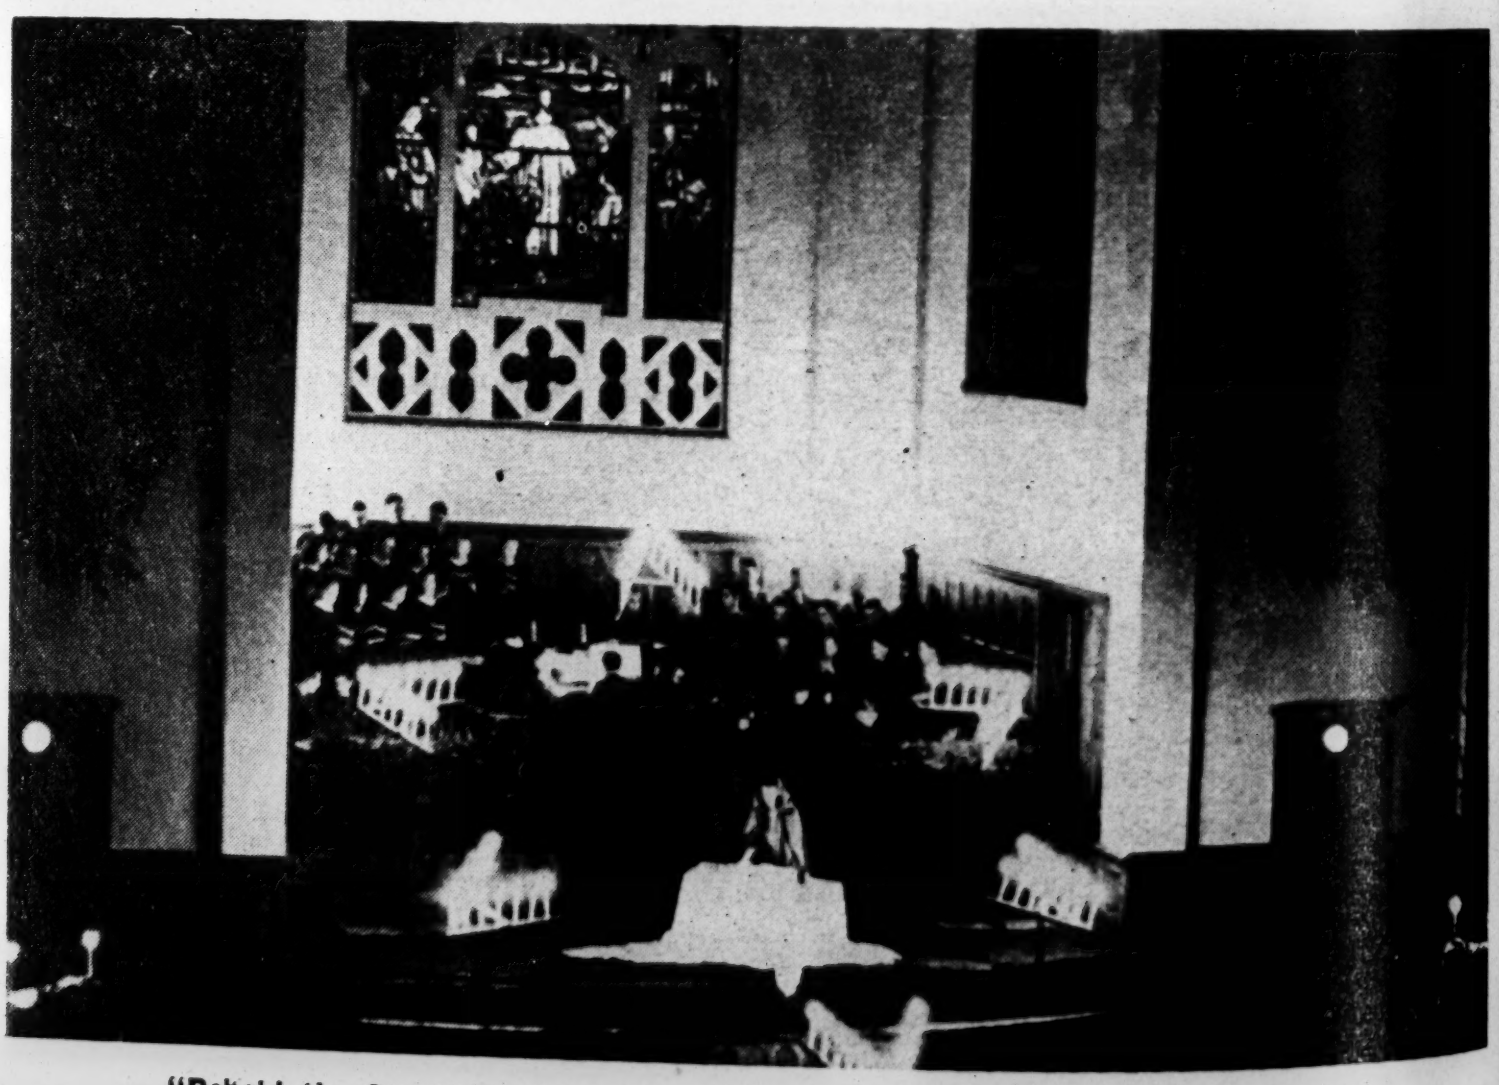

William Brook—70th Division in Germany—writing regularly to Dr. Bunch for conference course of studies materials.

Kenneth Scott—local preacher (licensed this year) now entering the Navy.

Mickey Modisett—Army student engineer on the campus from Dallas, Texas and candidate for the Ministry.

The following girls are council members of two years ago who are now church staff members: Mildred Cherry Godard—Religious Education at Seaside. Cleo Wakefield Burtner—Secretary and receptionist as 1st Methodist Church Evanston, Illinois.

Last Christmas pageantry services of worship were presented in five Oregon communities led by former Wesley Council Members of two years ago. Several Wesleyans are serving as High School counsellors in the state (six recent graduates).

TEMPERANCE RESOLUTION

We deplore the conditions resulting from the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor under so-called state control in Oregon.. Under our state system of handling liquor—(1) We consumed 45 per cent more liquor per capita than the nation at large. (2) It has driven liquor into the home. (3) It has been the cause of more drinking women than any other method of dealing with the liquor problem in Oregon. (4) It has produced a big business in bootleg permits. There were sold during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1944, 754,997 purchaser permits. There were only 602,013 registered voters in the state for the general election in 1944. There were 152,984 more permits issued than registered voters. THEREFORE, WE STRONGLY DESIRE THAT THE STATE OF OREGON BE TAKEN OUT OF THE LIQUOR BUSINESS AND THAT THE LIQUOR BUSINESS BE PUT OUT OF THE STATE.

We commend the work done by the Anti-Liquor League of Oregon through its Board of Directors and the state superintendent, in its research and educational work and will give our support to continue the great work in the name of God and humanity.

We suggest that each pastor present the temperance matter to his Official Board and have one or more sermons delivered from his pulpit on the subject during the year.

The Committee.

WORLD PEACE

I.

We hold it to be self-evident that war is contrary to the spirit of Jesus. There is no way to win a modern war. War is the great enemy of mankind. Its futility is beyond question. Its continuace is the suicide of civilization.

We hereby express our thanks to our Council of Bishops for their leadership in the Crusade for a new World Order. We appreciate their references to the Dumbarton Oaks Proposals and their slogan, "Study, Support, and improve."

We desire also to express our thanks to our national President and other officers of the state for their leadership in initiating the United Nations Conference for International Organization. We feel that the conference which is to close next Tuesday in San Francisco is one demonstration of the fact that many nations can use the methods of the peace table for the settlement of international differences.

While we have not received as yet the full text of the proposed organization, we do feel that this is a step in the right direction. Doubtless there will be some flaws in the document. No man made instrument is perfect. However we do feel that it would be better to adopt first and amend afterwards by the constitutional method. We therefore urge our national Congress, not to repeat the mistake of past generations, but to accept this newer form of world organization, if at all compatible with our national safety.

II.

On the subject of peace time conscription, we would caution regarding the tendency in war time to thinking with the emotions rather than with the intellect. We are not living in the days of ancient war-gods but rather in the Christian era. Jesus gave us our concept of God as Father of all human beings. As the spokesman of God, Jesus calls on all, on both sides of the battle line.

We do not like conscription of any kind, whether in peace or in war. But we do recognize that if a world organization is to succeed in preventing war it must have some measure of force with which to restrain the forces of evil.

Therefore we request our national leaders to keep our military establishments in such a status that we may do our proper share in policing the world and at the same time refrain from having such a large army as to arouse the fears of the collaborating nations.

We feel that it would be best to postpone adoption of any peace time conscription until the close of the present conflict and until our boys come home and have a chance to express themselves on this issue.

We request our conference secretary to send a certified copy of this resolution to each of our Oregon Congressmen.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Evangelism is to be the emphasis in 1946 in the Crusade for Christ. This is of special significance to the Oregon Conference since statistics show that only 22.6 of the population of the State are identified with any church, the next to the lowest percentage of any state in the Union. Although surveys made in Portland housing centers revealed 15 percent of the population indicating a preference for the Methodist Church, actually only 3.4 of Oregon's population are Methodist. Truly, "the field is white unto harvest."

Our church leaders have set the following minimum goals for evangelism in the Crusade for Christ:

(1) One million new members, at least 60 percent of whom are to be received on profession of faith.

(2) Daily devotions in every Methodist home.

(3) Five hundred new churches.

Your Conference Board of Evangelism recommends the following goals for the coming year:

(1) New members equal to 20 percent of the present membership, at least one half of them to be received on profession of faith.

(2) That every church in the Oregon Conference go "all out" for evangelism.

To achieve these goals we recommend that the local church adopt the following procedure:

(1) Organize a strong representative committee on evangelism as specified in the Discipline, (P. 148, Sec. 1).

(a) Provide an effective plan of evangelism for the local church.
(b) Set objectives, for the local church, such as a definite percentage of increase in membership for the year.
(c) Use not just one, but all methods of evangelism, such as pulpit evangelism, personal and home visitation, and educational evangelism.
(d) Provide for membership training classes.
(e) Build a prospect list, utilizing the entire constituency, (use the analysis chart provided by the Conference Board of Evangelism).
(f) Display and distribute evangelistic literature through a carefully selected good literature committee.

(2) We highly recommend the use of the Unit System, organized on geographic lines, in the local church, as the most effective organizational means for the promotion of a year round program of evangelism and assimilation of new members.

(3) We recommend further, that each church, through its pastor, make quarterly reports on progress in evangelism, to the District Superintendent on forms to be provided.

We recommend that Evangelism be made the major emphasis in all district conferences, and that schools of evangelism be made available for every pastor under the direction of the cabinet with the cooperation of the Board of Evangelism.

We urge the recognition of the fact that our inactive members are our first and immediate evangelistic responsibility. Therefore, we urge that all pastors carry out conscientiously the program of the General Board of Evangelism with reference to Church Loyalty Crusade annually.

Finally, we urge recognition of the fact that Evangelism is the key to victory in the Church and that the spirit of evangelism must undergird all phases of Church life and of the Crusade for Christ.

E. J. Aschenbrenner, Chairman.
Ralph G. Kleen, Secretary.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

As we begin the second quadrennium of the Woman's Society of Christian ervice we face a very different situation from that which confronted us four ears ago. Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Jesse W. Bunch a very firm oundation was laid; it is our hope and prayer that a living temple shall be uilded upon this foundation that shall be a symbol of our Christ, love and serv- e to all humanity.

The three districts are fully organized, thus giving a closer contact between he local societies and the conference organization, the districts have their an- ual meetings, except the Cascade district, because of geographical distances, akes such a meeting impossible, but their President has been over most of the istrict.

We have had an increase in membership, subscriptions to the "Methodist Woman," "World Outlook," and our own Conference Bulletin, an increase in our iving to missions and Christian Social Relations.

Our Conference Treasurer sent to the Division Treasurer $25,118.90, which is n increase of $4,200.00. Over and above this amount we sent $300.00 to Bennett ollege for our scholarship girl, Miss Blanche Graves.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service is co-operating very closely with he rest of the church in the "Crusade for Christ" program. They served com- endably in the financial part of the program. Now we enter the next two hases—Evangelism and Stewardship. The plan is to conduct a series of Spirit- al Life Retreats, which will mean much to the personal development and in- piration in preparing the women for this important part of this great program.

The Western Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society is planning such a retreat t Salt Lake City this fall if travel conditions permit, with Mrs. Alexander, the ivision Secretary of Spiritual Life as the director. The Conference President nd the Conference Secretary of Spiritual Life hope to attend this retreat and ring some of the inspiration back to this Conference.

The Summer School at Smith Creek last August was an outstanding success. ixty women went back to their local societies with an enlarged vision and reater enthusiasm for the coming year's work. This summer our school will be eld at Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon. Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Conference ecretary of Missionary Education, will be dean. The school will be accredited. iss Mabel C. Wagoner, Divisional Field worker, will be on the staff. This year he school will be able to accommodate one hundred or more women, which hould prove to be a means of greater information and inspiration to the local ocieties whose women take advantage of this opportunity.

Mrs. Alice Chappell, the Conference Secretary of Christian Social Relations, ttended the Seminar at Denver in July of last year, and that department has een doing increased work. They are not only praying "Thy Kingdom Come," ut are doing their part in bringing in that Kingdom. About $40,000.00 was aised in this department. A good brother of the Oregon Conference challenged he women of the Woman's Society of Christian Service that he would match ollar for dollar up to $5,000.00, for the furnishings of Barview. The Oregon onference is putting up the buildings, but after all, it takes a woman's touch o make it a home. So, this department is busily engaged in raising this amount, s we, the women of the conference, are looking forward to the time when we an meet at Barview for our Conference meetings, Summer Schools, Retreats, etc.

The Childrens work is showing a great increase in interest. The challenge f the Crusade has been accepted; namely, a secretary of childrens work in every ociety.

All departments are growing and showing increased interest, all under cap- ble leadership.

Our missionary, Miss Evelyn deVries, who has been in Africa about a year ays she is spending most of her time studying language; she is getting now so he can understand the Africans; she teaches two classes daily. She says the fricans are advancing, but still have a long way to go.

We are happy and proud to announce that Mrs. F. R. Sanders was elected ecording Secretary and Mrs. J. W. Bunch Secretary of Spiritual Life of the estern Jurisdiction of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the enlarg- d executive meeting held in Los Angeles in February. We know that they will e a great inspiration to our Conference.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP

In as much as our beloved nation and her allies have now achieved our military objectives in Europe and continue seeking victory in the Pacific, we set ourselves to the task of spiritual reconstruction. We as churchmen have as our goal the missionary objective of infiltrating the riches of Christ into the political-economic order of the postwar world. We conceive of it as a milestone in our far-off objective of the Kingdom of God.

We recognize that potentially our world is "One World." "God hath made (us) of one blood." Technical inventions, the means of transportation and communication especially have achieved a geographical unity unprecedented in history. But this unity is darkened by the fact of diversity—national, regional, racial, political, economic, class, and even religious. Out of the hard fact of these competing interests and ambitions comes the all-to-frequent overthrow of order, and a period of war.

As Christian citizens we declare our faith in a united world and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to apply the spiritual foces of life to harmonize and coordinate the diverse forces which are forever disturbing the peace of the world.

To this end we declare ourselves as follows:

1. We declare ourselves firmly for an Association of Nations with sovereignty based on common need and good will, with representation of the minority as well as the majority nations, and with the promise of representation of the vanquished nations at the earliest moment consistent with the safety of the world. We favor giving public-opinion-support to the San Francisco Association of Nations Conference objectives as the best practical step in the direction of such a world association for the present possible.

2. Demobilization and Reconstruction.

With the return of our service personnel and the coincidental reconversion in industry, our ministry will become increasingly focused about the uprooted, civil and military. Our task is spiritual reconstruction. We shall seek to create a fellowship and bond of interest between all people who have become disturbed and divided by the war. Not only shall we seek to restore unity of personality but also unity in the home community. Before us lies the task of restoring and creating community peace, re-uniting soldier and civilian, 4-F C.O., rich and poor, black and white, red, yellow, American and Asiatic and European, capital and labor, farmer and townsman, and the recent migrants who are within our gates.

We would especially recognize our extraordinary responsibility to the returning veterans as men who have fought and faced death for a cause. The Church and Christ must never let them down. Now as never before we must hold before them a new heaven and a new earth. They will suffer disillusionment enough. Let the church promise them the Kingdom of God for conquest; let us march with them and die with them seeking the reign of God and brotherhood among men. Only such a deployment and reinlistment can save our sons and daughters. Only a church that transcends the struggle of class and clan can ever hope to deploy the soldiers of Caesar and enlist them in the common ranks as soldiers of the cross.

3. Realizing that trivial racial differences are frequently played upon as instruments of economic, political, and social explotation, creating the illusion of inferior and superior races, we set ourselves to the task of creating racial understanding and appreciation. We acknowledge the Negro, the Mexican, the Indian, and the Oriental as our brothers, and promise to foster such an attitude in church and community. We agree to promote this ideal and to seek the passage of laws to prevent racial discrimination in industry and the usage of public facilities of life. We commend the churches of all nations and the inter-racial churches in their deliberate attempts to realize brotherhood. We commend our pastors who are serving in tension areas for all courageous and prudent efforts put forth by them to defend the rights of these persecuted minorities. We defend the rights of citizenship and land ownership of the loyal nisei according to their constitutional rights.

4. Anti-Semitism. We oppose all Anti-semitism as an unfair and unchristain form of competition.

5. Class war. In the age-old strife between owner and slave, employer and employee, we condemn all exploitation of man by man. We would condemn or approve all economic practices according as they are exploitive or creative. We favor the extension of democracy in industry, granting the rights of collective bargaining and the four freedoms to employees and employers alike.

6. Imperialism. We condemn any and all exploitive imperialism, and all tariff, embargo acts, exclusion acts, and other merchantilist acts, that are designed as means by which strong nations may dominate and exploit the weaker nations.

O. Leonard Jones, Chairman.

owledge of their work. The Conference Journal could be used to educate ese committees for better work. The Report on Evangelism for this year, has en worked out with very great care. If each church would secure an extra py of the Journal and cut out and place the materials in it in the hands of the oper committees in the local church, this might be a start toward better work.

By way of experiment for those churches that may care to study their own owth we suggest a simple method. Let each church use the total membership the common denominator, select two charges with similar environment in the strict or conference just above and the two just below in total members, com- re the most important items in these five churches and graph the results. ose items might be; the church school in enrollment and attendance; evangel- n as revealed by members received on profession of faith and by letter; stew- dship, local church support and for others. Such a |study might furnish self- otivation for better work. If the churches are interested, the chairman of the mmittee on the State of the Church will be glad to cooperate in the study.

We urge our cabinet, our ministers and our laymen to study the problems d methods of effective churchmanship with reference to youth, and young ults and expansion as well as growth in numbers and in spiritual life. John sley and Salvation Army Booth went outside the established church to do eir mighty work. Can we not find the answer to the pressing problems of a althy church within the bounds of our church?

Walter MacArthur, Chairman,
Jesse W. Bunch, Secretary.

Miss Mildred Simonds, a missionary from India, itinerated the state, and Miss Betty Brittingham, editor of the "Methodist Woman" spoke at our fall conference meeting. Our women are better informed by the visit of these two fine women.

We wish to thank the pastors and superintendents for their help and cooperation in stimulating interest of the women of the churches in the work of the Woman's Society.

We are observing the prayer minute twice daily, at 9 A.M. and 6 P.M. for those who are planning the world peace, that they may seek God's wisdom and guidance daily. For we truly believe when a just and lasting peace is achieved the church will furnish the moral basis for international peace.

I heard Christ call,
"Come—follow"—
That was all.
My gold grew dim,
My heart went after him;
I rose and followed;
That was all.

Mrs. F. M. Phelps, Conference President.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Lay Activities program during the conference year has been centered in the Crusade for Christ. Early in October a meeting of the Conference Boards of Lay Activities of the Portland Area was held in Portland with Oregon laymen as hosts. For two days we studied together concerning the Crusade for Christ and other Kingdom interests. The Oregon Conference Board of Lay Activities sponsored district meetings for laymen promoting and explaining the Crusade.

Again next year our emphasis will be on the Crusade for Christ as we enter the Evangelism phase, and as we continue our effort in Christian education. The lay members of the Annual Conference in a special meeting on Friday (yesterday) pledged themselves to work, plan, and pray for the Methodist Church as we seek to renew the spirit and program of Evangelism in our local churches and communities.

Edward L. Clark, Conference President.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

A healthy church is a growing church. The Methodist Church in Oregon should make a rapid growth in numbers: the influx of new people, many of them Methodists, makes it easy for a friendly church to "add to its numbers daily." We urge our churches to practice Christian neighborliness with these new people in our midst.

Growth in spiritual life is more difficult to achieve and not easily measured. The reports of each church reflect a year-by-year spiritual state of the church, but these reports do not leave us any great room for optimism. If it is true that the average church across America has not more than twenty-five percent of its membership present on a given Sunday, how can we hope for real spiritual growth? An Episcopal Bishop said, "When the Methodist church moved out, it took the stove with it." We wish that were true. But the fires of evangelism and of spiritual growth are not burning brightly today in our church or in any other church. But Crusade for Christ in evangelism makes it imperative for us to face the problems of spiritual growth in our churches.

John Wesley gave to our church a form of organization fashioned to help us realize a healthy growth in numbers and in vital life. He divided each church into classes with a leader over each class. These leaders were to see each person in the class once each week "to inquire, advise, reprove, comfort, exhort and to receive gifts." Each was to report to the minister on the sick and those who "walked disorderly." Some modification of this plan of work by which we can secure the cooperation of our members in reaching new people, sick people, needy people—is surely essential to any plan of growth and health in our church. We urge our ministers and members to study Par. 93 of the Discipline and to make it real in the local church.

Through the years, our church has developed an organization with many committees appointed at the Fourth Quarterly Conference. These committees have definite work to do but in most churches, they do not function for lack of

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

The Conference has real reason to rejoice in the record of the past year in e contributions of our Churches to the Benevolences. We are advised by our nference Treasurer that a total of $69,705.78 was given for World Service and nnual Conference Benevolences, which is nine percent above the giving of a ar ago. This is on top of an increase of 34.48 percent reported to the 1944 nnual Conference. The Conference Benevolence Budget items have been paid in ll, and there remains a surplus of $4,871.12. All receipts for World Service ve been forwarded to Dr. Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer of the General Commis- on on World Service and Finance.

We recommend that $750 of this surplus, now in the hands of the Annual nference Treasurer, be allocated to the Portland District for religious work in e Defense Housing Projects, $150 to the Conference Travel and Entertainment und, and that the remaining surplus funds be held by the Conference Treasurer an emergency fund for possible post-war need, subject to the further recom- endation of the Commission and order of the Annual Conference.

The World Service apportionment for the next Conference year is $47,271. s a result of study of askings from the various Annual Conference interests king funds for their work, your Commission recommends an Annual Confer- ce Benevolence Budget of $28,660. These two items make a total of $75,931.

We present the following proposals:

1. That the apportionments to the Charges be made by the District Super- tendents in harmony with paragraph 782 of the Discipline.

2. All money raised for the World Service, and/or Annual Conference Ben- olences shall be shared pro-rata between the Conference Benevolences and the orld Service on the following ratios; 40 per cent to Annual Conference Benev- ences; 60 per cent to the World Service.

3. All Benevolence monies shall be remitted to the Annual Conference reasurer in keeping with the provisions of Paragraph 791 of the Discipline.

4. The following Conference Benevolences are approved:

A.	Conference Expense Fund:
	1. Journal and Conference Secretary Expense	$ 650
	2. Travel and Entertainment Committee	800
	3. Area Office Expense	400
	4. Statistician Staff Expense	35
	5. Treasurer: (Salary, $1,200; Auditor, $100; Office Expense, $300)	1600
	6. Expenses Commission on World Service and Finance	75
B.	Christian Education:
	1. Division of Local Church	1900
	2. Educational Institutions:
	a. Willamette University	4000
	b. Wesley Foundations:
	(1) Corvallis	2750
	(2) Eugene	2750
C.	Sustentation Fund	750
D.	Conference Building Fund	1500
E.	Board of Lay Activities	150
F.	District Missionary, Education, Evangelism, and Inprovement	5000
G.	Oregon Council of Churches	600
H.	Conference Board of Evangelism	700
I.	Inter-Board Council	5000
		$28,660

5. The six items under Conference Expense Fund are a preferential charge n all receipts.

6. The remainder of The Conference Benevolence Budget shall be distribut- d on a pro-rata basis. All participants shall share and share proportionately ntil they have received their full appropriation, and cease sharing after they ave received the amounts appropriated.

7. The amount of $75,931 for Conference Benevolences and the World Serv- e shall be allocated to the three districts on the ratio of 43 percent to the Port- nd District, 32 per cent to the Salem District and 25 percent to the Cascade istrict.

8. For the support of the District Superintendents we recommend an ap- ortionment to each charge equal to 7½ percent of the pastor's cash salary. This oney shall be received and banked by the Annual Conference Treasurer, and istributed by him as follows: 34 percent to the Portland District, 33 percent to

Journals of the Pacific German Conferences and Missions;
Pacific Northwest and Puget Sound, and many Sessions of the Oregon and Columbia River Conferences;
General Minutes of various General Conference Sessions, and Report of the Board of Education of Oregon Conference of 1944:
Numerous Record books of Churches served by F. A. Schumann;
Scrap book of J. W. Miller;
The last literary work of Walton Skipworth;
"Politics and Politicians of Early Oregon;"
"The Path of Glory" and miscellaneous material from Oswald West, former Governor;
"Abraham Lincoln" by W. W. Youngson and many other literary productions:
"The Golden Anniversary Sermon" by J. M. Canse;
"Memories from My Book of Life" by H. S. Shangle, and many miscellaneous items.

Outstanding, however, are the "Sermons and Outlines" from the Library of the late Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell bequeathed to W. W. Youngson but now presented by him to the Oregon Conference Historical Society—perhaps the only gift of this kind from a Bishop of Methodism. For its great historical value, we recommend that a separate page be given to the listing of the Pastors, Presiding Elders, and District Superintendents of First Church, Portland, beginning in 1849 as prepared by Thomas D. Yarnes, at the request of the Chairman of this Committee. It will be of great value as the years lengthen. Our thanks are due to Dr. Yarnes for this great service. He has also prepared a statement of the "Beginnings of Methodism in the Tualatin Valley with special reference to Forest Grove Church."

Now that Deaconess Work in Oregon has been discontinued we have secured "Record Books and Minutes" of the Conference Board, Local Board of Managers and Ladies Auxillary from the inception of Deaconess Work in 1892 to the Sale of the Deaconess Home in 1945.

W. W. Youngson, Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

It is with deepest gratitude that we the members of the Oregon Annual Conference express our appreciation and genuine love for the courtesies extended to the 93rd session of this conference by the people of the Salem Churches and their pastors, J. C. Harrison, S. Raynor Smith, and Joseph Knotts. To the folk of these congregations who are so graciously opened their homes and hearts to entertain the members of this conference, we give thanks. Special mention is due Mrs. Herbert Rahe of the church office who handled so quickly and willing all demands made upon her. We now give our appreciation.

In true joy we thank our own Bishop for his spiritual and executive leadership and also Bishop Paul Kern for his dynamic and illuminating messages delivered to the conference.

The presence and contact with Dr. E. C. Nash of the Christian Advocate, Dr. Ezra Cox of the Board of Missions and church extension, Dr. Walter Towner director of the Department of General Church School Work, and Dr. C. M. McConnell of the Boston School of Theology have enriched our conference for which we are thankful.

Additional appreciation is due the program committee, the District Superintendents, the Statisticians, the Secretarial staff, and the great host of others who gave the conference life and inspiration. To the women of the church for their beautiful and elaborate floral decorations, special thanks are given.

At the close of this another conference we are aware of the privileges and blessings that are ours and do now express our thanks.

The Christian fellowship we have enjoyed with brother ministers and laymen challenge us to our task of making all men brothers in Christ, and so we return to our respective churches with a Divine urge and expectancy to make more certain the message of Christ among our people and to be good ministers for Jesus Christ.

W. Sherman Burgoyne,
C. E. Wiliard
Forest Knapp
Albert J. Wilson.

The Commission recommends that insofar as practicable, this plan be followed in the Oregon Conference.

21. Hereafter the Commission will not consider any requests from the Wesley Foundation in Eugene and Corvallis, or Willamette University, until they have come before the Conference Board of Education and have been approved by them.

22. The Commission recommends that each church contribute one communion offering each year to the Conference Claimants Necessitous Fund, to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

23. The Commission authorizes the lifting of an offering or the solicitation of pledges for the support of Methodist men from Oregon in Civilian Public Service Camps in churches that are willing to participate in this activity.

24. The Commission advises the Conference that it is conducting an inquiry, looking toward the auditing by one auditor of the books of all treasurers handling World Service or Annual Conference Benevolence monies.

25. The Commission approves the contemplated program for the Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan campaign for $175.000 to be conducted within the Conference year 1946-47.

26. Inasmuch as there is considerable difference of opinion as to when a pastor's financial year begins and ends, the Commission recommends that the pastors be paid through Conference Sunday regardless of the local church fiscal year. This will not alter the conference fiscal year, that is, churches will continue to report the total amounts paid for pastoral support between June 1 and May 31 and also to pro-rate on this basis.

Joseph Knotts, Chairman.
Ernest W. Peterson, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

We, the Oregon Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension present our report with an awareness of the necessity of fulfilling the command of Jesus, namely— "Go ye into all the world and baptise in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost."

Last year we happily accepted our full responsibility in underwriting our share in the financial program in the Crusade for Christ. It was with joy that we received word that we had far overscribed our quota. While doing so our increase in World Service giving throughout the church was 11.4 percent. In Oregon our World Service giving increased 8 percent.

We recommend that inasmuch as the missionary needs are growing each the Salem District, and 33 percent to the Cascade District. We recommend that an amount not to exceed $600 of the District Superintendent's annual income be regarded as house rent.

We further recommend that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to pay the District Superintendents the minimum salary each month of $350, beginning July 1, 1945.

We request that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to borrow funds in order to maintain this salary schedule, which loan shall be a first claim against the District Superintendent's Fund until repaid.

9. We designate the United States National Bank of Portland, and/or the First National Bank of Portland, and/or any of their branch banks within the State of Oregon as depositories for Conference Funds.

10. The chairman of each Conference Benevolence institution or cause desiring to be considered by this Commission for inclusion in the Annual Conference Benevolence Budget, shall be required to send to the Secretary of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, eleven copies of the detailed proposed budget of his institution or cause, at least one month in advance of each Annual Conference, the same being for distribution to each member of the Commission to allow ample time to become familiar with the various budgets before Conference convenes. Report on the current year's expenditures is also required.

11. The first Sunday in May has been designated as College Day throughout the connection. Your Commission recommends that this be known as Willamette University Sunday in the Oregon Conference, and at this time the cause of the University may be presented in the churches and a special offering taken for the school. This shall be in addition to the grant in the budget. This money shall be remitted through the Conference Treasurer.

12. Your Commission reports that persons holding Conference funds are bonded in the following manner: Conference Treasurer, $10,000; Conference Claimants Board Treasurer, $5000; Conference Claimants Permanent Fund Treasurer, $5000; Conference Trustee Treasurer, $5,000. We are advised that the Conference Treasurer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is included in a blanket bond taken out by their national headquarters.

13. The apportionments to the Conference for the Administration Fund shall be apportioned to the charges of the Conference by the District Superintendents on the same percentage ratios as those for the benevolence funds. The annual apportionment to the Oregon Conference for the General Administration Fund is $1,555.

14. The Jurisdictional Conference expense apportionment is ¼ of 1 percent of the pastor's cash salary provided that any deficit of any year must be paid during the quadrennium.

15. The apportionment for the Episcopal Fund is an amount equal to 1¾ percent of the cash salaries of the pastors for the current year.

16. The Annual Conference, having fixed its fiscal year from June 1 to May 31, your Commission renews its recommendation that these dates become the fiscal year dates of the charges in the Conference.

17. The Commission is arranging to have the Treasurer's books audited in keeping with the provisions of the Discipline.

18. All Benevolence monies, both World Service and Conference Benevolence, shall be remitted monthly by the charge treasurers to the Conference Treasurer who shall distribute them monthly to the various causes, agencies and institutions according to the schedule herein set forth.

19. To pay the Conference Claimants annuity rate of $14.00 requires approximately $41,868. The present plan of apportionment, together with the receipts from the Methodist Publishing House and the Board of Pensions plus the accrued interest on Conference deposits and other funds, will provide receipts totaling $43,309, which is sufficient to meet these needs.

20. The General Conference adopted the following paragraph relative to the various treasurers.

"Par. 160: For the sake of economy and efficiency the Annual Conference may constitute the Conference Treasurer as a depository for any or all Conference Boards and Agencies participating in the Conference Benevolences, eliminating as far as possible the necessity of a treasurer for each. In this event the Conference Treasurer shall keep a separate account for each such Board or Agency, enter the proper credits at the end of each month's business and disburse the same on proper order from each Board or Agency respectively. None of the above designated accounts shall be drawn upon for the benefit of another.

2. That all churches organize their Missionary Committees according to paragraph 1040 in the Discipline.

3. The pastor encourage his people to subscribe to the World Outlook and buy the new study book which is already off the press, thereby stimulating the interest of his people in missions.

4. That greater distribution be made of the splendid pamphlets which are now being made available through our Home Board.

6. This year we shall preach and pray for a verdict, not only presenting Christ as the way of life but that through the financial response of our churches we shall make it possible for our Home Board to send many additional men and women into our needy fields abroad.

7. We heartily endorse the Inter-Board Council which had already been recommended by this Annual Conference and that this Council meet at the earliest possible date, for the purpose of setting up one or two District and Sub-District Conferences for the purpose of presenting to our people a dynamic evangelistic missionary appeal which shall greatly assist in lifting up the resurrected Christ before a bleeding world, that he may draw all men unto himself, transforming a waring world into a world of peace and international good will.

Respectfully submitted,

10. LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE—Twenty-one chosen laymen were given two days of intensive training by Walter Towner from General Board. The purpose was to prepare these persons as Church School Counselors. They are ready to assist in local churches as pastors and church school superintendents prepare the way.

11. AUDIO-VISUAL EXPERIMENT—Mr. Howard Tower, director of audio-visual education with the General Board, spent one day in our Conference giving opportunity and training to five of our churches to participate on an experimental basis in this field for one year. We are privileged in being chosen as one of the experimental centers. Rev. Alfred Vosper will represent us in a three weeks' seminar at Emory University this summer.

12. AUDIO-VISUAL DEPOSITORY—Our Board of Education office is handling the material of the Board of Missions and Church Extension together with some purchased slides and filmstrips. Miss Ella Kennell, secretary, serves you gladly and efficiently.

Our contact with the local churches continues through visitation, conferences and correspondence. The friendly and helpful attitude from every angle is always an encouragement.

It has been a privilege to be a co-operating board of the Interboard Council. We are grateful to the Bishop for the appointment of Ralph Kleen as Director of the New Life Movement. His interest in the total program of the church makes all our work more effective.

Personally and in behalf of the Board of Education I wish to express appreciation to the Volunteer Conference Staff who have helped through the year and prepared the following reports, to President Smith of Willamette University and the two directors of Wesley Foundation Activities for their excellent work, to Bishop Baxter and the District Superintendents, to the General Board of Education and to all you good people. Together we are helping make Christ a reality.

Respectfully submitted,

Pearl E. Sherlock.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

More churches are realizing the true value of the Vacation Church School. According to the Conference Minutes, 3742 Methodist children were enrolled in Vacation Church Schools, which is an increase of 887 over the previous year. It is also gratifying to note the large increase in enrollment in the Children's Division.

The promotional work in the children's division was varied during the past year. The Fourth Annual Laboratory School for teachers in the Children's Division was held at Eugene, June 24-30 with an enrollment of 54. The days were muchly enriched by the presence of Mary Lloyd, Editor of Children's Publications at Nashville and Miss Ethel Ristene from the department of Christian Education of Children of the General Board of Education at Nashville.

In September, the Conference Director, Portland District Director, and two other leaders in children's work participated in a Leadership Training School at the Sellwood Methodist Church in Portland. Several neighboring Methodist Churches united in this school which was departmentalized throughout.

A two-day observation school was held at Dufur in May, with our Executive Secretary, Miss Pearl Sherlock, in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Raymond Rogers, Portland District Director, and a field worker, Dora Lee Allen, from Nashville. The School was deemed a big success, as shown in the interest manifested on the part of the local teachers.

Several mailings of pertinent literature in the field of children's work were sent to every church in the Oregon Conference by the Conference Dirctor, with the hope that they would be used to the best advantage in each local church.

Respectfully submitted,

Esther Shellhart,

Conference Director of Children's Work.

VII. Reports

BOARD OF EDUCATION

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

During this year of EVANGELISM EMPHASIS your Conference Board of Education has held a strategic place. We have worked on the basis that a program of Christian Education which is not evangelistic in its aim and purpose is not Christian and on the other hand a program of evangelism which does not involve the educational process is temporary and unsatisfactory. Every planning meeting has been motivated by a desire to magnify Christ, every project carried out has been prompted by a concern to lead others in His way of life.

GOALS for the Church School have been designated for each Annual Conference for the quadrennium. Prayer, consecration and good, hard work will be the only means of realizing them. Here are the facts for the Oregon Conference:

CHURCH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

District	Additional for Quadrennium	Increase to June '46	Number yet to enroll
Cascade	2730	2237	1493
Portland	4750	1293	3457
Salem	3676	773	2903
Total	11156	4303	7853

CHURCH SCHOOL PROFESSION OF FAITH

District	Additions for Quadrennium	Increase to June '46	Number yet to receive
Cascade	1482	529	953
Portland	2579	858	1721
Salem	1996	601	1395
Total	6057	1988	4069

A challenge has been issued but each church school must answer for itself to God and the church.

Some of the outstanding activities of the year are:

1. ANNUAL CONFERENCE—Dr. Towner's visit last June brought inspiration, information and valuable discussion during the four afternoon hours on The Church School in the Crusade for Christ.
2. SUMMER ACTIVITIES—we had three institutes totaling 640 in attendance; five Christian Adventure Camps with 439; one young adult camp with sixty adults and forty children; and the laboratory school with 56.
3. YOUTH SCHOOL OF EVANGELISM—Twenty-one young people under the leadership of Jim Chubb spent three weeks last summer in prayer, study and visitation, living in Vanport and working in the nearby Housing Areas.
4. MISSIONARY RALLIES—In cooperation with the Board of Missions and Church Extension, Mr. Herbert Riley, a missionary of the Philippines, spent three weeks in the Conference, especially challenging youth to the great need of leadership in every field of the church.
5. COSA—This four day conference on summer activities under the leadership of a team of five from Nashville provided training for twenty-five camp and institute leaders.
6. INSTITUTE SITES—A growing interest has been evidenced in the location of our sites, in the construction of buildings and in a larger program for all age groups. Specific information will be given in Dr. Magruder's report.
7. WORLD SERVICE SUNDAY—The fourth Sunday offering in the church school for benevolences amounts to $16,560. This amount will increase as we continue to educate and make known the needs.
8. VISITING EDUCATIONAL WORKER—Miss Dora Lee Allen was loaned to us for six weeks by the General Board. Her contact was mostly with the rural churches on the Cascade District. Her contribution was most helpful.
9. VACATION SCHOOLS—The latter part of April and May we have given most of our time to the setting up of Vacation Schools and training of leadership. We especially emphasize the importance of this service that a more extensive and far reaching program may reach our children.

ADULT DIVISION

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The Adult Division notes with delight both the growth in interest and numbers in Young Adult work. This work is making its growth as a movement and a fellowship. Pastors and Church School Superintendents are urged to encourage and cooperate with this movement. Growth and interest at this level omen well for any church.

The Division has sponsored (1) the distribution of pamphlet boxes in the local churches, and, (2) has stressed group counciling and other services to demobilized service folk, and (3) made initial steps in a survey seeking leaders and projects in Adult Education worthy of use as patterns. The study will be continued during the year to come.

Pastors and Church School Superintendents are urged to recognize Adult Education as the key and test of all Christian Education in the Church. Adults either prove or disprove all that we teach the children and youth.

Respectfully submitted,
O. Leonard Jones, Conference Director.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The start of the year for the Oregon Conference Young Adult Fellowship came at the Annual Camp, held at the Twin Rocks Friendship Camp just north of the Methodist site of Barview. Gone were the traditions of several years of Smith Creek, where the previous camps were held, but new avenues were opened as the group was able to visualize the possibilities of the new camp at Barview. Miss Doris Dennison of National Staff, Miss Gertrude Crane of Pacific University, and Rev. O. Leonard Jones were the leaders. The end of the war came as the Young Adults were in camp and with it an ideal setting for the concerns of the Postwar Era and its many challenges. Gone now was the tenseness of war years that found almost all persons affected in one way or another as relatives and friends were in the various responsibilities of the war situation.

Now came the realization of a new group of responsibilities. Persons who had been dislocated during the past few years would soon be returning, Young Adult groups needed strengthening, new ones started in some places, Program suggestion and Service projects needed. These and discussions that fit into the theme of Our Homes for Christ occupied the serious sessions of the Camp program. Rev. Ralph Kleen as Dean and Nelson Lewis as the Acting Conference President, both were busy with responsibilities of keeping the program rolling.

Some remarks about the program of the past year:

The return of persons to the local groups from the Service and wartime industry has brought in many of the Churches a stability that was not possible for a three-year period. Many of the returning persons have quickly and effectively taken over positions of leadership in their groups. Many churches who were only mildly active or not active at all in the Young Adult age have now found in the Young Adult Program a splendid opportunity for Church Service and real fellowship.

To quote a Conference officer on his observations, "There is a definite desire for Young Adults to reorganize or strengthen present groups. Many people feel that the church is the only true approach to the solution of present-day problems. Veterans are especially interested. A couple I know personally are giving up lodge membership in favor of Young Adult program."

Portland District has been increasingly active with Monthly meetings of the Representatives of the Churches of the District to discuss and plan Young Adult programs. There have been two District Conferences. Several new groups were added during the year. One of the latest developments of the District has been a Social Action Committee to tackle some of the problems of the day. Salem North Sub-District has had two opportunities for the groups of that section to get together. Some of the other districts have had smaller groupings on united meetings of Young Adult groups.

The Quarterly publication of the YAF, edited by Don and Maxine Darby of Salem, has given the Young Adults of the Conference the current news on Young Adults.

YOUTH DIVISION

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

SINGING ONWARD—That's what the Oregon M.Y.F. has been doing this past year in every phase of Youth activity in the church.

SINGING ONWARD—in the Crusade for Christ. Our emphasis this year has been upon Youth's part in the evangelism program in the local church, in the districts and in the conference. Youth can win Youth—Youth have won Youth for Christ in Oregon.

SINGING ONWARD—with the Methodist Youth Fund—Used for missionary purposes at home and abroad, this has become M.Y.F.'s answer to uniting the world for peace through Christianity.

SINGING ONWARD—at our 4th Biennial Conclave, held at First Church, Eugene, Oregon, March 8, 9, 10. Rev. L. O. Griffith was the gracious host to 300 youth who came for a weekend of inspiration, fun and fellowship. We were very fortunate in having Rev. Hoover Rupert, National Director of Youth Work, Nashville, Tennessee, as our key-note speaker. He set the pace for some down-to-earth thinking and discussion on the Evangelistic phase of the Crusade for Christ.

SINGING ONWARD—with the college groups under the able leadership of Evelyn Chapman of Willamette University as the president of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement, which is a part of the M.Y.F. program. The M.S.M. is ready to carry on after a young person has left his local church and is a Methodist Student on any one of Oregon's college and University campuses.

SINGING ONWARD—To the National Conference of the M.Y.F. at Adrian, Michigan. This meeting was attended by Earl Fedje, representing the M.S.M., and myself, representing the M.Y.F. It was a thrill and an inspiration for us to gain this bird's eye view of American Youth in Action. We have tried to bring back the spirit of that meeting, regretting that every young person in Oregon could not have attended.

And so you go singing onward with us. You who have helped us—Miss Sherlock, our executive secretary, Rev. Harold Shellhart, our Conference Youth Director, and all the ministers and laymen of the conference who have given us your time and enthusiastic support. You have given us the basic notes upon which we are building a symphony.

"So we go singing onward,
So we go singing onward,
We're pressing upward,
We're marching Homeward
To Him, unafraid."

Respectfully submitted,
Lois Messing Todd, President.

CONFERENCE DIRECTORS REPORT

The Conference President's report will show that the Methodist Youth Fellowship has been on the march this last year. Removal of war-time restrictions will enable Conference, District and sub-district councils to function more efficiently during this year.

Many are discovering that the present discussion and worship materials for morning and evening sessions are improved. Youth, Counsellors and pastors also report Workshop, magazine for Youth Leaders, is unsurpassed in its concrete plans and goals for each Commission and the entire local council.

Last year the need was emphasized for special attention to those between 18 and 23. Various local Churches have had marked success in reaching this group and others have been inspired to take steps to discover and plan for them. An average of about 50 from a dozen Portland Churches have met in two city-wide meetings for inspiration, fellowship and sharing of methods and programs. This movement should continue to grow.

Institute and Conference plans give promise of a meaningful year ahead as Oregon Youth do their part in the Crusade for Christ by emphasizing Stewardship for all of life.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Shellhart.

war. This means that the University must of necessity close its enrollment and refuse admission to many who apply. The enrollment for the coming year was closed on May 15, and the University was still forced to deny admission to over three hundred students who had applied before that date. In admitting new students to the University, first consideration has been given to the scholarship and character of the applicant. Preference has also been given to students from Willamette's regular constituency who would normally have looked to Willamette for educational opportunities.

The great influx of students emphasizes the University's need for adequate housing for men. The building fund for the men's housing approaches the $300,000 mark, but building costs have increased so greatly that it is now obvious that an additional $100,000 must be raised to complete the building program originally planned. This additional amount will be sought during the coming year.

The V-12 program of the United States Navy was concluded in October, 1945, when the last group of men in Navy uniforms disappeared from the Willamette campus. The presence of the Navy program made it possible for the University to keep its teaching staff intact during the war, so the problem of building an effective faculty has not been as acute as on many campuses. While Willamette must add a few members to the staff to take care of increased enrollment, the large continuing body of Willamette's faculty remains unchanged.

The increased demands on the University makes Willamette even more conscious of its responsibility as a church-related Christian college. Willamette is determined, not only to maintain the highest standards of scholastic excellence, but also to provide these educational opportunities in an atmosphere of Christian ideals and culture. The key to this is the faculty. New members are selected on the basis of their education and ability to each, but not without regard to their fundamental interest in Christian ideals and loyalty to the program of the Church as the expression of organized religion. Students of the campus are encouraged by counsel and example to take part in the campus religious activities and the local church of their denomination. Seven active religious groups on the campus have coordinated their work through the Interfaith Council, the central religious cabinet which holds monthly meetings. This Interfaith Council is also responsible for special religious programs for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Good Friday. While twenty-four religious denominations are represented in the Willamette student body, the Methodist preference group still outnumbers the next largest group by a ratio of two to one.

During the year, Willamette was host to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement and Miss Evelyn Chapman, a Willamette junior, served as President of the Conference. Professor John L. Knight, Assistant to the President of the University, serves as state advisor to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement.

Based upon a study of the curriculum, the faculty of the University voted to increase the required work in Bible or Religion which is part of the course of every student who graduates from the University. The new requirement of four semester hours goes into effect with the fall semester.

The Oregon Conference has given increasing assistance of a financial nature to the University during the past four years. This assistance has enabled the University to expand its program of service to our young people and to our Conference. We hope that every member of the Conference will consider that this has been a wise appropriation of Conference funds and that the investment has paid large dividends in kingdom building. The University wishes to express its thanks for the assistance given in the past and express the sincere hope that the Conference will continue the appropriation of last year and again grant the privilege of a Willamette Sunday in the churches of the Conference. Willamette University as a Christian college continues to live up to the high standards of the Oregon Conference and the Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Herbert Smith, President.

Camp for the group will be at Barview, August 10-17 with Rev. Ralph Kleen again as the Dean and Robert Clemmons of Nashville as the National representative. To make the Young Adult more effective in his own Church, a class will be conducted on "What our Church Believes." The theme will be "Our Working Fellowship."

Respectfully submitted,

George O. Swanson, President.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The Oregon Methodist Student Movement got off to a slow start this year by losing two of its officers—president, Cleo Wakefield, and vice president, Melvin Gilson.

Under the direction of our advisor, Prof. John L. Knight, the council rallied around to plan the third annual state conference for February 8-10, 1946, at First Methodist Church, Salem, Oregon. The main speaker was Rev. R. E. Decker of Beaverton, Washington, who spoke on the theme, "Christianity Meeting the Crisis of Our Time," which was the theme of National Conference. Discussion groups were the following: "Credo," led by Prof. Herman W. Clark, Willamette University; "The Christian Church," led by Prof. R. D. Chambers, Oregon State College; and "The Crisis in Our Age," led by Prof. Paul R. Means, University of Oregon. The discussions were based on the booklets of the same name, around which National Conference was planned.

Students attended from University of Oregon, Oregon State College, Willamette University, and Linfield College.

Officers for the Year 1946-47 were elected as follows: President, Barbara Husbands, Oregon State College; Vice president, Ruth Wahlgren, University of Oregon; Secretary, Betty Mae Jackman, Willamette University; Treasurer, Bill Tebeau, Oregon State College.

The drive for the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund, which has become an annual activity, is being carried on at this time on our campuses. We do not know the total amount of collections as yet.

Subscriptions to MOTIVE have been handled by one individual on each campus, and we find the number of sales increasing each year.

This year the National Student Movement Conference, which is held every four years, was held on the campus of the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois, during the week of December 28, to January 2, 1947. Oregon was privileged to have eight representatives attending the conference: two each from the University of Oregon, Oregon State College, Willamette, and one from Linfield, and one Oregon State College man on furlough from the Army.

We are looking forward to the coming year and its peace-time activities—the first in the history of the four-year-old Oregon Methodist Student Movement.

Respectfully submitted,
Evelyn Chapman, Secretary.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

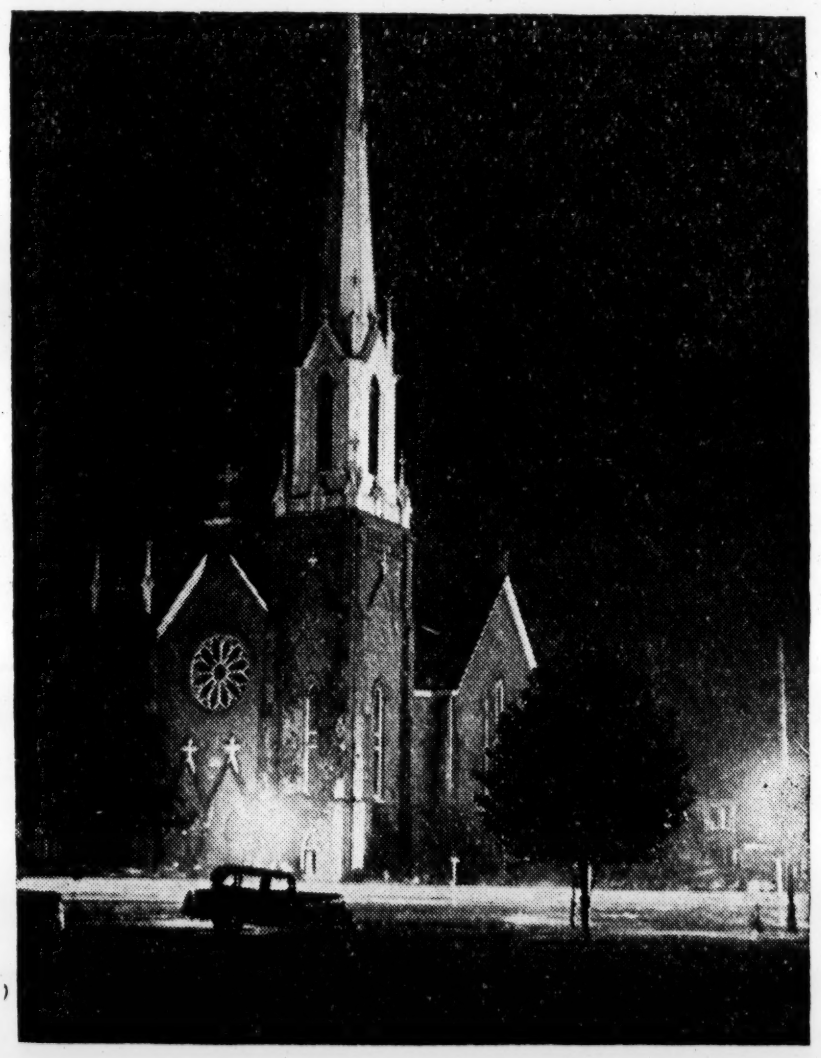

SALEM, OREGON

The educational problems attendant to the end of the war came to the college campus with such suddenness and force that the year 1945-46 will long be remembered as the year when peace broke out on the campus! The demobilization of military personnel and the educational provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights produced a sudden influx of students to the colleges throughout the country. Quiet classrooms which were half deserted, suddenly were full to overflowing. The demobilization of military personnel did not result in a release of trained faculty members as rapidly as prospective students, so the campus finds itself overcrowded and under-staffed.

Three years ago Willamette University anticipated just this condition and the Board of Trustees took action establishing a limit on the enrollment of the University. Willamette will do all that it reasonably can to educate its share of students who now seek an education, but it will not admit so many students that none can be cared for or educated effectively. The students who are admitted may expect to find the same high standards of scholarship as before the poses of orientation, a "Guide to Religious Activities" was prepared and distributed to all students. Students representing 22 different denominations were in attendance at Willamette this year, and this naturally required constant cooperation with the local churches. At the opening of each of the three semesters a religious census of the student body was made and a list was compiled which catalogued each student according to denominational membership or preference. Copies of this list were sent to all churches in town so that ministers and youth leaders might make use of this information in contacting students. Increasing cooperation on the part of the Salem Churches in interesting Willamette students in religious services and activities can be definitely reported.

Respectfully submitted,
John L. Knight,
Counsellor on Religious Life.

Willamette University---Religious Life Program

With the coming of peace and with the consequent return of young men to the campus, the religious life program at Willamette University has broadened its reach. There was a noticeable increase in the membership and activities of all religious organizations on the campus this year.

Time-worn step to Waller Hall, historic chapel building on the Willamette campus.

The active campus-related religious groups at Willamette this year were: Y.W.C.A., Y.M.C.A., I.V.C.F., Catholic Club, Christian Fellowship, Westminster Fellowship, and Wesley Fellowship. The Inter-faith Council, the central religious cabinet on the campus, met monthly to discuss and coordinate religious life on the campus. It also sponsored a special Inter-Faith Chapel as well as the traditional special programs for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Good Friday.

The Wesley Fellowship, having been reorganized at the beginning of the fall semester has made an excellent showing this year. Attendance has increased considerably as compared with the previous years, and interest is high. Dr. Joseph Adams helps considerably by his friendly advice and cooperation. The officers of the Wesley Fellowship this year were: President—Evelyn Chapman, of Portland; Vice President—Lovicy Jones, Silverton; Secretary—Dorothy Libby, Albany; Treasurer—Wally Baumer, Portland; Morning Chairman—Earl Fedje, Salem; Evening Chairman—Jane Hansen, Portland; World Fellowship Chairman—Carol Dimond, Portland; Service Chairman—Betty Mae Jackman, McMinnville; Recreation Chairman—Caroline Cooper, Portland; Publicity Chairman—Frieda Hendrikson Carsher, Roseburg; Publications Chairman—Lois Messing Todd, Portland.

The Methodist Student Fellowship Fund Drive on the campus netted $114.50 which was more than double last year's total of $50.00. The World Student Service Fund Drive raised $535.38, in comparison to last year's total of 135.09. These figures alone indicate the student consciousness of world need.

Willamette was host to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement for their annual state-wide conference, February 15-17. Meetings were held at First Church and on the campus. Miss Evelyn Chapman, a Willamette junior, served as President of the Conference. Professor Knight serves as state advisor to the Oregon Methodist Student Movement.

Regular worship chapel services were held each Wednesday during the school year. Among our guest speakers this year were: Rev. Lawrence E. Nye, Rev. Roy A. Fedje, Rabbi Feinsilver, Dr. Ray S. Dunn, Dr. Seth Huntington, Dr. Owen J. Beadles, Rev. Dudley Strain, Rev. W. H. Norman, Rev. J. G. Riley, Dr. Lansing Kempton, Rev. William Genne, Rev. Ralph G. Kleen, Dr. John A. Ledlie, Dr. Francis Brush, Rev. Walter MacArthur, Dr. Lawrence Todnen and Rev. Daniel Stevens.

In addition to the phases of the religious life program mentioned above, it should be mentioned that three hours each day are set aside by the Counsellor on Religious life for student consultation. Students have increasingly used these hours for counselling on personal, religious, and academic matters. For pur-

"adopt" a European family whose average meal is that sampled at the dinner, and send the adopted family at least one food box a month for six months, 232 eleven pound boxes have been sent to sixty European families since December; seventeen boxes were packed each month by students. $943.32 from proceeds of the "Starvation Dinner" and from contributors has financed the group packing of the boxes, and individual families have paid for those sent from their homes.

$63.00 was contributed by students to the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund.

New leadership will be provided for the student group this year. The following student leaders have been elected for 1946-47 school year: Ruth Wahlgren, president; Ken Neal, vice-president; Eleanor Culver, secretary; Wilma Langfelt, treasurer.

As I finish a second and very pleasant year of contacts with students through the Wesley Foundation, I would like to express my appreciation for this experience, and to express my thanks to those in the Eugene Methodist Church and in the Oregon Conference who have encouraged me by their interest and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Beth Hurlocker,
Director of Student Activities.

New Wesley House, Eugene.

In late August, 1945, the Wesley Foundation under the leadership of the minister and student director, moved into a campus home. The site, 1347 Onyx Street, is adjacent to the site of the proposed Student Union Building and within two blocks of the dormitories. The roomy, homey house is well adapted to its new use—the Methodist Student Center. Members of the Eugene Methodist Church responded generously to subscribe a large share of the purchase price, $14,500. To date $8,500 has been paid on the debt.

This new house gives the Methodist Church added opportunity to serve the students at this state university, and new facilities for a student program of worship, religious education, social activities, and work projects.

Regular Sunday morning classes and evening meetings have been held with occasional meetings during the week when special speakers of interest were available.

Six girls and the director of student activities have lived in the house this year, making practical application of the slogan, "A Home Away from Home."

Wesley House was the center of activity and organization for an extensive food relief project which received cooperation from town as well as campus, and from families in Junction City, Cottage Grove and Drain. Students initiated the project by a "Starvation Dinner" at which guests were served a baked potato, a boiled carrot and a slice of rye bread; families at the dinner were urged to Upper Room Fellowship group on Wednesday evenings has averaged 25 in attendance.

Four national secretaries have visited the Foundation this year, for whom we arranged three firesides in houses, three discussion groups, two Sunday forums and personal conferences.

One student made a decision for mission work in China this year.

Forum speakers have included: Dean Buena Maris, Dean U. G. Dubach, Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Chambers, Dr. E. W. Warrington, Reverend Daniel Stevens, Dr. Clifford E. Maser, Prof. Frank Bennett, Miss Marion Conrow of the Board of Missions in New York, Mrs. DeWitt Baldwin of the Lisle Fellowship in New York, Reverend Ennis Whaley, Dr. W. M. Atwood, Dr. Jesse W. Cockerline, Prof. Charles Mockmore, Mrs. Ruth Burns, Mrs. Tracy Johnson, Dr. Glenn Bakkum and Dr. H. H. Foust, and graduate and undergraduate students.

Officers for the coming year include: Rev. Daniel Stevens, Director; Miss Sybil Tucker, Director Student Activities; Dr. S. M. Zeller, Chairman Advisory Committee; Maxine Yoder, Corvallis, President; Ida Willard, Ashland, Vice President; Inez Towle, Cove, Secretary; Franklin Fanger, Medford, Treasurer.

We believe that there will be 6,000 students on the campus next year, and that one of the greatest opportunities ever facing the church lies just ahead.

With no predecessor's tracks to follow, I have gone out the past five months lying on the guidance of the Eternal Christ and the inspired wisdom of those th whom I have worked. Thus far, our primary emphasis has been visitation angelism. In this we have had some inspired success and, needless to say, ve made some blunders and mistakes. I have assisted eight churches with eir visitation. In most of these three or four evenings of preaching has preeded about an equal number of evenings of visitation. Aside from the visitaon, I have been in eighteen other churches, speaking to Youth groups, Young dults, Woman's Society of Christian Service meetings, Men's meetings, Unirsity groups at Willamette and Eugene, and the Portland Methodist Ministers' eeting.

It was the judgment of the Inter-Board that my summer schedule should ake me available for our Camps and Institutes across the State. At the prent time I am scheduled for these Camps from July 7 to August 31. My Fall d Winter schedule is open for your calls, but I shall feel that all requests will nally have to be cleared with your District Superintendent on the basis of the aces of greatest need on his District.

Without decreasing our emphasis on Evangelism, we hope this coming year help spearhead the Stewardship phase of our Crusade for Christ, and also to e able to give some help on visual aids and other aspects of the Church School.

To me one of the most urgent needs of our Conference is a larger sense of tal Christian concern for all our churches. Let us remember to pray daily for ne another in this great task of the Kingdom of our Christ in the year that is efore us.

Respectfully,
Ralph G. Kleen.

TEMPERANCE

We commend the action of the Council of Bishops at Atlantic City, N. J., on ebruary 22 and pledge ourselves to co-operate with them in carrying out any urther recommendations and suggestions that they may make.

We commend our own Board of Temperance for their splendid Temperance ducational program. We also endorse and commend the Anti-Saloon League he W.C.T.U. in their program opposing the liquor traffic, and especially the ewspaper advertising and extensive research carried on by them.

We urge the creation of a temperance committee in every local church. mong other functions to act as a public relations agency between dry organiations and the local press.

We endorse the statement HJR325 introduced by Congressman Voorhis of alifornia as reported by the Associated Press on May 15, 1946, which provides or the elimination of the use of grains and other vital food products in the anufacture of beverage alcohol during the food emergency. We ask that each astor suggest to his congregation that each member communicate with the enators and representatives from Oregon to support this bill.

We recommend that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to send a elegram to each Congressman from Oregon urging them to support the Voorhis ill. We further recommend that a copy of the telegram be sent to the Presilent of the United States and the author of the bill.

Under the Oregon State Liquor Control system conditions have developed more nsidious and far reaching than those existing under the old saloon system. here are seventeen monopoly states—that is, states that are in the liquor usiness—and the consumption of liquor in Oregon is 60 percent greater than he average per capita for the 17 states. According to a statement by B. N. icks, Superintendent of the Anti-Liquor League of Oregon, under our state ystem there were issued in 1944, 150,000 illegal permits to purchase liquor. The er capita consumption of liquor and the number of drinkers, crime, alcoholism, uvenile delinquency, drinking among women, and insanity have greatly increased under and by reason of the State Liquor control system. The only safeguard against the above conditions is the total abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors and the elimination of the manufacture and/or sale of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes. Therefore, we urge the repeal of the Oregon State Liquor control law and favor the enactment of a law making it unlawful to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes in the State of Oregon.

We urge our Temperance board to challenge the Church with a nation-wide rogram involving specific goals and definite action on the part of the entire hurch, and that as an integral part of this nationwide program there be lanned a comprehensive program of Christian action in which every Methodist hurch shall have a part.

The Committee.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The events and conditions of our time make us keenly aware of the imperative need for evangelism. Broken homes, drunkenness, adult and juvenile delinquency, great social unrest, and personal bewilderment are all symptoms of the profound spiritual sickness of our race, which Christ alone can heal. No other interest of our great church can supercede the claims of the Master upon us to evangelize our generation.

But there are indications of a spiritual awakening, both within and without the church. Many strong minds outside the church are definitely looking to the church for the answer to the world's need. They express the necessity for a spiritual counterpart to the threatened misuse of atomic power. Within the church we have witnessed during the past year a significant arousement to evangelistic action. The results of the Crusade for Christ in evangelism are not all expressed in statistical tables. But even these are very, very encouraging. "The people called Methodists" are still capable of evangelistic passion. A new life is stirring within the church, which is manifest in Oregon as well as elsewhere. While we have not yet reached our goal, we have made most gratifying gains.

Officially the year of evangelism in the Crusade for Christ ends on September 1st, 1946. But to all of us that date should only mean the beginning of another year of evangelism, greater and more fruitful than the past. In view of the influx of people and the great spiritual need, Oregon Methodism should double its membership in the next five years.

Therefore we recommend:

(1) that the goal of 20 percent increase, one half of which shall be by profession of faith, should be adopted for the next Conference Year.

(2) the evangelistic procedure outlined in the report of this Board of the Conference session of 1945, and which is printed in the Journal of last year.

(3) in particular the organization of a strong Committee on Evangelism in each local church, as specified in the Discipline (p. 148, Sec. 1).

(4) the use of the Unit System, organized on geographic lines in the local parish.

Reports indicate clearly that wherever these methods were followed through, gratifying results were achieved.

(5) the last two weeks of September, leading up to World Communion Sunday, be devoted to a Conference-wide home visitation evangelism crusade, promoted by the Board of Evangelism in co-operation with the Cabinet. And that there be another such simultaneous visitation crusade in the spring, preceding Easter.

(6) that, with the aid and according to the plans of the General Board of Evangelism, our Conference Board of Evangelism sponsor a school of evangelism designed to give guidance and training especially to our pastors in the rural areas of our Conference.

Furthermore, the very successes of the past year lay upon us the solemn responsibility for assimilating the new members and of deepening the spiritual life of the entire church. It is imperative that we guard against superficiality, both in our evangelistic methods, and in all other activities of our churches. There should be an evangelistic note in all that we do. There must be evangelism in our stewardship cultivation, in our education procedures, in our missionary promotion. In all our endeavors we must be aiming to win men to Christ.

Ralph G. Kleen, Secretary.

THE NEW LIFE MOVEMENT

About fourteen months ago four of our Conference Boards held a joint executive meeting. The Boards represented were the Board of Education, Board of Evangelism, Board of Lay Activities and the Board of Missions and Church Extension. Each shared a common concern of making more effective in our Conference the responsibility that was entrusted to them. Recognizing that it was sheer folly to think in terms of each Board attempting to secure the full time service of someone to carry on their work, they were impelled with the idea of working together. They were particularly anxious to undergird the ministry of our smaller churches.

As of February 1 of this year, I was appointed as Director of The New Life Movement of our Conference, working under this Inter-Board Council in cooperation with our District Superintendents.

With no predecessor's tracks to follow, I have gone out the past five months relying on the guidance of the Eternal Christ and the inspired wisdom of those with whom I have worked. Thus far, our primary emphasis has been visitation evangelism. In this we have had some inspired success and, needless to say, have made some blunders and mistakes. I have assisted eight churches with their visitation. In most of these three or four evenings of preaching has preceeded about an equal number of evenings of visitation. Aside from the visitation, I have been in eighteen other churches, speaking to Youth groups, Young Adults, Woman's Society of Christian Service meetings, Men's meetings, University groups at Willamette and Eugene, and the Portland Methodist Ministers' meeting.

It was the judgment of the Inter-Board that my summer schedule should make me available for our Camps and Institutes across the State. At the present time I am scheduled for these Camps from July 7 to August 31. My Fall and Winter schedule is open for your calls, but I shall feel that all requests will finally have to be cleared with your District Superintendent on the basis of the places of greatest need on his District.

Without decreasing our emphasis on Evangelism, we hope this coming year to help spearhead the Stewardship phase of our Crusade for Christ, and also to be able to give some help on visual aids and other aspects of the Church School.

To me one of the most urgent needs of our Conference is a larger sense of vital Christian concern for all our churches. Let us remember to pray daily for one another in this great task of the Kingdom of our Christ in the year that is before us.

Respectfully,
Ralph G. Kleen.

TEMPERANCE

We commend the action of the Council of Bishops at Atlantic City, N. J., on February 22 and pledge ourselves to co-operate with them in carrying out any further recommendations and suggestions that they may make.

We commend our own Board of Temperance for their splendid Temperance educational program. We also endorse and commend the Anti-Saloon League the W.C.T.U. in their program opposing the liquor traffic, and especially the newspaper advertising and extensive research carried on by them.

We urge the creation of a temperance committee in every local church. Among other functions to act as a public relations agency between dry organizations and the local press.

We endorse the statement HJR325 introduced by Congressman Voorhis of California as reported by the Associated Press on May 15, 1946, which provides for the elimination of the use of grains and other vital food products in the manufacture of beverage alcohol during the food emergency. We ask that each pastor suggest to his congregation that each member communicate with the senators and representatives from Oregon to support this bill.

We recommend that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to send a telegram to each Congressman from Oregon urging them to support the Voorhis bill. We further recommend that a copy of the telegram be sent to the President of the United States and the author of the bill.

Under the Oregon State Liquor Control system conditions have developed more insidious and far reaching than those existing under the old saloon system. There are seventeen monopoly states—that is, states that are in the liquor business—and the consumption of liquor in Oregon is 60 percent greater than the average per capita for the 17 states. According to a statement by B. N. Hicks, Superintendent of the Anti-Liquor League of Oregon, under our state system there were issued in 1944, 150,000 illegal permits to purchase liquor. The per capita consumption of liquor and the number of drinkers, crime, alcoholism, juvenile delinquency, drinking among women, and insanity have greatly increased under and by reason of the State Liquor control system. The only safeguard against the above conditions is the total abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors and the elimination of the manufacture and/or sale of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes. Therefore, we urge the repeal of the Oregon State Liquor control law and favor the enactment of a law making it unlawful to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes in the State of Oregon.

We urge our Temperance board to challenge the Church with a nation-wide program involving specific goals and definite action on the part of the entire church, and that as an integral part of this nationwide program there be planned a comprehensive program of Christian action in which every Methodist church shall have a part.

The Committee.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The events and conditions of our time make us keenly aware of the imperative need for evangelism. Broken homes, drunkenness, adult and juvenile delinquency, great social unrest, and personal bewilderment are all symptoms of the profound spiritual sickness of our race, which Christ alone can heal. No other interest of our great church can supercede the claims of the Master upon us to evangelize our generation.

But there are indications of a spiritual awakening, both within and without the church. Many strong minds outside the church are definitely looking to the church for the answer to the world's need. They express the necessity for a spiritual counterpart to the threatened misuse of atomic power. Within the church we have witnessed during the past year a significant arousement to evangelistic action. The results of the Crusade for Christ in evangelism are not all expressed in statistical tables. But even these are very, very encouraging. "The people called Methodists" are still capable of evangelistic passion. A new life is stirring within the church, which is manifest in Oregon as well as elsewhere. While we have not yet reached our goal, we have made most gratifying gains.

Officially the year of evangelism in the Crusade for Christ ends on September 1st, 1946. 4. The Oregon chapter has gone on record calling for the extension of the O.P.A. for one year without crippling ammendments. It has requested President Truman to veto any bill which would destroy price control.

5. The chapter has gone on record urging Bernard Baruch, representing the United States at the United Nations meeting, Secretary of State Byrnes and President Truman to favor placing atomic bombs under international control and asking that our nation stop at once the making and storing of atomic bombs. We urge the peace committees of each church in the Conference to give careful study to this matter and to take similar action where possible.

6. The chapter has urged our Congressmen to back up the McMahon Bill to put atomic energy under civilian control as proposed and passed unanimously by the Senate recently.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

During this year, the greatest holocaust in world's history, World War II came to a close. We have heard much in reference to the atomic bomb, which has put fear in our hearts. But the "theme" for our Society has been "Peace Through His Cross," which has made our women God-minded, and to be God-minded, one must be love-minded to all nations and all peoples.

There never has been a greater realization of the need for cooperation along every line than now. We have participated fully in the program "Crusade for Christ." The secretaries of Spiritual Life are the responsible officers in this co-operative work. We held "Day Apart" service at our conference meeting in October. Then, our Districts, sub-Districts, having their "Time Apart," climaxing with the "Hours Apart," in our local societies, during "Holy Week," left us all with hearts full of praise and thanksgiving. Many societies held cottage prayer meetings and intercessory prayer groups during the Lenten period. We are again reminded, Prayer is our greatest weapon. We still have the promise of Christ: "If even two of you here on earth agree about what they shall pray for, it will be given them of my Father in Heaven."

We have noted a marked increase in Mission Study classes. Our second annual conference Summer School, held in Forest Grove, in August, was largely responsible for stimulating this interest and the forming of new study classes. Plans are under way for our third annual Summer School to be held in Forest Grove, August 18-23. Miss Ellen Suffern, a missionary recently returned from China itinerated the Conference in the late fall, visiting many of the smaller societies, and we also appreciate Miss Laura Heist and other resident missionaries, who have added much to the interest and information of our work.

We are in great need of many trained and consecrated workers to build a world of "Peace and Brotherhood." John Wesley said: "The world is my parish." The Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities department has been working towards that goal. Their influence has been felt through service to "Uprooted Americans" and inter-racial activities; have taken part in an inter-national, inter-denominational project by sending linens for hospital use in the devastated countries; have sent protests to the Movie Industry of the glamorizing of drinking and the casual drinking scenes so often portrayed in the movie scenes of today.

Last year I reported a good brother challenged us dollar for dollar up to $5000.00 for the furnishings of Barview Camp site. It is with a thankful heart I report V. B. Day for the W.S.C.S. We have met the challenge, so the treasury of Barview is increased by $10,000.00. May God's richest blessing be upon every society and our good brother, Mr. F. A. Magruder, for making this victory possible.

More societies are becoming aware of the importance and the need of keeping in contact with the college student, and we wish to express our appreciation to the secretaries of the Wesley Foundations in our colleges and universities for their co-operation with the conference secretary of Student Work.

There is also a growing interest in our youth work, this year being the first time our Methodist Youth Fund exceeded its quota; but there is still a great need in the education and promotion of world-wide missionary vision in the terms of the youth. Our children are showing encouraging results thro' the teaching of world friendliness, by showing a willingness to help "Others" thro' Supply Channels. Many societies this year have, for the first time, elected a secretary of Children's Work.

The Wesleyan Service Guild, which serves the gainfully employed women, with excellent leadership, have held two district meetings.

WORLD PEACE

We give thanks to Almighty God that the past year has seen the dawn of a new day, a day of victory if not of peace. The victory has been won by a fearful new weapon, the atomic bomb. The danger to the human race, civilization, and Christianity from a world war with atomic energy should be understood, but we fear that humanity and Christianity have not realized the mortal danger nor the way to world peace.

We believe that a mere treaty or agreement cannot avert the catastrophe, but that only an effective world organization is sufficient for the maintenance of world peace. We commend our statesmen for the beginnings of the organization of United Nations. We lift our hearts in prayer to God that all nations of the earth shall remain true to the ideals of international cooperation. We feel that America should give its share of men to the necessary work of international policing, hoping at the same time that our government will not continue conscription beyond the establishment of effective world organization.

We feel also that the atomic energy of war must be matched by the atomic realism of Jesus when He said "Love your enemies." If the idealism of Jesus is to become the realism of men, Christians must practice the Golden Rule. People who suffer and starve as a result of living in the path of modern armies cannot be expected to maintain such a spirit of good will without help. Rather it is up to us to win their good will by a recapitulation of the life of the Good Samaritan. To that end we commend the church Committee on Overseas Relief and Reconstruction, also those government agencies which put the hunger of little children in other lands above the manufacture of liquor or narrow national interest.

We commend the recent proposals by Bernard Baruch to the United Nations Committee for Control of Atomic Energy, and suggest that they are the beginnings for establishment of such an effective world organization. We recommend their study and support. We realize that self-sacrifice is the price of international good will and organization. We trust that our Church will be able to waken our people to a willingness for sacrifice for peace as the nation has sacrificed for victory. Above all, we believe that only by establishment of a just world order can we hope to maintain world peace.

METHODIST FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL SERVICE (UNOFFICIAL)

During this year the Methodist Federation for Social Service has taken on new life throughout Methodism under the able direction of Rev. Jack McMichael. The membership has more than doubled during the year. This has been a spur to the Oregon chapter which has a membership of 53 at the present time and has set for itself a goal of 100 for the new year. This will make it a standard chapter with certain voting and financial privileges. A monthly study group has been held by the Portland members to discuss various phases of Christian social action.

Early this spring the Oregon chapter undertook the promotion of a Fair Employment Practices Bill which is to be presented to the 1947 Oregon legislature. This promotion has received much publicity in the newspapers.

Mark A. Chamberlin, President, and David Bauman, Secretary-Treasurer, were officers of the past year.

Officers for 1946-47 are Pres., Mark A. Chamberlin; District Vice-Chairman, Portland, Mrs. Grace Jenkins; Salem, Harry E. Rarey; Cascade, Everett H. Gardner; Secretary-Treasurer, David Bauman.

Actions taken at the 1946 meeting:

1. A Conference on "The Church and the Social Order" will be held early this fall in Portland.

2. The chapter will continue to support the bill for Fair Employment Practices in the State and has gone on record urging the Oregon Congressmen to sign the discharge petition for the Fair Employment Practices Bill now being held in the Rules Committee that it might be voted upon.

3. The chapter has gone on record as opposing the extension of the present draft law and has so informed your Congressmen and Senators by telegram.

1. The instituting and promoting of a concerted program of leadership training to the end that more young people will dedicate themselves to full-time Christian service in all of its related fields.

2. The incorporation of absentee and indifferent Church members into the parish life of the community.

3. The increasing of effectiveness of the Church School by a determined effort to recover absentees and wide-spread recruiting of new members.

4. The reconsecration and fortification by renewed study courses of all Church School teachers and leaders of youth in each Church.

5. The cultivation of Christian home-life by assisting households of the parishes in the practice of Christian living through publications and training programs.

6. The developing of a greater Church loyalty to the Church by emphasizing the wide areas of stewardship.

7. The reviving and building anew the spirit of prayer in the Church, home and individual life.

8. The seeking and employing of new and more effective ways of combating the terrible evils of the liquor traffic.

9. We call upon the Churches to fulfill their mission as the spiritual shepherds of our people, to expose our secularism, immorality and religious indifference, and social inequality and injustice.

W. A. MacArthur, Chairman.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Thirty years ago John Parsons, Walton Skipworth and William Wallace Youngson entered into a compact to "major" in making the Conference Historical Society influential in gathering historic documents, books, correspondence and antique articles of value to the students of our time and the historian of the future. As a result there has been lodged in our fire-proof room in the new library building at Willamette University a great abundance of literature concerning our Oregon country. Dr. Parsons produced his notables "Beside the beautiful Willamette"—a copy of which was placed by our Society in every library in Oregon. In response to continued importunities Dr. Walton Skipworth wrote many valuable articles having to do with events and places in Oregon Methodism which are now preserved in his own handwriting or in typed form. These two dear brethren—now gone—have left a "lonesome place against the sky" in my life and in our Conference. All of these literary productions are in this valuable room—including the last letter Dr. Skipworth wrote—which was to me.

Dr. Skipworth was a chosen vessel. His watchful eye is now closed in darkness and mute is his instructive tongue. His lips are drifting dust but the same Divine love rules him yonder which guided him here. It was my high privilege to hold high converse with him over a period of 52 years. David said to Solomon: "Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance; timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto."

Here comes the law of continuity and coherence. Bees have been building combs for centuries. Nothing remains. But golden bees from Homer and Tennyson and Ruskin now fill golden cells in our museums. Beavers have built for centuries in our Beaver State and nothing abides but we have cities and homes and churches and colleges because of the law of complementariness. What one man cannot do another may. John Parsons and Walton Skipworth say to you today: "And thou may'st add thereto" by taking the torch from our failing hands and honoring God and our Pioneers by "adding to" and caring for our historic inheritance.

At the 1945 session of the Oregon Legislature a Committee of seven was appointed, with power, to take full responsibility for naming the two historical figures to be alloted a statute in the Statuary Hall in our National Capitol and to decide upon methods raising the necessary funds. From the Historical Society of our Conference circulars were sent out over the state setting forth reasons why Jason Lee, Father of American Oregon, should be one of the two. The response was quick and effective and Jason Lee and Dr. John McLoughlin were the two chosen. The President of the Historical Society of the Conference has been elected by the State Commission a member of the Finance Committee.

We have sent supplies to four foreign countries and sixteen Home Institutions, amounting to over $3200.00, which is "Over and Above."

Our membership, 7882, a net increase of 328 members; 186 new subscribers to the "Methodist Woman," 158 new subscribers to the "World Outlook." Our Conference Bulletin is proving very beneficial to the local Society.

Two new societies were organized this year, one at Echo and the other, Hughes Memorial Church in Portland.

Total amount of money sent to the Division Treasurer, $25,964.00;

C.S.R. & L.C.A. report—$40,392.00.

Miss Blanche Graves, our Negro student of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. Carolina, graduated in May. To continue this project we presented a four-year scholarship to Miss Bennie V. Gragg of Portland, who will begin her college work at Bennett this fall.

Miss Evelyn deVries, our missionary who is serving in the Rhodesia Conference, Africa, now conducts services in the language of the people, besides teaching in the Nellie Dingley School, Mutambara, S. Rhodesia.

Six delegates from the Conference attended the Western Jurisdictional meeting in February at Los Angeles, and nine attended the Assembly at Columbus, Ohio, in May.

The Theme for 1946 "Peace Through his Cross" was truly God-inspired. The challenge for each society and for each individual member is to become an "Instrument of Peace."

Mrs. F. M. Phelps, Conference President.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Oregon Conference Board of Lay Activities presents the following recommendations:

Whereas, the year 1947 has been designated by the Crusade for Christ as Christian Stewardship year; and

Whereas, the General Board of Lay Activities, having been given the responsibility, has developed a comprehensive program for Stewardship Education Cultivation and Promotion to be used during this year, and

Whereas, our loyal and faithful devotion to the prosecution of this program can revitalize the Church and set forward to an unprecedented degree the Kingdom of our Lord.

Therefore, Be it resolved that we, the members of the Oregon Annual Conference, do, singly and collectively, whole heartedly and enthusiastically pledge ourselves to prepare our hearts and minds for this great opportunity; to do all in our power to promote the programs of Stewardship as outlined, and do solemnly dedicate ourselves to the task of presenting it to our congregations and members in order that they may be lead into a full understanding and acceptance of the Christian Stewardship of their own time, talents, possessions and life.

Edward L. Clark, Conference Lay Leader.
Ernest W. Peterson, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

We are not satisfied with the state of religion in the Churches! Simple Christian disciplines are not widely practiced. Many members of our Church possess little knowledge of the Christian faith. Christian home-life is woefully inadequate and insufficient to the living of these days. Church families are moving into other communities but are failing to affiliate themselves with the Church in their new home area. Too many of our people are taking their vows to Christ and the Church too lightly. Secular standards have invaded the Church and are imperiling its work.

Because of this dissatisfaction, we call upon the Churches of Oregon Methodism to develop with haste greater concerns for the following:

1. To make Christianity more vital in our lives, through deeper devotion to God and practical love to our fellowmen.

2. To see each man as a soul in need of Christ and His Kingdom and with zeal and determination win him for Christianity and the Church.

3. To teach each child more consciously the intimacy and Saviourhood of Christ, love for His Kingdom, reverence for His church, and respect for the Christian home.

4. To create in every church member a clear understanding of spiritual values in thought, word and deed.

5. To practice as well as preach the stewardship of life through our service. our possessions, and our love for Holy conditions.

6. To establish Peach and Good will in the hearts and thinking of our parishoners to the end that it might permeate all humanity.

7. To lift the church to a dignified, significant and divine relationship in the lives of our people, and create a profound importance in Church membership.

8. To have a closer and more harmonious endeavor between the lay and ministerial passion on behalf of our Lord in the advance of His Kingdom.

II.

Our mornings have given us a beautiful start for each day. The Bishop has brought us a deeper appreciation of our Lord in the different phases of His personality under the caption "Jesus as they saw Him." These characterizations have lifted and strengthened us as we move toward the fullness and stature of our Master.

We whole-heartedly express our gratitude to one of the finest Bishops in Methodism and an able and courteous executive in Church Administration.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Another year of advance in the giving of our people to the Benevolences gives just reason for rejoicing. The Conference Treasurer's report shows a total receipts of $74,846.81 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, which is approximately seven per cent above the giving of a year ago. This is on top of a nine per cent increase reported to the 1945 Annual Conference and 34.48 per cent increase reported to the 1944 Annual Conference. The Conference Benevolence Budget items have been paid in full, and there remains a surplus of $1314.40. All receipts for World Service have been forwarded to Dr. Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer of the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

We recommend that $500 of the surplus, now in the hands of the Annual Conference Treasurer, be allocated to the Conference Board of Education to be used toward the expenses of Miss Olivia Olson, who is volunteering nine months service to the Board on a subsistence basis to work in some of the smaller and very needy places of the Conference; that $1000 from the surplus be allocated to the Board of Trustees of the Wesley Foundation at Eugene to be used toward the purchase price of the new Wesley Foundation property in that city; and $720 from the surplus to the Portland district for religious work in the Vanport City housing project, recently selected as the location for the branch of the state university to provide special courses for returning war veterans.

The World Service apportionment for the next Conference year is $47,271. As a result of study of the askings from the various Annual Conference interests requesting funds for their work, your Commission recommends an Annual Conference Benevolence Budget of $29,440. These two items make a total of $76,711.

We present the following proposals:

1. That the apportionments to the Charges be made by the District Superintendents in harmony with paragraphs 782 and 783 of the Discipline.

2. All money raised for the World Service and for Annual Conference Be-

Plans are not yet crystallized but we confidently hope that the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance will make possible the presentation of this state and national privilege and responsibility in the churches of the Conference for a Free-Will offering in the event the Committee should request voluntary contributions—the decision to be made at the right time by the Bishop and Cabinet. Beyond Jason Lee there were no schools, no churches, no Christianity and no civilization in the Oregon country. Heroic Jason Lee!—Pioneer, Trail Blazer, Colonizer and Missionary—He waged a hard conflict to achieve for America this last frontier of the great Northwest. This matter has been agitated since President Abraham Lincoln, in July, 1864, wrote Governor Gibbs, notifying him that Oregon was entitled to space for two statues in the National Hall of Fame. Let this be the conclusion of this long delayed responsibility! Jason Lee came not seeking gold but carrying a Bible in his "Covered Wagon." To him a church and school and college were as necessary as a dwelling house or a barn. Good friends of Methodism and our Pioneers—give us Jason Lee!

William Wallace Youngson.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Regret surrounds us as we come to the close of this ninety-fourth Conference session because it has been one of real pleasure and Christian fellowship. We have been given adequate time to mingle among the brethren and properly enjoy the business of the Conference.

Seaside church folk have been good hosts. Foresight and planning provided smooth manipulation of detail work. Pastor, Meredith Groves, graciously extended us superb hospitality and made all of us feel at home while here. We give thanks for the many courtesies extended to us the representatives of this Conference by all individuals and groups who cooperated in the entertainment. Especially do we commend the Seaside Chamber of Commerce, Seaside Kiwanis and Lion Clubs, Seaside Baptist Church, and Astoria and Warrenton, Hammond Methodist Churches and their pastors, Rev. E. W. Ralston, Dean C. Poindexter, Joyce S. Kendall and also the Central School authorities.

We have been lifted in spiritual inspiration by the music of the Conference and were delighted to have the privilege of hearing the Boston Seminary singers, the Choir of the Seaside Church and the aid of the fine musicians who have helped create the spirit for worship.

The challenging and practical messages of Dr. Theodore H. Palmquist have been a highlight for our Conference for which we are very grateful. The heartfelt and winsome call of Dr. C. K. Vliet of the Board of Missions and Church extension, the soul shaking words of Jack McMichael and Laurence Nye and the many other speakers who shared with us Christian vision, faith and courage we are greatly indebted.

The visits of T. Otto Nall of the Christian Advocate, Dr. J. Emerson Ford of the General Board of Education, Dr. Leslie B. Logan of the Anti-Liquor League, Dr. Paul Ashby who is Executive Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants of the Pacific Northwest Conference, and Dr. Stanley Logan representing the General Board of Hospitals and Homes, have all greatly enriched our Conference sessions.

Appreciation is due the proficient and silent efforts of the Statistician, Secretarial Staff, our District Superintendents and the program committee and many others who gave their time and energy to make this a worthy Conference.

As we conclude our final business session we are mindful of the blessings, privileges, challenges, demands that are ours as followers of Jesus Christ and praise him for them all.

This rich and significant week has brought us a deeper sense of our task in Kingdom Building and causes each of us to resolve that during the coming year we will be better ministers and laymen for Jesus Christ, and that walking in His strength alone we shall declare the divine truths and message of salvation to a broken and dying world.

We leave this lovely Conference and the inspiration of this beautiful building at the Mountain top of Christian Fellowship to go down and live, teach, and labor among the needy and Christless souls of our parishes, and to declare a vital and positive gospel for each and every one. We march on in the Crusade confident Christ is by our side.

In consideration of the spiritual intent of the Conference, we the laymen and ministers, hereby resolve:

University may be presented in the churches and a special offering taken for the school. This shall be in addition to the grant in the budget. This money shall be remitted through the Conference Treasurer.

12. Your Commission reports that persons holding Conference funds are bonded in the following manner: Conference Treasurer, $10,000; Conference Claimants Board Treasurer, $5000; Conference Claimants Permanent Fund Treasurer, $5000; Conference Trustee Treasurer, $5000. We are advised that the Conference Treasurer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is included in a blanket bond taken out by their national headquarters.

13. The apportionments to the Conference for the Administration Fund shall be apportioned to the Charges of the Conference by the District Superintendents on the same percentage ratios as those for the benevolence funds. The annual apportionment to the Oregon Conference for the General Administration Fund is $1,555.

14. The Jurisdictional Conference expense apportionment is one-fourth of one per cent of the pastor's cash salary as published in the 1944 minutes of this Conference, provided that any deficit of any year must be paid during the quadrennium.

15. The apportionment for the Episcopal Fund is an amount equal to one and three-fourths per cent of the cash salaries of the pastors for the current year.

16. The Commission is arranging to have the Treasurer's books audited in keeping with provisions of the Discipline.

17. All benevolence monies, both the World Service and the Conference Benevolences, shall be remitted monthly by the charge treasurers to the Conference Treasurer, who shall distribute them monthly to the various causes agencies and institutions according to the schedule herein set forth.

18. To pay the Conference Claimants annuity rate of $15.00 requires approximately $41,000. The present plan of apportionment, together with the receipts from the Methodist Publishing House, the Board of Pensions and the Chartered Fund, plus the accrued interest on Conference deposits and other funds, will provide income approximating $47,000 which is sufficient to meet this annuity rate.

19. The General Conference adopted the following paragraph relative to the various treasurers within an annual conference:

"Par. 160: For the sake of economy and efficiency the Annual Conference may constitute the Conference Treasurer as a depository for any or all Conference Boards and Agencies participating in the Conference Benevolences, eliminating as far as possible the necessity of a treasurer for each. In this event the Conference Treasurer shall keep a separate account for each such Board or Agency, enter the proper credits at the end of each month's business and disburse the same on proper order from each Board or Agency respectively. None of the above designated accounts shall be drawn upon for the benefit of another."

The Commission recommends that insofar as practicable, this plan be followed in the Oregon Conference.

20. The Commission recommends that each church contribute one communion offering each year to the Conference Claimants Necessitious Fund, to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

21. The Commission authorizes the lifting of an offering or the solicitation of pledges for the support of Methodist men from Oregon in Civilian Public Service Camps in churches that are willing to participate in this activity. We call attention to the fact that the Commission on World Peace issues vouchers of "Special gifts to World Service" on the receipt of such funds.

22. The Commission approves the presentation to the Annual Conference of the contemplated program for the Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan campaign for $210,000, which is scheduled for the Conference year 1946-47.

23. The Commission advises the Conference that it has adopted the policy not to budget more for the new year than the receipts of the current year, in harmony with the action of the General Conference directing the activities of the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

24. The Commissio recommends that the Conference grant the request of the Oregon Conference Historical Society for permission to solicit contributions or to receive free-will offerings for the purpose of aiding in defraying the cost of a statue of Jason Lee to be placed in the statuary hall in our National Capitol.

MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

A. Report of Conference Missionary Secretary:

The Oregon Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension believes its task to be one carrying an outstanding responsibility which the Church can not afford to neglect in this hour of need. We all rejoice in the 34 per cent gain in the World Service giving during the last two years. It should have been better.

The Clarion call comes from all over the world. China and India are having a rebirth, politically and religiously. New doors of opportunity are opening in Latin America. In fact, the whole world is calling unto us, seeking succor in their hour of distress. The answer the church gives to their plea will determine their attitude toward a faith in the Christ we claim to be the Saviour of the world.

We are happy to report that our Board has received over $15,647.00 from the Carrier Estate. One half of this amount is to be used by our Oregon Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension in promoting missionary work throughout the Conference. The other half which was designated for the Oregon Annual Conference Board of Foreign Missions can not be dispersed through our organization. Our Board has agreed with the Board of Missions in New York that we will send this money to them and they in turn will use it on a project in Africa chosen by this Board. The project is the development of a 1200 acre farm in the Limpopo District in the Southeast Africa Conference. On this farm there is to be a co-educational school, a church, two missionary residences, etc. It will be a training center where education, agriculture and evangelism will be presented. The Oregon Conference will receive World Service credit for all moneys given in this manner. The project will be promoted under the direction of Ira Gillett, our own Oregon missionary.

The Board is making the following recommendations for the ensuing Conference year—

1. Each minister is to keep before his people the needs of the world, offering unto the church missionary opportunities.

2. Because of the enlarged opportunity for christian service, the Church shall again seek a 20 per cent increase over last year's World Service giving.

3. We do request that Bishop Bruce Baxter again seek to provide an outstanding missionary to travel throughout the Conference for a period of three weeks, speaking primarily to the young people in the interest of missions.

4. District and sub-district missionary institutes shall be held under the direction of the District Missionary Secretaries, or, that special missionary emphesis be given at other District gatherings, as well as at all the summer Institutes.

5. We recommend the observance of the fourth Sunday of the month in all of the Church Schools AS WORLD SERVICE SUNDAY disseminating missionary information, AND RECEIVING A SPECIAL OFFERING.

6. That a Board of Missions be organized in every church, efficiently executing its responsibilities according to paragraph 1040 in the Discipline.

7. The new missionary study book entitled "Christian World Mission" WHICH IS A CHALLENGING BOOK shall be wall publisized in every church.

8. All of the Churches shall stress the importance of the youth cooperating in the Public Speaking Contest which has been outlined in the Christian Advocate. Local Churches should provide prizes where there are three or more contestants.

9. From all of our pulpits the ministers shall preach and pray for a verdict which shall convict, convert and enlist multiplied thousands for the cause of Christ in establishing a Kingdom of peace on earth.

Respectfully submitted,
Ed. A. Wolfe, Conference Missionary Secretary.

And whereas this commission met with Dr. Stafford, for consideration of the program as authorized. Dr. Stafford discussed the scope of Reserve Pensions as authorized by the General Conference of 1944. On motion carried unanimously the Cabinet was authorized to appoint an Executive Committee to work out further plans connected with this campaign.

And whereas this Executive Committee duly appointed, met and authorized the extension of the campaign to include, Accepted Supply Pastors, with the additional asking necessary to meet such an obligation, which asking in the opinion of Dr. Stafford should be about $35,000.00.

Therefore be it resolved that this Conference endorse the action of this Commission in its asking and authorize the campaign for $210,554.00, payments extending through two conference years, covering three income tax years, for payment of pledges. The asking from each charge to be approximately the equivalent of one year of the pastor's cash salary, for the year 1945-1946.

Be it further resolved that the Bishop's Cabinet direct the Campaign in a manner similar to the Crusade for Christ, and create a Conference Committee to execute this Reserve Pension Campaign for $210,554.00 for all items.

C. BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Total Claimants, 108. There are 51 men, 51 women and 6 children claimants on the Oregon Conference. The 51 men have a total of 1,777 years to their credit, the 51 women have claims totaling 1,2000 years, and the children have a total claim of 59 years. This, for the women is at the rate of 75 yer cent of the years served by their deceased husbands, and for the children, ¼ of the years of service given by their fathers. The total claims against the Conference Claimants Fund are equivalent to 3,036 years plus 355 years claims outside the Conference, making a grand total of 3,391 years. To apply on these claims we have funds as follows:

From the Permanent Fund	$ 3,779.47
From the Missouri Corporation	484.00
From the Publishing House	2,982.29
Due from the Clearing House	8,978.00
From the Chartered Fund	80.00

From the Charges	33,073.83
From the Board of Pensions	1,000.00
Communion Offerings and Love Feast (Estimated	251.15

After deducting $1,000.00 Regular Relief and $1,500.00 for Emergency Relief, including $80.00 from the Chartered Fund and $1,000.00 set aside for Accepted Supply Pastor's claims, these funds are sufficient to pay all claims on the basis of $15,00 for each year of service.

We recommend that the apportionment of the pastoral charges for the year 1946-47 be as follows:

An amount equal to 9 percent of the pastor's cash salary up to and including $800.00.

An amount equal to 11 percent of pastor's cash salaries on $ 801-$1000.
An amount equal to 13 percent of pastor's cash salaries on $1001-$1400.

An amount equal to 16 percent of pastor's cash salaries on $2001-$3500.
An amount equal to 17 percent of pastor's cash salaries on $3501 and above.

Office contacts, correspondence, mailings continue to grow. Miss Ina Monroe, the office secretary, is most willing and eager to serve you. She feels a personal interest in your church and your needs, for Your Church is Our Church in the Board of Education Office. Miss Elaine Sorensen, Bishop Baxter's secretary, though not an employee of the Board does many helpful things to aid us in our work.

Plans are well on the way for the coming year and the Crusade. May 16 the Area Crusade Council spent the day, under the direction of Dr. Walter Towner, Nashville, facing our task. Bishop Baxter is ready to lead the way, the District Superintendents are setting their fall programs to fit our Church School emphasis, and all of you, ministers and laymen, will eagerly carry your share of the responsibility.

Respectfully submitted,
Pearl E. Sherlock.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

The Conference Statistician's report shows a total of 4303 Methodist students enrolled in Vacation Church Schools last year which was an increase of 561. It is anticipated that many more schools will be held this summer as more local leaders are realizing the value of such an experience to boys and girls.

The fifth annual Laboratory School which was held June 23 to 28 at Forest Grove had an enrollment of 71 including the staff which was the largest of any to date. Miss Olive Smith from the department of Christian Education of Children at Nashville was on the teaching staff and also served as a resource person and an invaluable advisor in many areas of children's work. Plans are quite complete for the sixth annual school which will be held at Salem beginning June 22nd.

As usual, literature of value to children's workers was mailed out from time to time. Mrs. Floyd Albin has been serving as assistant in charge of the Fellowship of Study. Many children's workers are enrolled and are reporting on books read in the field of Christian Education with children.

Respectfully submitted,
Esther Shellhart,
Conference Director of Children's Work.

YOUTH DIVISION

To every man there openeth
A way, and ways, and a way,
And the high soul climbs the high way,
And the low soul gropes the low;
And in between, on the misty flats,
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth
A high way and a low,
And every man decideth
The way his soul shall go.

—John Oxenham.

This great poem of John Oxenham's is what I like to think of the Oregon Methodist Youth as doing, climbing the "high way" and not the "low". During this Conference year much has been done with the help of our Conference Executive Secretary, Miss Pearl E. Sherlock. Also, helping to make this a great year were the District Presidents, Maureen Lyons, Cascade East, Jerry Igo, Cascade South, Ernest McCormick, Portland, Betty May Jockman, Salem; the Conference Director of Youth Work; and the sub-district directors.

Four District Conferences have been held this year in the following places: McMinnville, Medford, Pendleton, and Seaside. A Student Conference was held at Eugene. Approximately 800 young people attended the five conferences. These were challenging experiences centering around the general theme of "Stewardship." This gave the four District Councils opportunity to develop their own programs, bringing initiative and added leadership to us. The four themes were: "All Out for God," Salem District; "Deepening our Stakes and Lengthening our Ropes," Portland District; "Open Windows," Cascade East; "My God and I," Cascade South. World Service Speaking Contests were held in these District Conferences.

The idea of a voting delegate from each church in the Conference was passed on by the Conference Council in Salem, May 15. It was the feeling of this group that such a form of voting would give a voice to each church and that the representatives of the various groups would aid in selecting leaders from various parts of the state showing an interest in the Youth Program.

VIII. Reports

BOARD OF EDUCATION

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

As we come to the close of this year of the Crusade with a special "Stewardship" emphasis we are doubly sure that the work of the Board of Education is one of Stewardship. As someone has said, "Christian Stewardship is really just another way of speaking of Christian living." The purpose of all our activities is to that end.

You will read the reports on the following pages with much appreciation, realizing that the folk who have made this program possible, both in the Division of the Local Church and the Educational Institutions, are those with consecration and devotion to a Great Cause.

We wish here to call attention to a few additional facts:

District	Church School Enrollment May 31, 1947	Increase this Year	Number yet to Enroll by Dec. 31, 1948	Received from Church School on Profession of Faith
Cascade	8,502	404	1,082	282
Portland	13,311	943	2,346	370
Salem	10,719	1,032	1,841	265
Total	32,532	2,379	5,269	917

Thus far during the quadrennium we have increased our enrollment by 5,887. We can reach our goal by December 31, 1948. 5,269 additional people can be reached. ATTEMPT GREAT THINGS FOR GOD. Bring the people into the church schools.

It is interesting to note that while we have increased our enrollment by 5,887 we have increased World Service Giving from the Church School by $6,108. This year's total was $17,912. As we increase our numbers we naturally increase our service to others.

Our 1946 Summer Camping Analysis shows:

Christian Adventure Camps		Institutes		Business College	Young Adult
Adams	84	Barview	236	Barview .. 65 (Weekend)	Barview ... 52 (Adults and Children)
Barview I	112	Little River ..	116
Barview II	92	Suttle Lake I..	194
South Cascade ..	82	Suttle Lake II.	213
Suttle Lake	96
Total	466	Total	759

The total number of persons in camp for the summer was 1,342.

In preparation for the 1947 camping program we have held four District Conferences for ministers and laymen stressing the purpose, program, preparation for camp, the carry-over into the on-going program of the local church and the results in the lives of campers. Miss Virginia Henry and Miss Emeline Crane from Nashville were our guest leaders. In addition to this several one day conferences have been held with faculty members. Time, effort, expense, and dedication are constantly being poured into this phase of our work. Your wholehearted cooperation is bringing outstanding results. This summer includes 9 weeks at Barview, 4 at Suttle Lake, 3 at Camp Myrtlewood (Little River), 1 at Umatilla. This will require at least 250 persons for faculty. Barview has also been occupied each weekend since April 18.

We want to express our special appreciation to Miss Sybil Tucker who has served as Student Director at Wesley Foundation, Corvallis, for a number of years. She has worked diligently and well, leaving her influence in the lives of hundreds of youth. We regret her leaving Oregon to accept a position at Bellingham. Our best wishes go with her.

Miss Olivia Olson, our Church School Extension Worker, has been doing exceptionally fine work in some of our rural churches. She spends two to three weeks in a church, studying the situation, finding needed workers, calling in homes—bringing encouragement and help to the total program of the church. She has been working since January first.

ADULT DIVISION

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The Adult work of our Conference finds expression through the many channels of our Christian Educational program. Since the emphasis of the church has been on "Stewardship" this year, and that particularly being promoted by the laymen, the adult division of our churches has assisted at that point.

Our Conference has been organized into 19 sub-districts. We are in the process of selecting a sub-district director of adult work and a sub-district young adult president in each sub-district. This, we trust, will make possible a more active, helpful program.

Respectfully submitted
O. Leonard Jones, Conference Director.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP

Time is reckoned in the Oregon Conference Young Adult Fellowship from one summer camp to the next. August 10th to 17th was the date of last summer's camp at Barview. Though a small group attended, everyone there had a week never to be forgotten under the guidance of the Rev. Robert Clemmons from Nashville and the Rev. Dean C. Poindexter.

Since then young adult groups have become a welcome new addition to many churches and existing groups have grown tremendously. Far more young adults have become "stalwarts" in their churches this last year as the unsettling war conditions gave way to normal living. It is gratifying to see how young adults have assumed their church responsibilities along with their other duties.

Conference officers met twice during the year. Numerous district and sub-district rallies sparked the organization, the highlight being the meetings at Salem and Portland with Dr. M. Leo Rippy, one of the grandest men in The Methodist Church.

Particular praise is due Miss Martha Kumler of Salem for her excellent work on the Conference young adult newspaper, the "YAF." Anyone may receive it by sending his name and address to Martha at 991 N. Cottage Street, Salem, Oregon. Ministers should be sure all young adults in their churches receive the "YAF."

One camp this summer will be at Barview from July 26th to August 2nd. Emphasis will be placed on church work, family work, family life, political activity and the other fundamentals of our Christian life. The bulk of the leadership will be provided by young adults who have actually achieved things in those fields. For example, the discussions on political activity will be led by Sigfrid Onander (Ex-Governor Sprague's secretary, Lt. Col. in the service, 32 years of age) and Robert Elliott (immediate past president of the Oregon Young Republican Federation, 29 years of age). Both are unusually well qualified to discuss the subject. Others of like caliber will lead discussions around the evening campfire on the work of the young adult in the church, family life and other topics that are close to our age group.

The regular morning classes will be lead by Prof. Herman Clark of Willamette University who is well known from previous camps. Miss Dorothy Harding will lead the class on methods. She will spend one week early in July at Fayetville, Arkansas, with other young adult leaders from all over the country.

The promotion of the Methodist Youth Conference to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, December 30, 1947 to January 2, 1948, has been brought before all youth groups in the state. Plans have been made to secure a chair car for the Methodist youth of Oregon who are attending this great conference. It is the hope and prayer of the State Council that all pastors and youth groups will aid in the promotion of this conference in the time that remains and make Oregon really represented by outstanding young people.

In trying to pinch-hit for Lois Messing Todd, who did such a splendid job as President, I would have been at a loss were it not for the time and effort that Miss Sherlock has given, and above all her continuing patience with me. Her timely suggestions and council make me certain that as long as people like her have faith in our youth we can "climb the high way" and in so doing will be able to serve our Christ in all that we do.

On behalf of the Youth of the State, I would like to thank our Bishop, Bruce R. Baxter, for his continuing interest in us, and the three District Superintendents for the time and help they have been to us. Naturally without the aid and prayers of all the pastors we would accomplish little and so we would extend our thanks to them for aiding in the local churches. With Christian men and women behind us we have no course but the "high way" and we believe that the "high way" is seeking the right way.

Respectfully submitted,
Ray N. Fedje, President.

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Several important steps were taken this year to help each local Youth Fellowship into a vital Christian force and not merely a field.

The division of the Conference into 19 sub-districts, each with a youth director was one of the most far-reaching steps. Some local churches have not yet seen the values of cooperating with neighboring groups. The success of youth work over the state is largely due to the sacrificial giving of time and counsel by the following sub-district directors with their youth officers:

Cascade District

The Rev. Charles G. Funk, Umatilla.
The Rev. Laurance A. Burdette, Mid-Columbia.
Mrs. C. E. Brittain, Central Cascade.
....., Klamath.
Mr. R. J. Bills, Rogue River.
The Rev. W. A. MacArthur, Umpqua.
The Rev. Everett H. Gardner, Coos.

Portland District

Mrs. Jean M. Fenander, Lower Columbia.
The Rev. Alfred E. Vosper, St. Helens.
The Rev. Everett L. Bowers, Tualatin Valley.
Mr. Hubert W. Bleything, Portland.
The Rev. Orval M. Whitman, Oregon City.
The Rev. David B. Bauman, Gresham-Pleasant Home.

Salem District

The Rev. Carl B. Mason, South Willamette.
The Rev. Harry E. Rarey, Albany-Corvallis.
Mr. J. H. Adamson, Tillamook.
Dr. Joseph M. Adams, Mid-Willamette.
The Rev. Harvey deVries, Yamhill.
Mr. Clyde Walker, Washington County.

The next important step was a Fall Workshop at Gresham attended by adult directors and youth representatives from the various sub-districts. Miss Pearl E. Sherlock explained the plan and led in the discussion of the local needs and how the sub-district organization could help to meet them. Several resource persons represented special causes, e. g. the Rev. Ralph Kleen, Stewardship, and Miss Laura Heist, Missions.

The third step was a series of District meetings which the Conference President has reported. Pastors and counselors were urged to attend and share in a special discussion group which it was my pleasure to lead at three of the meetings. This was my main personal share in these important steps.

Conference and Institute plans, along with new leaders adding their consecrated counsel to the loyalty of youth and adults who continue their offices, promise a great new year for the Oregon Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Shellhart.

WILLIAMETTE UNIVERSITY
SALEM, OREGON

From the standpoint of the number of students in the student body, the college year 1946-47 has been the greatest year of service for Willamette University, Methodism's Institution of Higher Learning in Oregon. Including specials and part-time students, Willamette enrolled 1423 students during the college year. Of these, 988 were full time regular students. This is in comparison to 870, the previous top enrollment in 1939-40.

With the great demand for admission which has come following the war, Willamette has made every effort to admit those students who would normally constitute her constituency. Good scholarships, Christian character and promise of future usefulness are the three criteria used by the admissions committee in the selection of students who are admitted to Willamette.

The increase in the number of students has resulted in an enlarged faculty. Among the new members, Doctor Norman Huffman was brought to the campus to head up the offerings in Religion. Doctor Huffman is one of the ablest young scholars in his field in the country. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa at Duke University where he earned his A. B., M. A., and B. D. He then continued his studies at Harvard for the Master of Sacred Theology and was later granted the Ph. D. at Brown. Doctor Huffman brings a rich background of scholarship to the Department of Religion.

The personnel program of the University includes all student counseling and has been coordinated under the leadership of Doctor Lawrence A. Riggs, who was appointed to the position of Dean of Students. Doctor Riggs is a devoted Methodist Layman and has much in his own life to give the students who come to him for help. Doctor and Mrs. Riggs have also served as advisors to the Wesley Fellowship Group of University students at First Church and during the year we have had one of the most active and sincere groups of Methodist College young people it has been my privilege to know.

Following the war, the University undertook its postwar development program with great vigor. In March, ground was broken for the men's Residence Quadrangle which will provide housing for 225 men in five units, each with its own living room, dining room and recreational facilities. Willamette proposes to make these residences more than a dormitory. Every effort is being made to give Willamette students real homes during their college days. Each residence section will have a suite of rooms for a resident housemother who will be the social head of the residence. Women of Christian character and a definite interest and understanding of students will be appointed to these positions. Their presence should set a high standard of excellence in social living for our men's groups.

During the year, the government program of providing buildings has resulted in the erection of a new Health Service and Infirmary on the campus. This Health Center will provide offices for the University Doctor and nurse and wards and private rooms for men annd women students who are ill. The new Health Center will enable the University to give much better Health Service and attention to the physical welfare of the students at Willamette.

The enlarged student body at Willamette created a problem in the chapel program of the University since there was no auditorium on the campus which could accommodate all the students at one time. With the invitation for the First Methodist Church to hold chapel in the auditorium of the church once a week, this problem turned out to be a blessing in disguise. Each Thursday morning a worship chapel is held at the church for all students. The use of the church has given us a far more effective religious service than was possible in the auditorium on the campus. At these Thursday chapels, Willamette students have had opportunity to hear many of the religious leaders of this section of the country. Doctor James Chubb brought inspiration to the campus during the two days of his visit. He not only addressed the chapel, but spoke to classes and made himself available for student conferences..

This year Willamette sent the largest group of students to represent any college in the state to the meeting of the Oregon Methodist Student Conference which was held in Eugene. James Purdy, a junior at Willamette, was elected President of the State Association and Joseph Brazie, a freshman, was elected Treasurer.

During the past year the Oregon Conference has continued its program of financial assistance for the University through direct appropriations and through the College Day collections. We wish to express the appreciation of the University for this help. It is truly an investment which pays large dividends in Kingdom building. I am sure the Oregon Conference has reason to be proud of Methodism's University in Oregon.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Herbert Smith, President.

There will also be a camp for young adults at Camp Myrtlewood, near Myrtle Point, from July 3rd to 6th. This is the first time a young adult camp has been held in Southern Oregon and there is much interest being shown in this new venture. The Rev. Everett H. Gardner will be the director. The Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner of Grants Pass will lead a daily forum on the theme, "Understanding Our Christian Faith." A Conference officer will lead a discussion group on young adult work in the local church.

Young adults who go to one of these camps this summer will return better equipped and more willing to carry responsibility at home and in the local church and will be able to inject a strong Christian influence in the community. Too, they'll have had the liveliest and most stimulating vacations they have ever known.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Anderson, President.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The annual meeting of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement for 1947 was held at Eugene, Oregon, April 18, 19 and 20, with the Wesley Foundation of the University of Oregon acting as hosts. The general theme of the meeting was "Building a Faith that Fulfills." We were privileged in having, for our main speaker, Dr. James S. Chubb from the General Board of Evangelism, Nashville, Tennessee. He was assisted by Dr. Lawrence Riggs, Norman Huffman, and Prof. Herman Clark from Willamette University; Dr. E. W. Warrington from Oregon State College; the Rev. Thomas W. Klink, Mount Tabor Methodist Church in Portland; the Rev. Ralph G. Kleen, Conference Director of the New Life Movement; and Mr. William Genne, Regional Secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in Portland. Under the able leadership of these men the thought of the students were directed to more purposeful living. This year the discussion groups were guided along the lines pertinent to what the students were faced with in everyday life instead of choosing a specific topic for discussion. Students attended from Willamette University, University of Oregon, Oregon State College, and Lewis and Clark College.

Officers for the year 1947-1948 were elected as follows: James Purdy, President; Marian Sammis, Vice President; Katherine Dobson, Secretary; Joe Brazie, Treasurer; Kaz Kawata, Publication Director; the Rev. David Seaman, Advisor. The outgoing officers would like to especially thank Mr. Seaman for the splendid cooperation and aid in planning the conference in the absence of our advisor, Miss Sybil Tucker.

Special emphasis was placed for the coming year on delegates attending as many state and out-of-state conferences as possible. A special value is received from the association with other students from different campuses, states, and countries that are far more broadening than any other training they would receive.

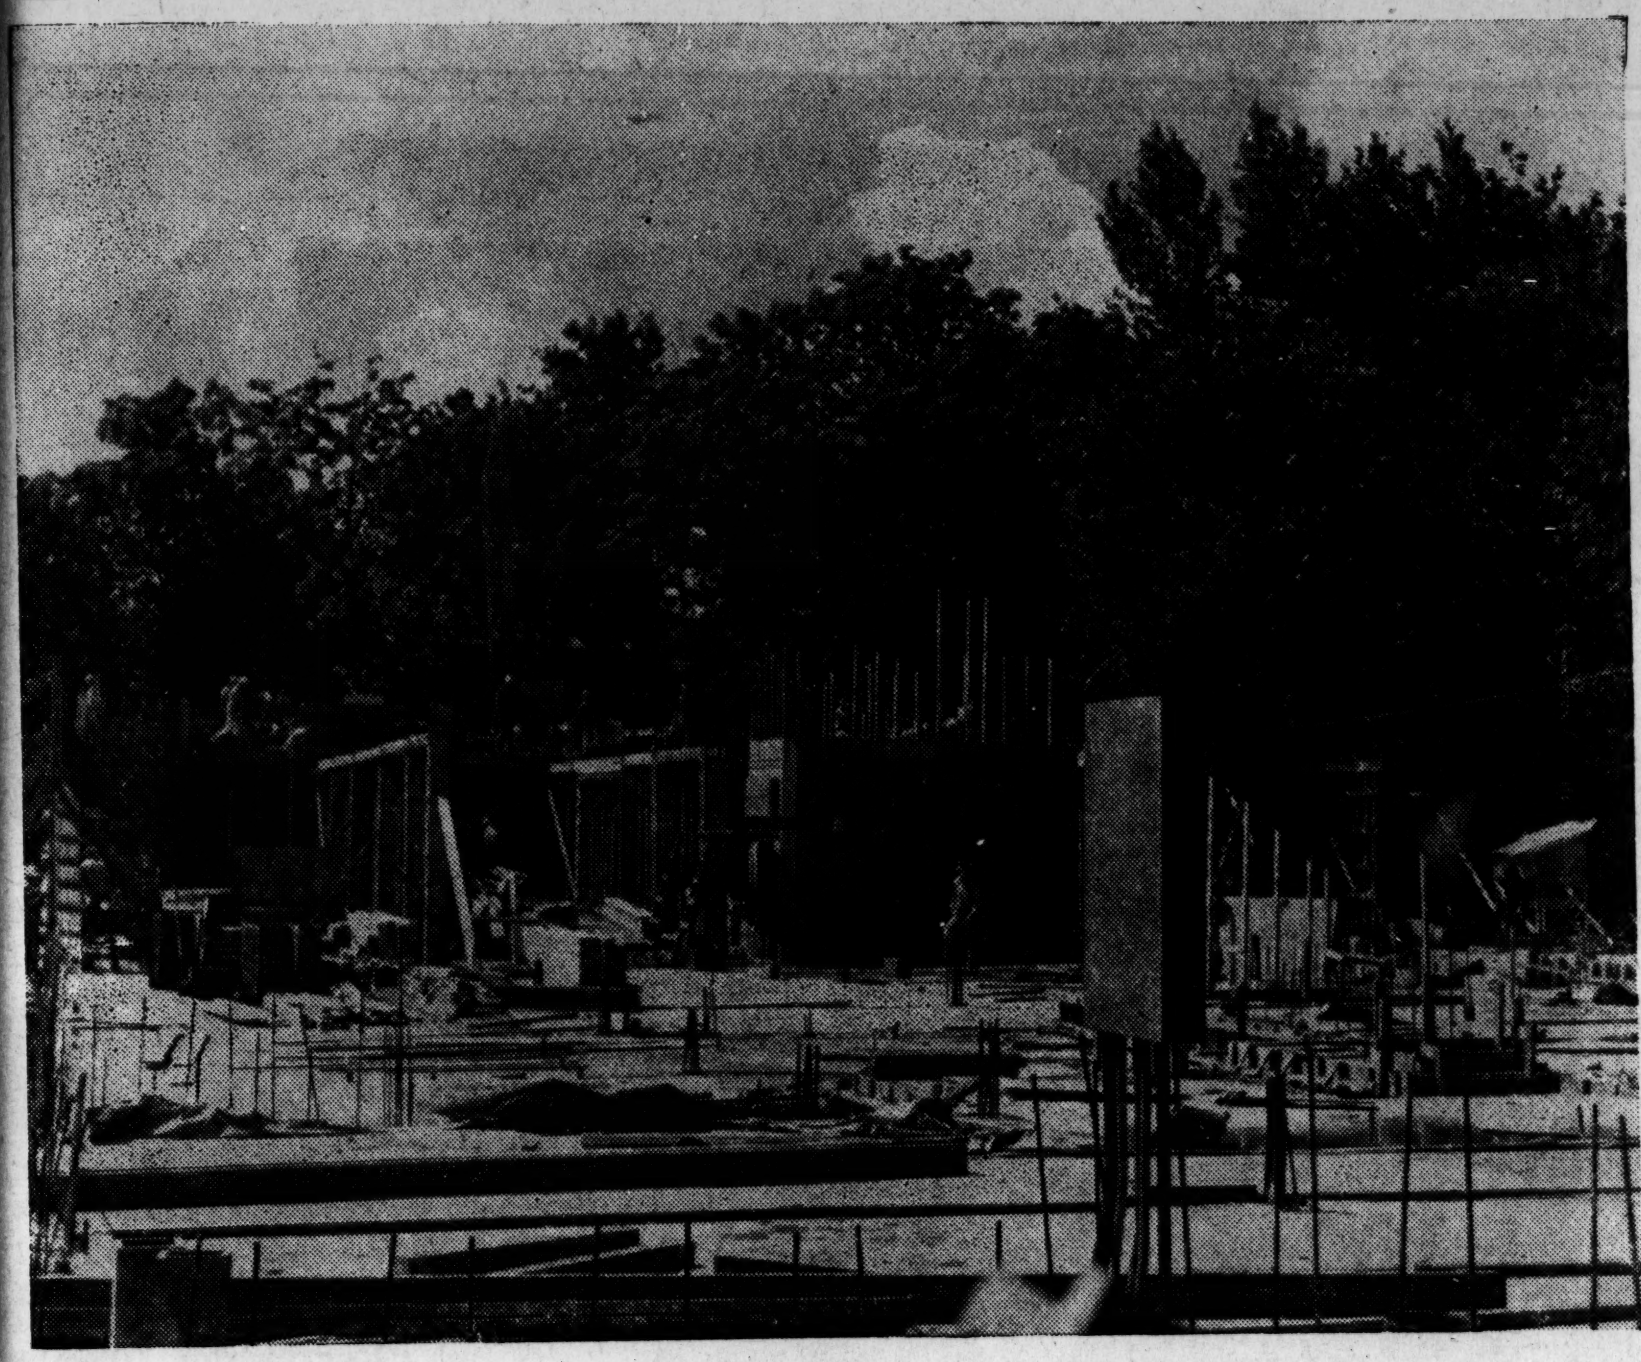

Our goal for the coming year at conference time is to have every college and university in the Conference represented at the meeting, for until we do, the group will not be a truly Oregon Methodist Student Movement.

We wish to thank the Board of Education, the ministers and lay leaders of our church for the work they have done in the movement. Their willingness to help and the aid they have given is making the Student Movement stronger every year.

Barbara Husbands, President, 1946-1947.

During this first year that building is possible following the war, Willamette physical development is keeping pace with its educational program. The University continues its educational leadership in the Northwest.

DEVELOPMENT AT WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

The college year 1946-47 has been a year of development and progress for the oldest University in the west. Three major projects have been started in the physical plant of the University which will enable Willamette to give better service to the young men and women who seek their education at Willamette. In March, the Trustees of the University authorized the erection of the New Residence Halls for men. Ground was broken and work was immediately started on the new building which, when completed in January 1948, will house 224 men students in a completely fireproof building. The main Residence Halls will bear the name of our late beloved leader of Methodism in Oregon, Willamette's former President Bishop Bruce Richard Baxter.

The building is unique in many respects. It is divided into five major sections, each with its own living and dining facilities. The large residence hall will have 100 men, and the four smaller units will care for 31 men each, and will be occupied by four fraternity chapters in the campus. Each of the five divisions will have Resident House Mothers who will act as social head of the division. Willamette's unique plan for housing its men students is commanding the attention of Colleges throughout the country.

The second large development is the erection on the campus of a new Health Service Center and Infirmary which will give the University greatly improved facilities to safeguard student health. The new Health Service provides clinic offices for Doctor and Nurse, apartment for resident Nurse, and Infirmary for 15 men and 15 women students. The new building will be ready for use when college opens for the fall semester 1947.

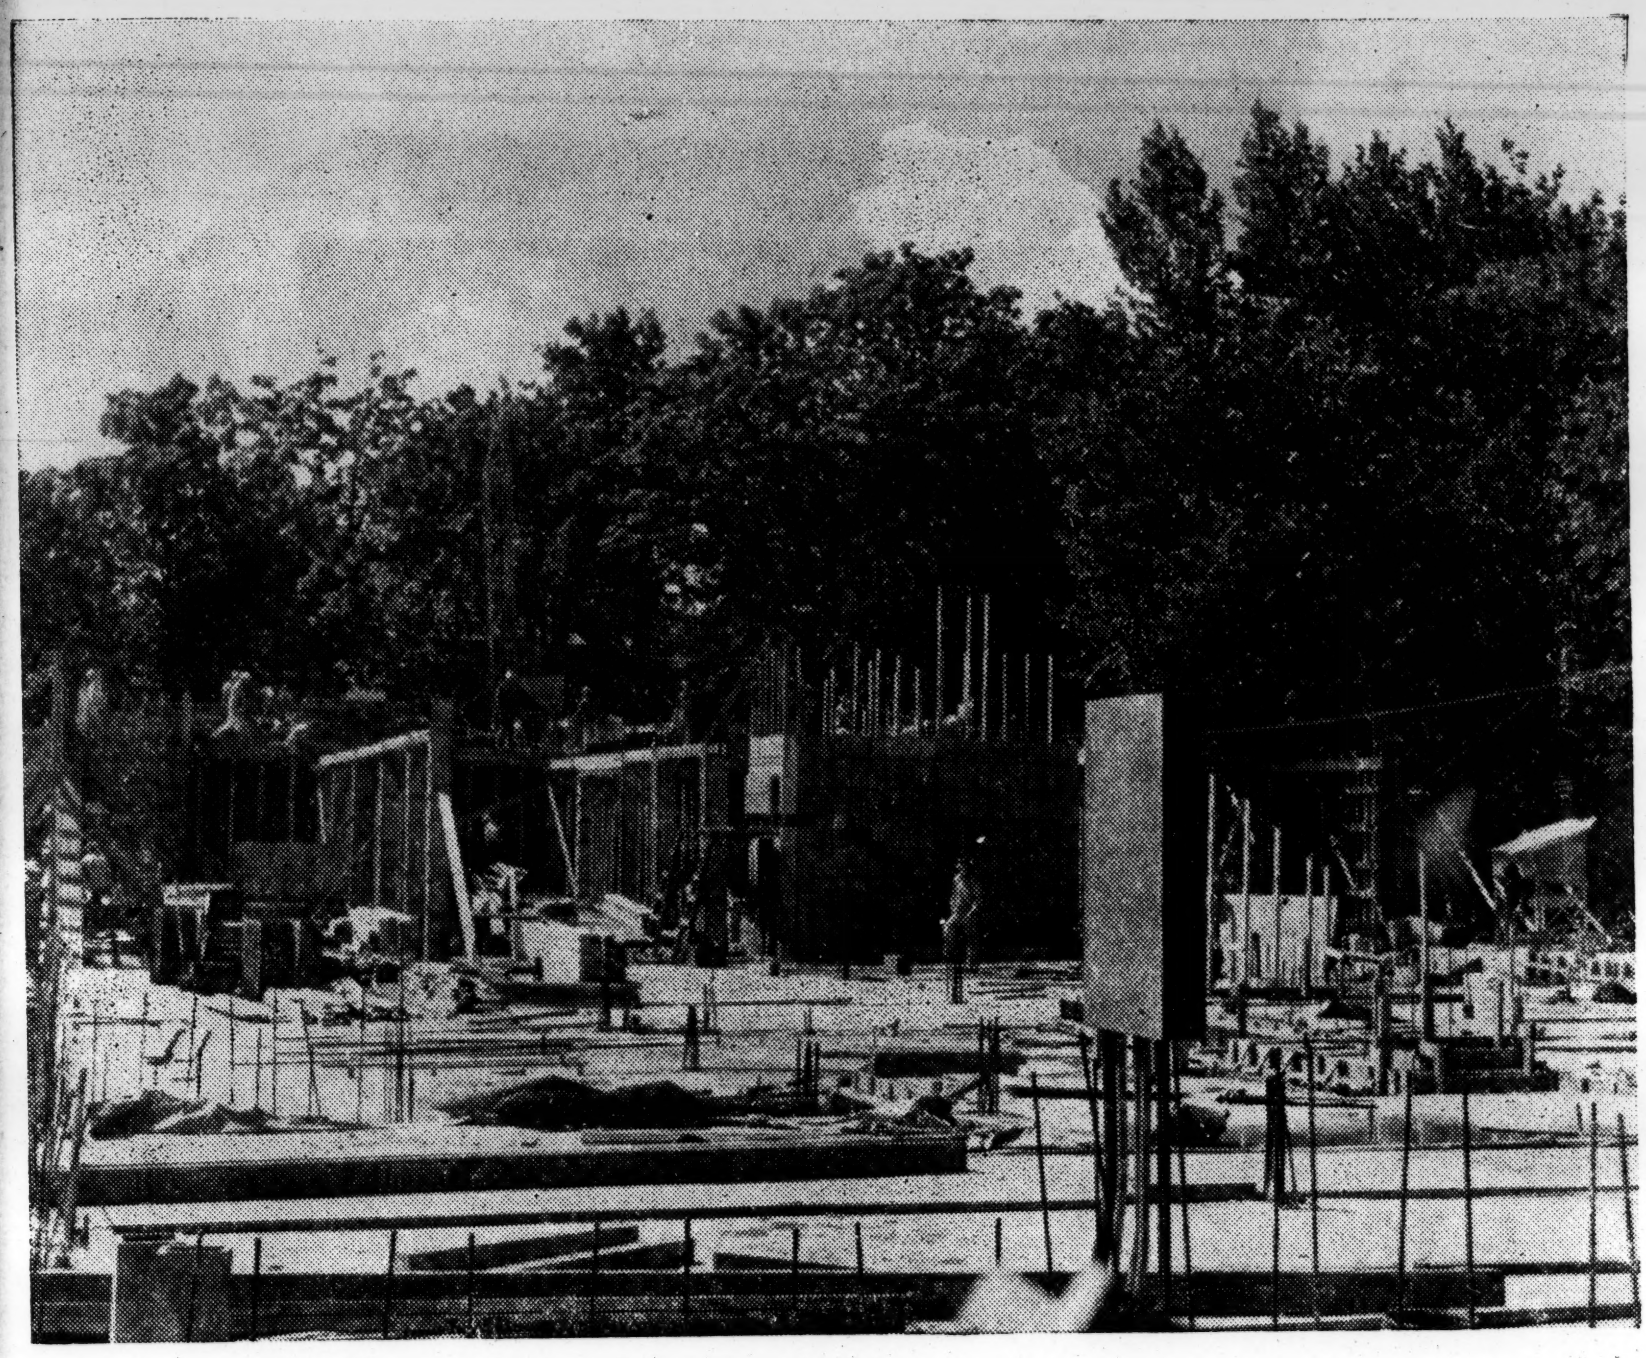

The third major project of the year is the work which has been done to provide a new athletic field for outdoor sports. The ten acre tract in Bush's Pasture, just three blocks from the campus, has been graded and drainage has been installed. The water system is to be provided this summer so that the seeding of the plot may come this fall. Through the generosity of Mr. Charles E. McCulloch, President of the Willamette Board of Trustees, provision has been made for the erection of a permanent concert stadium to seat approximately 3,500 people. Present plans call for the erection of this stadium in the summer

EUGENE, OREGON

Wesley Foundation of the University of Oregon at Eugene is a functioning part of the Methodist Student Movement. This year has been a gratifying year. Enrollment at the University reached a peak of nearly 5,500 students with the number of Methodist preference students at 560. From these came an active and interested group of young people, some seeking to continue their loyalty to Christ and His Church through Wesley Foundation, and others seeking for the first time to discover what The Methodist Church has for its students.

New officers for 1947-48: Elton Nystrom, Carolyn Nash, Suzie Michel, Kathy Dobson, George Gordon. George is president for this new year.

In a creative, democratic fashion, the students of Wesley Foundation at the University of Oregon constructed and carried on a program designed by them and for them, seeking to make practical application of Christianity to the experience of college and to all of life.

During this year these goals have been achieved:

1. Wesley House completely paid for. At a special service at First Methodist Church in Eugene, students of the Wesley Foundation presented the need of $1,500 to complete payment on Wesley House. The congregation responded to the full amount.

Rev. Dave Seaman, Director of Wesley Foundation, and wife.

2. Recreation Room added. Wesleyans nailed the donated knotty hemlock siding on the walls of the basement room, put on a Fir-Tex ceiling, added fluorescent lighting and created a beautiful recreation room, doubling the usable floor space. Students raised $400 in cash and donated the majority of labor on the project.

3. Plans made for Wesley Chapel. One of the two garages on the Foundation property is suitable for a small Service projects have challenged the attention of students during the year. An offering taken during the Christian pageantry service by Dr. Daniel W. Stevens amounted to $467.73, which was used to buy food for Europeans through the agency of C. A. R. E. The Rev. Owen J. Beadles was the speaker at this service, which included pageantry, music, and meditations arranged by the students.

The college Bible Class which is taught by Dean U. G. Dubach, purchased two bicycles for the use of the Randall Crawford family in South America. Support was given to the 4-H Goat Club project on this same mission farm. Fifty dollars was given to missions at Easter.

Students of the Foundation have taken a great interest in Fukien Christian University this year. An active Wesleyan, Sheng Chung Fang, is a graduate of this University to which the students recently sent $140.00 to be used as part time scholarships for three Chinese students.

A large number of international students on the campus has given opportunity for friendships and understanding of other races and religions. Mohammedan, Hindu, and Confucian students have been in the regular fellowship of the Foundation. Christian students from other continents and races have also greatly enriched the life of the Christian students at Oregon State.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boals sent a gift of $400 to the students for the Foundation this year in the name of their daughter, Mary, who was graduated from the college several years ago. The faculty committee has assisted the students in the selection of a combination phonograph and radio to be used during worship and social hours in Wesley Hall. A library of about 100 classical and religious recordings is being collected at the present time. The students are greatly appreciative of this gift which is being used to fill a vital need.

The past year has been characterized by great interest and enthusiasm on the part of students and by devotion and consecration on the part of student officers and committeemen. Maxine Yoder, as president; Barbara Husbands, as state president and campus Religious Leaders' Council president; and Harold Black, as incoming president, have elicited the wholehearted cooperation of a large number of students on the campus. Dr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Stevens, Dr. S. M. Zeller, and other faculty committee members have shared wonderfully with students in the building of a fellowship of purposeful Christian youth on the campus at Oregon State College.

As I submit this tenth annual report for the Wesley Foundation at Oregon State, I would like to express my personal gratitude for the privilege that has been mine of sharing with students, ministers, faculty members, and friends in this great work. It has been our aim to help build an atmosphere in which students could discover that Christian living provides the fulfillment of all the aspirations and dreams of life. I have wished very often that those who make the work possible could have shared in the sacred moments when decisions were being made and when life patterns were being determined. I am grateful to God and to the Oregon Conference for the opportunities of these past years.

Respectfully submitted,
Sybil Tucker,
Director of Student Activities.

12. Sent delegates to Conferences: 2 to Seabeck; 30 to Student Conference held at Eugene; 5 to Leadership Training School at Lake Tahoe, California; 1 to Planning Conference of the Youth Division of the Oregon Council of Churches held at Seaside, Oregon.

14. Housed seven Methodist boys, making Wesley Foundation a real "home away from home."

15. Students pledged $383 to student budget.

Goals for 1947-48:

1. Wesley Chapel completed.

2. Active group of 250 students incorporated in a "University of Life" program.

3. Five deputation teams ready for service in churches and schools throughout the Conference.

4. $200 for the Methodist Student Fellowship Fund.

5. Study classes in Bible, Church Membership, the Christian Faith, and others.

6. Organization of Kappa Phi, national club of Methodist girls, and Delta Sigma, national club of Methodist men.

As director of the Wesley Foundation at Eugene, I should like to express my appreciation to the ministers and lay people of the Oregon Conference who aided us this year by their prayers and their active support; to a loyal church headed by its minister, the Rev. L. O. Griffith; to the Wesley Commission led by Dr. Charles G. Howard; to my wife Gloria for her splendid understanding, cooperation and assistance; and to the fine group of students whose concern for the highest and best in life delivers a real and vital challenge for the Church to stand by. Personally, I am grateful for the opportunity to serve.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The characteristic attitude of modern Christendom stands in sharp contrast to that of the early Christians. They were most clearly conscious of their spiritual powers. We, on the other hand, are most conscious of our problems and needs. The evidence for this statement lies in the content of the reading matter which each generation produced. In the New Testament Christendom, although but a pitiful minority, marches like a conquering army. Twentieth Century Christendom, although numerically strong, is fearful of the future. A large portion of our people need to be imbued with that ancient Pentecostal spirit. Looking outside of the church one is almost overwhelmed by the appalling spiritual emptiness of life. The mad chasing of the multitudes from one diversion to another betrays their efforts to flee from themselves. The opiate of the people is not religion, but the glamour and the froth and the diversions which the masses so eagerly accept.

The statistical office of our church states that "of those related to church denominations, one out of every nine is a Methodist." The total not identified with any church in our country numbers sixty-six million. Therefore, our prorated share of this number is seven million. That is Methodisms legitimate field. More than that, it is our direct responsibility. If each Christian denomination does its proportionate duty, Methodism must almost double its membership. Oregon Methodism numbered less than forty thousand a year ago. With the present population of the State exceeding a million, our proper goal must be more than ONE-HUNDRED THOUSAND METHODISTS IN OREGON. Let that figure challenge us rather than frighten us.

In view of these facts, the goals which we adopted a year ago are not at all unreasonable. In fact, they are really inadequate. We then urged our people to bend every effort to double our membership in five years. Even if this is accomplished, Methodism will still be far short of meeting its responsibility to the people of Oregon. Therefore, the least we can do is to adopt the goal of twenty percent increase in membership for the next year. At least half of this number shall be by Confession of Faith. Then, we must renew and increase the emphasis upon the assimilation of new members we have already received. This is incalculably important.

We strongly recommend also

(1) That each congregation conduct a visitation evangelism crusade in the fall and spring of the year.

(2) That each pastor personalize the reception of new members. Let none of us become so enamored with the importance of numbers that the personal touch is lost. God saves men as individuals, not as classes. The church must do likewise.

(3) That thorough training classes for new members be held.

(4) That we launch a positive program of education and indoctrination of all of our members in the beliefs, teachings, and working program of our church. People will not be loyal to a church with whose doctrines and works they are unfamiliar.

(5) That evangelism be stressed and made effective in the church school. "The supreme purpose of every Christian teacher is to bring each pupil face to face with God, with Jesus Christ, and with a major commitment to Him as Lord and Saviour." Any church school teaching which omits any one of these functions is woefully inadequate.

(6) That pastors and local committees on Evangelism promote the use of the radio in their parish ministry, and to use when appropriate the religious recordings prepared by the Upper Room Radio Parish of our General Board of Evangelism. (At present the department has 65 fifteen minute transcriptions called "Music for the Soul," and a series of 13 transcriptions of "The Christians" on the theme "The Home Honors God.")

Brethren, as we stood on the threshhold of the year of evangelism in our Crusade for Christ there was evident among ministers and laymen alike a deep feeling of inadequacy for the task. In part that was to the good for we need constantly to recognize that it is not by might nor by power, but by His Spirit that we labor effectively. The part that is alarming is that with our increase in numbers there has not been a corresponding increase in the spiritual vitality of our church. The need for a new dimension of depth within our lives has come to a crucial hour. We cannot hope to lead others where we have not been. To meet this mounting need your Board proposes this next year to encourage and arrange for the holding of numerous retreats throughout the Conference for the single purpose of deepening the devotional life of all our ministers. In every instance they shall be limited to this one supreme purpose. With all that our church has in resources, equipment and trained leadership, another Pentecost would be upon us if Christ should be given Preeminence deep in our hearts.

E. J. Aschenbrenner, Chairman.
Ralph G. Kleen, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

We reaffirm our Christian faith in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man. By this faith, if all men could hold it, we could cooperate for peace. Unfortunately only about one fourth of mankind hold this faith. Failing in faith we fail in cooperation. Forces economic, commercial, political, pagan, racial, and military drive us on to world unity by coercion, conquest or Christianity. World government might become world despotism. The Church of Christ must therefore uphold the reality of human brotherhood and human rights.

We commend the recent resolution of the Council of Bishops upon universal military training and urge its careful and prayerful study in every Church. We express the hope that Willamette University will retain its civilian character and will not initiate a program of peacetime military training on its campus.

We are encouraged by the spirit of concern for others as expressed in our churches through generous sharing in Overseas Relief in its various forms. We urge our people to study our National Foreign policy and to make their attitudes and desires known to our national leadership.

The world shrinks continually due to the progress of science, but the problem of world peace grows continually greater. Such progress makes world cooperation and goverment more imperative than ever. We therefore recommend the strengthening and use of local Peace Committees. May we, through prayer meditation, and sincere searching for truth, find the passion and peace of The Prince of Peace. May the people called Methodists live and hold to the faith and attitudes that shall make them children of God until the spirit of Jesus says to them, "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE OREGON CONFERENCE FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION

June 1947

Much to the delight and joy of its growing circle of members and friends, the Oregon Conference Federation for Social Action has greatly increased "in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man," as measured by the testimony of those outside its fold. It is still unofficial, and will, we trust, remain such, to the end that its prophetic spirit be not quenched.

Fair Employment Practice Act

One of the most effective services rendered this year by the Federation was the initiation of a state fair employment act. This was under the sponsorship of the Portland chapter of the Federation and the able leadership of Mrs. Grace Jenkins of the University Park Church, Portland. After the preliminary ground breaking work was done, a larger group more representative of the total interests of the state assumed leadership and plans were somewhat altered. The state committee being unable to function at the crucial time for presentation of bills to the state legislature two of our Federation members, Monroe Sweetland of Molalla and Lyle Thomas of our church at Dallas, and one of the ablest of our state legislators, were responsible for seeing that the bill was introduced at the last minute. The bill received scant attention from our legislators, but at least it was introduced and a beginning made for the bill at the next session of the legislature.

National Day Of Repentance

Letters have gone out during the course of the year to members, ministers and lay delegates to our conference, on various important social matters. The letter of last February called for a Day of National Repentance for the crime of Hiroshima. It suggested that we set aside the day of August 6th, anniversary of the dropping of the bomb on defenceless thousands of old people, women, children and workers. This letter also warned against the trend towards totalitarianism implicit in the proposed universal military training act.

Conference On Social Action

The Portland District Chapter initiated a series of conferences on the church and social action, with the first one being held in the First Methodist Church, Portland, on April 26. Some fifty persons registered. The conference dealt with three phases of social action. The morning session was concerned with "Our Civic Responsibilities and dealt largely with existent vice conditions of Portland. Mr. Horace Beckham, First Church Portland presented the matter and led

REPORT OF THE INTER BOARD COUNCIL

The Inter Board Council was organized two years ago at the Annual Conference in Salem to coordinate better the program and activities of the Board of Education, The Board of Evangelism, The Board of Lay Activities, and the Board of Missions and Church Extension. The personnel of the council consists of two members from each of the cooperative boards and the District Superintendents.

By vote of the 1945 Annual Conference, the Council was given a budget of $5,000 for salary and travel expense of a director. In February 1946, Bishop Baxter appointed Reverend Ralph G. Kleen as Director of The New Life Movement, responsible to this council.

We rejoice in the contribution Ralph has made to the spiritual life of our conference, to his consecrated leadership in the youth institutes, and for the tangible results in evangelism, church schools, stewardship, and church organization that have come through his work in many different charges in the conference.

After 17 months of sacrificial service in this field, Brother Kleen has asked the Bishop to be given an appointment as a local pastor. Furthermore, he feels that a change of emphasis should be made in the program of the Inter Board Council. The Board spent a day in April studying prayerfully, carefully, and objectively the needs of the conference and came to the following conclusions which are referred to the conference for approval:

1. That the Inter Board Council be continued as an integrating agency for the educational and evangelism program of the conference.
2. That for the year 1947-48 the emphasis of the council's program be placed on the Church School phase of the Crusade for Christ.
3. That the conference employ two persons to work under the supervision of the Cabinet and under the direction of the Inter Board Council—one to be Miss Olivia Olsen, who has been employed part-time by the Board of Education, and the other to be an ordained minister trained in education and evangelism, to be appointed by the Bishop.
4. That a budget of $5,000 be asked from the Commission on World Service of Finance to provide salary, travel expense, supplies and literature for these two professional workers.

Respectfully submitted,
INTER BOARD COUNCIL

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

We reaffirm the historic Methodist position that the use and sale of alcoholic beverages is morally wrong and religiously sinful. We call upon Methodists to actively support this position by strict observance of the law of the Church as contained in the Discipline.

Paragraph 95—excerpt from general rules:

"First, by doing no harm, by avoiding evil of every kind—drunkenness, buying or selling spiritous liquors, or drinking them, unless in cases of extreme necessity."

Paragraph 969-d Offences for which a member may be tried.

"Buying, selling, or manufacturing intoxicating liquors as a beverage; renting his property for the manufacture or sale thereof; signing a petition in favor of granting a license for the sale of such liquors; becoming surety on the bond of any person engaged in such traffic; or persisting in the use of intoxicating liquor after private reproof and admonition by the pastor or class leader."

Wet propaganda on the radio and in periodicals is reaching gigantic proportions. The question we face is "shall it continue?" Senator Capper, in January, introduced in the U. S. Senate a bill (S. 265) to eliminate the advertising of alcoholic beverages across state lines. On the 12th and 13th of May 1947 the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee held a hearing on this bill in the largest caucus room in the Senate Office building. The room was crowded to capacity, and the chairman of the committee, Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., of Maine said, following the hearings, that it was the clearest and most comprehensive presentation he had ever heard at any Senate hearing.

We urge our pastors and people:

1. To vigorously support all temperance legislation both in the state and nation.
2. To set up a workable and effective program of temperance education among the children, youth and adults of their respective churches and communities.

Chairman, Charles G. Brown.
Secretary, Fred O. Hunt.

PEACE ACTION

MILITARY TRAINING IN METHODIST SCHOOLS? Because of our belief in the fundamental task which our Methodist Colleges and Universities have of educating for Christian citizenship, and because of the threat to turn our campuses into military camps through peacetime conscription, we are anticipating action in the following three fields:

(1) WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. A resolution will be introduced during annual conference expressing the hope that Willamette University will retain its civilian character and will not initiate a program of peacetime military training on its campus.

(2) UNIVERSITY SENATE. A letter is being sent to the University Senate of the Methodist Church requesting that it use its influence in all Methodist Colleges and Universities to the end that these institutions of higher learning refuse to participate in a program of military training.

(3) GENERAL CONFERENCE. A resolution will be introduced during annual conference which would memorialize the General Conference in 1948 to establish a non-military policy in our Methodist Colleges and Universities all over the country. This would mean that their policy and curriculum would continue to be an education for Christian citizenship and would not include military training on the campuses during peacetime.

WILL YOU BE PREPARED TO SUPPORT THE ABOVE ACTION AND RESOLUTIONS?

THE MILITARY VIEWPOINT IN HIGH SCHOOLS. Many of our high schools are inviting army men and those of the military viewpoint to speak to the students on the advantages of peacetime military training. Is it not only right that they also invite those of the other viewpoint to speak on the way of peace?

RESERVE COMMISSIONS. It is being proposed that persons of influence on our school boards, in industrial plants, and in places of leadership in the community be given reserve commissions. This would be another wedge of the military to get its way incorporated into our American life.

UMTEE. Did you know that in the experimental camp for Universal Military Training at Fort Knox it takes 560 officers to take care of the 664 men? If that ratio were maintained in all camps in a program of Universal Training the cost would be exorbitant.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Above the clamor of these days of unrest and fear the question sounds as clearly now as when the words fell from the Master's lips, in day of old as he taught in parables to men.

How is it that I hear this of thee?

Give an account of thy stewardship.

The Theme for the Woman's Society of Christian Service for 1947 is, "Of such is the Kingdom."

We have accepted our stewardship for children, our children and children of the world family. Our responsibility as stewards of the Gifts Of God our Father for the children of the world is our open door for this year. How shall we follow the way set before us, may new visions become clear of the needs of home and community here and everywhere.

Throughout the Conference, District and local societies we have continued our cooperation in the, "Crusade for Christ program. The earnest efforts of the Spiritual Life secretaries using as a slogan, "To put the spirit within the wheels," has brought gratifying results. Methods used in increasing numbers were, personal devotion, fellowship of intercession, organized prayer groups and observance of day or hours apart. A marked increase in attendance and offerings was noted in the week of prayer and self denial this year. Although one cannot measure or tabulate spiritual growth of a person or organization, we feel confident that growth in spiritual living will be manifest in this year of stewardship.

There was an increase in attendance at our fourth annual Summer School held at Forest Grove in August 1946. Plans are underway for Summer School to be held at Barview this year, August 10-15. We believe the Summer sessions to be of very great worth in promoting the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and in teaching our women the value of Study classes. A definite out growth of this teaching has been realized with study classes in two Districts working for special Jurisdiction recognization. Two classes were offered the discussion. Following the noon luncheon a panel discussion on "Peace-time Conscription" was held, with an editor, banker and minister, participating. The three participants were Monroe Sweetland of our Molalla church, Howard Berger, University Park Church, and J. Ross Knotts, St. John's Pioneer Church. Mrs. Dorothy Helm, University Park Church, presented a book review of Margaret Halsey's "Color Blind" at the second session in the afternoon. This was concerned with "Race Relations" and was in charge of Ennis Whaley of Hughes Memorial Church.

As a result of this conference three commissions for study and work were formed to carry on thru monthly conferences and thru the social action committees of the local societies in the various churches of the district.

Gresham W. S. C. S.

Federation history was made early this spring when the W. S. C. S. of our Gresham church, at the suggestion of Miss Maude Aldrich, decided to take out two voting memberships in the Federation, and appointed Mrs. W. E. Parker and Miss Aldrich of their organization to be the recipients of these memberships and their representatives in the Federation. Thus a long step was taken in making a functioning unit for social action in Oregon Methodism.

District Conferences

The Portland District Social Action Conference, on April 26, had the privilege of the participation of the Superintendent of the Cascade District, the Reverend Oliver J. Gill. Rev. Gill invited a representative of the Conference to be present at the Cascade District Conference early this September and lay the burden of these great social issues on the hearts of his ministers. The Federation is ready to serve in like manner in the other districts whenever the Superintendents may desire.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY

Portland District Social Action Conference

Goals set up by the Commission:

1. To unify where possible the work of the various groups of the church in a more effective program of social action.
2. To make a careful study of social problems and the methods of dealing effectively with them.
3. Mobilize NOW for future progress in dealing with social and political problems by—
   a. Interviewing candidates before they come up for primary election.
   b. Securing men to run for office who represent the Christian ideal.
   c. Electing these men to office.

Present Opportunity To Do A Vital Piece Of Legislative Work

Wet propaganda on the radio and in periodicals is reaching gigantic proportions. The question we face is "shall it continue?." Senator Capper, in January, introduced in the U. S. Senate a bill (S. 265) to eliminate the advertising of alcoholic beverages across state lines. On the 12 and 13th of last month the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee held a hearing on this bill in the largest caucus room in the Senate Office building. The room was crowded to capacity, and the chairman of the committee, Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., of Maine said, following the hearings, that it was the clearest and most comprehensive presentation he had ever heard at any Senate hearing.

Our next step is to get this bill reported favorably to the Senate. Senator Capper in a recent communication to the Federation advised all interested to write to our own Senators, and to any members of the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission with whom we might be effective. A recent communication to all pastors from our National Board of Temperance urged each person to write to five others asking them to send a letter to the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee requesting that the bill be reported favorably to the Senate.

The Conference Lay Leader by action of the Annual Conference is a member of many conference committees. During the year I have served on:

The Preachers Pension Fund Promotion Committee (and wrote a letter as Conference Lay Leader to all the churches in the conference),

The Board of Missions and Church Extension,

The Inter-Board Council, of which I am chairman,

The Portland Area Crusade for Christ Council.

I have met with each of these groups twice, and in two cases, attended all day meetings. I also attended the four-day meeting at Highland Park, Illinois, of the National Council of Conference Lay Leaders.

During the year I have been chairman of the Stewardship and Evangelism Committee of my local church where we went "all out" for the entire Stewardship Education Program as laid down by the General Board of Lay Activities.

A few weeks ago I sent a letter to the church lay leaders of our Conference asking three questions:

1. In what ways was Stewardship observed in your church?
2. What tangible results have been obtained?
3. What future plans have you made for Stewardship education and promotion?

I received only 23 replies, or about 16 percent of the persons mailed. Time did not permit a second follow-up. Probably I should have received more replies if I had enclosed a stamped self-addressed envelope.

The small number of replies may indicate that only a few churches carried out the Stewardship program in a complete way. However, I am glad to report that the following churches made a real effort to follow the plan of The Church: Ashland, Astoria, Coos Bay, Corvallis, Dallas, Echo, Eugene, Falls City, Hillsboro, Lakeview, Lebanon, McMinnville, Pleasant Home, Jason Lee of Salem, St. Helens, Centenary Wilbur, First, Grace, and Vancouver Avenue of Portland.

It is apuarent that relatively few churches in our Conference undertook the detailed program outlined by The General Board of Lay Activities. On the other hand, there were probably two dozen churches in the conference which undertook to carry out most of the program. The report shows that:

1. Probably nine out of ten pastors preached sermons on stewardship.
2. Most churches used laymen speakers, at least on Laymen's Day, and in many cases throughout the entire Stewardship months.
3. Several churches put on an "every member canvass."
4. Stewardship has been taught in the church school.
5. The Conversation Groups were used fairly widely.
6. Kodachrome slides were used in a few instances.
7. The mid-week service was used for Stewardship education.
8. The W. S. C. S. conducted courses in Stewardship.
9. Stewardship literature was distributed.
10. One church reported that the "Christian Advocate" had been placed in every home.

Following are some of the tangible results which these churches report:

1. An increase in the number of new members added to the church.
2. Increase in church school enrollment.
3. Increased attendance at the worship services.
4. Increased attendance at official board meetings.
5. Increased financial support.
6. Increase in world service giving.
7. Greater interest in the church.
8. Increase in the number of capable workers.
9. Sunday evening services have been conducted regularly in several churches.

Suggestions for the future: I found that many churches expect to continue to emphasize Stewardship through the sermons, through the church school, and through study groups with young adults and others. Most churches have not considered any future plans themselves, so it seems to me that the General Board of Lay Activities should have some concrete suggestions for next year's Stewardship emphasis. We have made marked progress during the year, but not as much as we hoped. Nevertheless, we must realize that Stewardship education has been neglected for a generation, and we can not expect in one year to achieve our ultimate goals.

As we go into the church school phase of the Crusade for Christ it seems to me that we laymen have another great opportunity to practice Stewardship in relation to the youth of our communities who are without religious instruction, to challenge our members to take positions of leadership in the church school, and to have a vital part in the building of the Kingdom of God.

Edward L. Clark,
Conference Lay Leader.

for credit last year. India—taught by Miss Lilla Mills, Division Secretary Of Missionary Education's and in cooperation with the Crusade program, a class in Stewardship, taught by Mrs. J. W. Bunch, Jurisdiction Secretary of Spiritual Life.

There continues to be a dirth of trained leadership for work at home and abroad, and through the consecrated efforts of the secretaries of our youth and Student departments we hope to interest young men and women in full time Christian work. From our secretary of youth work comes the report of increased interest in Summer camps and Institutes. More young people registering for participation in such groups than could be accommodated. A survey reveals 15 College Students preparing for church vocations.

The work of the department of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities is far reaching. In befriending the migrant, helping the returned Veteran to make the adjustment to civilian living, giving battle to the liquor industry, helping influence legislation, cooperating in church welfare and overseas relief.

Women of Methodism are working to build bridges to span the chasm of religious indifference, race prejudice and hatred, so that all men may live together in peace and brotherhood.

The Wesleyan Service Guild which serves the gainfully employed woman, fulfills a need in the lives of many busy women, furnishing not only social enjoyment but an opportunity to study and contribute to missions and help in the work of the local church and community. Two new Guilds have been organized the past year.

We have sent supplies to nine foreign countries and six home institutions valuation $2,039.47. We are especially grateful for our part in sending supplies and money for the reopening of Jesse Lee Home, Seward, Alaska. We give thanks to God for the privilege of going the second mile.

Four new societies have been organized. Reports show definite increase in new members and new subscriptions to the Methodist Woman and World Outlook. The Conference Bulletin, published quarterly carries messages from Conference and District officers to the local society.

The total amount of money sent to the Division treasurer was $29,036.35. The annual gift of $1000 was sent to The Methodist Old Peoples Home—Salem.

We are earnest and enthusiastic in our support of Barview and are asking each local society to place a generous sum for Barview on their yearly budget.

Miss Bennie Gragg our negro student, attending Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, has just completed her first years work and is an excellent student. Miss Gragg is the third negro girl to receieve a four year scholarship from the Oregon Conference Woman's Society Of Christian Service.

Miss Evelyn de Vries our missionary serving in the Rodesia Conference Africa, continues her splendid work, conducting services and teaching in the Nellie Dingley School, Mutambara Southern Rodesia.

Miss Laura Heist has returned to her work in India.

Seven delegates from the conference attended the Western Jurisdiction meet held in Seattle in February.

Thankful to Our God for the privilege of service we gladly accept our responsibility for another year grateful for a share in the great program of the church.

Mrs. W. L. Lewis, President.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

Your conference lay leader is completing his fifth year in this position. Again I come to the end of the year feeling how much might have been done and how little has been done in this great work because of my limited time.

My chief concern this year, as was yours, has been the promotion of the stewardship program.

It was my happy privilege to present this phase of the Crusade for Christ in part, at least, to the following groups:

The Salem District Lay Leaders Retreat,
The Portland District Lay Leaders Retreat,
Montavilla Church of Portland at its fall retreat,
First Church, Portland, at its Official Board and Committees retreat,
The South Salem sub-district Methodist Men,
Tigard Methodist Church.

I was also chairman of an interdenominational and interfaith Stewardship Institute held in Portland under the auspices of the Golden Rule Foundation.

Ezra Cox, representing the Board of Missions, E. W. Stodghill, of the General Board of Education, E. C. Nash, of the Christian Advocate, have enlarged our vision of the larger program of the Church.

For the silent but efficient labors of the Conference staff of secretaries, statisticians treasurers, and members of the cabinet, we express a genuine, "Thank you."

The Call to Worship that has sounded from the tower as we approached the church, plus the majestic organ music and the rich harmony of choir numbers have all united to make this a week long to be remembered.

Certain hymns will always be more meaningful to us for having listened to Mildred Nye interpret their story.

Bishop W. Earl Ledden has captured a very special place in our hearts. We find it difficult to express our thanks to him for the noble way he has walked with us through the unexpected "Valley of the shadow." Because he has been with us it will always be easier to believe on Jesus. . . . here.

Ralph G. Kleen, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

The Conference Treasurer's report shows total receipts of $78,221.47 for World Service and Conference Benevolences which is approximately 4½ percent above the giving of a year ago. This is on top of a 7 percent increase reported in 1946 and 9 percent increase reported in 1945. The Conference Benevolence budget items have been paid in full and there remains a surplus of $1872.30. All receipts for World Service have been forwarded to Dr. Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer of the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

We recommend that $500 of the surplus, now in the hands of the Annual Conference Treasurer, be allocated to First Methodist Church, Eugene, to be applied to the capital investment fund of the Wesley Foundation in that city; that $720 of the surplus be allocated to the Portland District for religious work in the Vanport City housing project; and that $100 be allocated to the Conference Historical Society for promoting the 100th anniversary of the Oregon and California Mission Conference.

The World Service apportionment for the next Conference year is $51,337. As a result of the study of the askings from the various Annual Conference interests requesting funds for their work your Commission recommends an Annual Conference Benevolence budget of $34,225. These two items make a total of $85,562.

We present the following proposals:

1. That the apportionment to the charges be made by the District Superintendents in harmony with paragraphs 782 annd 783 of the Discipline and that two copies of the acceptances be sent to the Conference Treasurer.

2. All money raised for World Service and for Annual Conference Benevolences shall be shared pro-rata between the Conference Benevolences and the World Service on the following ratios: 40 percent to the Annual Conference Benevolences; 60 percent to the World Service.

3. All benevolence monies shall be remitted monthly to the Annual Conference Treasurer in keeping with the provisions of paragraph 791 of the Discipline.

4. The following Conference benevolences are approved:

A.	Conference Expense Fund:
	1. Journal and Conference Secretary Expense	$ 800
	2. Travel and Entertainment Committee	700
	3. Area Office Expense	575
	4. Statistician Staff Expense	35
	5. Treasurer (Salary $1,500; office expense $200)..	1,700
	6. Expense Commission on World Service and Finance	75
	7. Auditing Conference Records	250
B.	Christian Education:
	1. Division of Local Church	5,400
	2. Educational Institutions:
	a. Willamette University (for salary of the Professor of Religion and Promotion of the work of that department)	4,000
	b. Wesley Foundation:
	(1) Corvallis	4,000
	(2) Eugene	4,000

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH

It has been graphically pointed out to us this week that we live in a different world from that which existed a generation ago. We now face realities, not imaginings. We have heard, too, that we live in a far different section of America than it is generally accepted as being. It is a land of perpetual natural loveliness, but it is not a land of spiritual perfection. There has been an influx of population since 1940 of 30.1 percent yet only 20 percent of our population have any relation with any church. Our concerns seem to be more with the raising of a few extra dollars than in the finding and expending of sufficient energy to do our task. There is far too much indifference among our people. Over against our tragic record as a state of church-going people which is lowest in the Union, our per capita liquor consumption is the highest for any state in America.

These things not only challenge; they make demands. Too few of us have learned to program our work; still fewer have tried to really work the program. Laziness and indifference on the part of leaders, pastors and laymen, should really cause us to be concerned. The statistics show gains; but it is evident that we are still falling short of working our program up to its potentialities.

Therefore, we plead for the return of a zealous fire within our own spirits, that shall cause us to stand as fearless prophets, proclaiming the sins of all men, and that shall demand we face up to ourselves the utter disregard we have in so many phases of the Christian cause.

We plead for better family life; for Christian practices in the home; for family devotions and activities that will keep youth away from the gangs. We recommend the promotion of the Upper Room, the Christian Advocate, the New Life Magazine, the Christian Home and other literature that will contribute to the life of a Christian family.

We plead that more effective means of combating the liquor evil be found and employed and, because of an increasing use of alcoholic beverages among our church members and officials, we recommend that we follow the Temperance Advocate Movement in promoting education for total abstinence.

We plead that all negative approach to duty be replaced with the positive stand; that we begin to tackle what we say "cannot be done," particularly in the field of evangelizing the increasing numbers of people coming into our churches and into the circle of church influence.

We plead that we might cease covering up our motives with compromise and superficiality, and begin to live as persons dedicated under God to the New Testament standard of life.

"Like a mighty army," the church of God must move into the day immediately before it; the Church must gain the respect of all men in every community; the Church must have the ear of every discerning person; the Church must challenge and receive the support of all men who have discovered the emptiness of the world's way in the light of the way set by the Church. We shed the light. If we do not, the world dies!

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

In the stillness of our hearts this day, as we come to the close of the 95th session of the Oregon Annual Conference, our lives saddened by the passing of our leader, we would pause to indicate here our sincere gratitude for these facts which have blessed our lives:

That in the good providence of God we have been privileged to work and labor in the Kingdom under the contagious leadership of our beloved Bishop, Bruce R. Baxter. We are mindful that even in his Coronation we have again received The Benediction. We understand anew that great affirmation of our faith, "In my Fathers house are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you."

The gracious hospitality of Portland Methodism under the inspiring leadership of First Methodist Church, its Pastor, Rev. Laurence Nye, and his able staff, has left us with a debt to them which cannot be repaid in words. They have not spared time nor energy in caring for our every need and comfort.

We appreciate the generosity of the First Baptist Church in making available to us its facilities for certain of our annual meetings.

11. The last Sunday in December has been designated as College Day throughout the connection. Your Commission recommends that this be known as Willamette University Sunday in the Oregon Conference, and at this time the cause of the University may be presented in the churches and a special offering taken for the school. This shall be in addition to the grant in the budget. This money shall be remitted through the Conference Treasurer.

12. Your Commission reports that persons holding Conference funds are bonded in the following manner: Conference Treasurer, $10,000; Conference Claimants Board Treasurer, $5000; Conference Claimants Permanent Fund Treasurer, $5000; Conference Trustee Treasurer, $5000. We are advised that the Conference Treasurer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is included in a blanket bond taken out by their national headquarters.

13. The apportionments to the Conference for the Administration Fund shall be apportioned to the Charges of the Conference by the District Superintendents on the same percentage ratios as those for the benevolence funds. The annual apportionment to the Oregon Conference for the General Administration Fund is $1555.

14. The Jurisdictional Conference expense apportionment is one-fourth of one percent of the pastor's cash salary as published in the 1944 minutes of this Conference, provided that any deficit of any year must be paid during the quadrennium.

15. The apportionment for the Episcopal Fund is an amount equal to one and three-fourths percent of the cash salaries of the pastors for the current year.

16. The Commission is arranging to have the Treasurer's books audited in keeping with the provisions of the Discipline.

17. All benevolence monies, both the World Service and the Conference Benevolences, shall be remitted monthly by the charge treasurers to the Conference Treasurer who shall distribute them monthly to the various causes, agencies and institutions according to the schedule herein set forth.

18. To pay the conference Claimants annuity rate of $17 requires approximately $53,706. The present plan of apportionment, together with the receipts from the Methodist Publishing House, the Board of Pensions and the Chartered Fund, plus the accrued interest on Conference deposits and other funds, will provide income approximating $59,734 which is sufficient to meet this annuity rate.

19. The General Conference adopted the following paragraph relative to the various treasurers within an annual conference:

"Par. 160: For the sake of economy and efficiency the Annual Conference may constitute the Conference Treasurer as a depository for any or all Conference Boards annd Agencies participating in the Conference Benevolences, eliminating as far as possible the necessity of a treasurer for each. In this event the Conference Treasurer shall keep a separate account for each such Board or Agency, enter the proper credits at the end of each month's business and disburse the same on proper order from each Board or Agency respectively. None of the above designated accounts shall be drawn upon for the benefit of another."

The Commission recommends that insofar as practicable, this plan be followed in the Oregon Conference.

20. The Commission recommends that each church contribute one communion offering each year to the Conference Claimants Necessitous Fund, to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

21. The Commission recommends that the Conferenc grant the request of the Oregon Conference Historical Society for permission to solicit contributions or to receive free-will offerings for the purpose of aiding in defraying the cost of a statue of Jason Lee to be placed in the Statuary Hall in our National Capitol.

22. We request that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to set up a revolving fund of $4,000 out of Annual Conference benevolence monies now in hand to take care of the needs of the Conference benevolence causes during the summer season.

23. We recommend that the Institute Sites Commission be authorized to continue a quiet campaign for the Institute Sites Funds, without quotas or assessments on the churches, with a view toward matching the Carrier gift of $12,750.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Never, since the day Jesus gave the command to his disciples, "Go ye into the world and baptise in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost" has challenge been more real than today. Missionary fields, new and old, are ing for workers.

Millions now living in foreign fields are without hope, faith or a God. They calling for a God who can save them. If our Church will not respond in r hour of need, they shall accept some substitute for Christianity purchance mmunism, as some nations have already done. Truly, this is no time to be hindful of the needs of our neighbors. This is the day of open doors and we st enter.

America, too, needs the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our American missionary gram offers a tremendous opportunity. Rural America presents the greatest llenge in all American history. Dives and resorts of ill-fame, where gamb- of every conceivable form of vice is flagrantly flaunted in the faces of rch people, have moved out of the city into the countryside, thus intensifying opposition which the church in the country is facing.

The future will judge American Christianity of this day and generation by response to the appauling need and stirring appeal coming from all over ope and Asia.

Does the Christian Youth of America hear the call? Do they possess a pas- for the development of the Kingdom of God throughout the world? Does adult membership of our church possess the consecration and will they give their substance, making it possible to send God's messengers throughout the rld? The answer in part must be found in the local Church Board of Missions Church Extension.

World Service cultivation work is most important. Slowly but surely we training more of our people to give to the missionary program of the church. District Superintendent in another Conference made a stirring appeal in be- f of missions. The ministers responded whole-heartedly. The laymen caught vision and gave $2.49 per capita throughout the District. Their slogan was Penny a Day for World Missions."

Another district doubled their World Service giving in three years' time. percent of the membership was giving to the missionary program.

Throughout Methodism 15 percent give generously, 36 percent give a little 51 percent give nothing to missions.

Through the recommendation of this Board, Dr. Karl Quimby, Cultivation retary for the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, is considering ding a missionary conference in the northwest this coming year. Camp Mag- er is being considered for the place of the meeting. Such a Conference would most meaningful to the Oregon, Idaho and Pacific Northwest Conferences.

The Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Missionary Secretaries of this Conference attend the Missionary ference to be held at Asilomar, California, August 1-6.

2. We recommend that a two-day Workshop be planned by the District erintendents and the Missionary Secretaries of this Conference. This plan- committee should meet some time this summer or early in the fall. The nber of conferences to be held will be determined by the planning committee. cial invitations to attend these Conferences should be given to the Superin- dents, Missionary Secretaries, Members of the Board of Missions and Church ension, representatives of the Young Adults, the Youth and the Woman's So- y of Christian Service.

3. Each pastor shall organize a missionary Board within his own church rding to paragraph 1040 in the Discipline.

4. The Fourth Sunday should be observed in all of the Sunday Schools.

5. Instructors present the challenge of the mission fields to the youth at- ding Summer Institutes.

6. Pastors continue to reveal the needs of the mission fields through ser- s and the distribution of leaflets.

In conclusion, may we be reminded that missions is not a segment of the rch which can be overlooked or thrown aside. The missionary spirit of the rch is the heart throb which pumps life blood into every enterprise of the gdom of God. As a church, we must study missions, preach missions and for the missionary program of the Church, remembering that Christ died all, and that peace shall come, when the Church shall have lifted up the Son God, and all the world shall proclam Him as Lord and Master.

Edward A. Wolfe, Chairman.

Dear Mr. Linn:

An audit and examination has been made of the books of John W. Warrell, Treasurer, Oregon Conference Claimants, for the Conference Year 1945-1946. The information reflected in the files of the Treasurer disclosed the sources from which the funds were received and verification of the Bank records indicated that all funds were promptly credited to the account of John W. Warrell, Treasurer in the Union and Russell Street Branch of the First National Bank of Portland, Oregon. All disbursements were substantiated and cancelled checks were properly endorsed.

Very truly yours
Edward G. Baumann

will agree with Methodists everywhere that he was "always abounding in the work of the Lord."

No one of us could think of this diligent workman of the living Lord as now inactive. For God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And Bruce Baxter, alive forevermore, is still abounding in the work to which we dedicated his life and all his powers. Now, with powers exalted, he serves his Master face to face.

His colleagues will miss him keenly. Others of their number have also lately journeyed to that painless other side. But their going has been not so much a departure as an arrival, not so much recessional as processional. The annointed eye beholds them moving with the Processional of the Redeemed—saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs—into the courts of the Most High God. Bruce Baxter belongs in that glorious company. And we have seen him join it, singing.

BISHOP BRUCE RICHARD BAXTER

May the magnitude of our loss be the measure of our consolation." These are the words with which Bishop Bruce R. Baxter opened a memorial address for one of his beloved friends, and these are the words which convey the spirit and message of our saddened and quiet hearts at this moment. The magnitude of our loss is indeed the measure of our consolation. The breadth and length and depth and height of that consolation is measured by the life and spirit of the very one we have lost.

A new and simple strength, surpassing the compass of words, but nevertheless felt and known, is the compensating factor that puts a new song within our souls.

As I first typed the name of Bishop Bruce R. Baxter at the top of a white sheet of paper, realizing what I was setting forth to do, I felt for a long moment that I had stepped into a new and very unreal world. The suddenness of realization has a nagging habit of biting again and again into thought until one becomes numbed with the seeming unreality of that which pries its way into consciousness. Finally one comes into possession of a grief which, upon closer scrutiny, is bathed in light.

We exclaim with Wordsworth,

"We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind."

We must not desecrate this hour by extravagant flattery or wordiness. How foolish to try! How unnecessary to try to speak what we all feel in loftier phrases of inner thought. We feel so inadequate to speak in what, at best, are meager words of so present and living a companionship as does now exists in this place. Did we not try, however, we should fail those who have come to gain strength and spiritual fellowship in our thinking together of those well-known qualities of Bishop Baxter's life.

I covet deeply for you all the opportunity which is mine at this moment, namely, lifting out of the spoken tributes that which will speak common praise of him on behalf of us all. In reality it becomes more the opportunity to speak aloud the answering echo of my own inner spirit to the words so many of you have spoken so well.

His righteous "wisdom and pure humanity made his radiant personality as the candle of the Lord." His light was strongest at the candle-tip of

Tribute to Bishop Bruce R. Baxter by Bishop W. Earl Ledden

"His song was merely living aloud;
His life, a singing with his hands."

These words have been quietly repeating themselves in the back of my mind all this day. For they speak of Bishop Baxter even though Sidney Lanier did write them of another. There truly was a lilt about the life of Bruce Baxter, and all of us could feel that lifting quality of song about his words and deeds.

Of song, and sunlight, too. Speaking, as you have requested, for his colleagues of the Council of Bishops, I hear testimony to the radiance of his influence. Whenever Bruce Baxter entered the room, we felt as if a door had been flung wide to the sun. He radiated confidence and good will, strengthened our assurance of help from on high. And his Christian faith was so contagious that he somehow refreshed our sense of serving the Father Almighty, who would not fail nor be discouraged. . . . .

Bishop Baxter lived a life of complete devotion to God and to His church. He exercised his Christian ministry in all phases of the churches' life and in many realms outside our formal organization. Across this nation there are men of business and the professions, as well as generations of students, who

His ability to draw ministers to him has contributed to whatever of fuller service any of us have been able to render. We have felt a common tie with this strong personality in our midst. It meant much to the members of various organizations working under his leadership. He entered into the lives of pastors, knew their problems, their programs, their churches, their homes. He was not only a shepherd of people; he was a ministering pastor to his preachers.

I know you would want me to speak a word regarding the loss to First Church. Death has touched another of our families. It was always with eager anticipation I awaited the Sundays he could be beside Martha in our worship service. He could not be here often, but he was one of us when he came. He mingled with the crowd, greeted old friends, helped the strangers. His face never held challenge or question; but always cooperation and expectancy. He overlooked ministerial errors in speech and judgment. One felt that one could not stray very far away. He took an active part in assisting Martha in her church responsibilities. At a recent dinner for new members he poured coffee for the guests, visited around the tables, and then quietly disappeared. He was one of God's servants.

He died as he loved best to live, in that small intimate family circle, the blessed companionship of his life that was so gloriously effulgent to him, and for which he felt such unbounded gratitude and love. It was a home where there were no strangers, where love ever shown brightly, and where many a wayfarer has been lifted in spirit as he joined the fellowship of a great bishop's home.

He believed what he preached, and he lived it. His concept of immortality has brought peace to many a sorrowing family, hope to many a discouraged heart, and has been one of the bolstering forces in his own spiritual life. I best express it in his own words:

"We cannot prove immortality as one proves a theorem in mathematics, but that is true of the deepest values. Just how would you go about it to prove identity or personality or mother love? Science says man may live forever; philosophy, that he wants to live forever; ethics, that he ought to live forever; Christianity, that he does live forever. Science gives us a hint of it. We accept as axiomatic the principle of the conservation of energy. Ours is a universe to which nothing can be added nor from which can anything be substracted. Nothing can be lost out. This is a universe with plan and purpose. It is not a duoverse. It is not a multiverse. You could not have reason and logic and sense if it were so careful of all except the very highest, personality, which was made in the image of God. Death is not the master of the house. It is the porter at the gate of the King's palace to usher us into the Presence of the King."

"Immortality is not something which is granted at the end of life. It is an achievement. We are sharing in it now as truly as we shall share in it a century hence, for life is a continuous flow. Immortality thus becomes less a problem as it becomes more an experience. Emerson said that the best way to be sure of immortality is to begin to live like an immortal. Of what use would immortality be to a man who had never learned how to use an hour well? Augustine said, "Join thyself to the Eternal and thou shalt become eternal." The Scripture puts it, "He hath set eternity in our hearts."

"We remind ourselves of the worth of the soul. It is far too valuable to be lost. Here is something which deserves to be immortal. It is not a man has a soul as much as that man is a soul. Something important is begun here which is finished hereafter. Human life promises far more than can be attained here. Dr. Wilson, dying with Scott at the South Pole, left a note for humility and humanity. What love he had for his friends! And who were not his friends? What understanding and devotion he showed to his colleagues, his preachers, his cabinets, his "boys" in Alaska. Wherever he went, even for a brief stay, he left those who felt that they belonged to him. Never did he spare himself if he could save others. As I roamed this expansive and beautiful area with him last fall, how many times I was chagrined when he picked up my bags and alighted from the train. To him there was no task too menial, never was there one impossible! "He stayed by his work when others rested." He has said that of other men, but when the words were spoken to him, about himself, he passed them off lightly. Now we speak it again: "He stayed by his work when others rested." His will was God's will; his motive was that of complete service; his joy was found in bringing joy to others; his deepest concerns engulfed him when he found himself helpless to help another.

He had time for everyone. Educators can laud his educational skill, as has been done so adequately today; his cabinet members can speak highly of his administrative genius; preachers can praise his preaching greatness; youth can thrill over his youthful philosophies; children can warm their spirits by his tenderness! Those who praised and loved him most were all these and more, the common souls of earth who touched his life anywhere. His greatest genius was his shephherdhood. In every village through which he passed there was recalled a name, there was a little story, there was a tender touch to be mentioned. Letters went to all, high and low; men and women far removed from the Methodist fellowship felt the spirit of a Godly man when he ministered to them; he had time for calls on the sick and the bereaved; he had the common touch. He was God's shepherd.

I have never known a man who could combine with such taste and gracious manner his humor and his human interest. The unusual incidents that came to his attention in his reading or in his experiences were pearls of great price. How his face would glow and the intensity of humor and interest mount as he imparted some gem of human love. He would relate a series of stories or events that seemed to be tied together, and then he would marvel with the spirit of a child who came with puzzled wonderment to his mother with oddly-shaped blocks that had suddenly and mysteriously gone together. How often in our friendly bantering, after some bit of questioned wisdom probably long since past its best day, he would say, "Now there must be a theological application there; I cannot see it, but it must be there somewhere." A minor detail? No, because he made it his business to see good in every person, in every situation. Basically, that was his spirit.

We have all admired his ability to appreciate joviality and a lightsome spirit. Neither ever bordered on crudity or existed at the expense of another's sensitivity. He possessed a firm judgment, but not an unrelenting spirit; a fundamental decisiveness, but not a staid willfulness. He could move swiftly and graciously from the humorous to the serious, and who of us here have not experienced the joy of traveling that lovely way with him?

One of the things which may not be universally understood was the seriousness with which he accepted his responsible ministry to the world of business. Having walked so closely beside business men in his college relationships through the years, he developed an unusual ability to talk their language and to act as their spiritual counselor. He felt his ministry to laymen was so definite in calling and so fruitful in result, that his numerous trips to Conventions, Service Clubs, and other business gatherings, were to him not a waste of time nor a gay life; it was a holy calling, a selfimposed responsibility to be disharged. I have seen him in just six minutes time so sway the members of a Service Club that not a man remained the same in spirit. It was a part of his great ministry to the world.

FRANK LLEWELLYN WEMETT

Frank Llewellyn Wemett was born in Canadice, New York, July 26, 1871. He became a member of the Genesee Annual Conference in New York in 1897. After serving in New York State pastorates for 19 years, he transferred to the Idaho Conference in 1914 and was pastor at Idaho Falls. During this pastorate the Trinity Methodist Church in that city was built. In 1919 he transferred to the Oregon Conference, and served as pastor of the Centenary-Wilbur Methodist Church in Portland, then transferred to St. Paul's Church in Spokane, Washington; Calvary Methodist Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota; Klamath Falls Methodist Church in Oregon; First Methodist Church in Pendleton; Grants Pass; and Lebanon. After his retirement in 1937 he served as supply pastor at Gold Hill and Wilderville. The Methodist Church in Klamath Falls was built during his pastorate in that city. He died in the Vanport Hospital in Portland, June 21, 1946. Funeral services were held June 24th in the Fremont Street Methodist Church in Portland. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Harriett Amos Wemett, a son, Raymond J. Wemett, Burbank, California, a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Drake, Troutdale, Oregon, two brothers, City, North Dakota, a sister, Mrs. Cora Weeks of Glen Allen, Virginia, and Robert R. Wemett of Springwater, New York, and Wm. M. Wemett of Valley two grandsons.

his wife, "God still has something for us to do together." The Book says, "Thy soul shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord Thy God." A life worth living is worth living forever. Therefore, it is not true that a dead man lives again, but that a living man never dies."

"Hidden far away in the depths of the earth is a strange drawing power which men call gravitation. It is a power over men's bodies to hold them to the earth. Far above the earth, hidden in the heart of a loving Father God, is another strange drawing power, not upon men's bodies to hold them down; but upon men's souls to lift them up. After that which we call death occurs, that strange drawing power lays hold of the liberated spirit to lift it to itself that where He is we shall be also. Into the hands and heart of that loving Father God we commend the spirit of our friend."

That was Bruce Baxter, and still is, for he was and is immortal. He believed it and lived by it. He knew no fear; he laughed at danger. Traveling so far and by so many methods as he did, danger was never real. When it threatened, he lifted his head into the sky and smiled with a relaxed spirit, and dared the elements to frighten him. When Emerson was on board a ship in a storm, he left the frightened passengers and went above where he could see the captain keeping his calm watch. He returned to his friends below and reported, "Have no fear; I have seen the captain's face, and all is well." His calm and serene spirit was the result of his daily looking upon the Captain's face and finding peace.

This experience has drawn closer the ties of our Methodist family, here and everywhere. There is a singing in our hearts not there before. None of us ever felt so keenly the sense of belonging to this Methodist household. Sitting beside us today are other kindred spirits, from other faiths, other walks of life. They belong, too. His presence with us is so real that we feel him reaching out with his arms of love and he draws us all close and he smiles and says, "It is all right; keep going; keep working; one day the dreams will come true."

"Thank God, He sometimes lets a soul
Become so free from sin's control,
So purged from earthly stain and dross,
Recovered as from Eden's loss
That like cathedral windows dight
Down through it shines a heavenly light."

So, each of us in imagination follows that young knight of old of whom Tennyson wrote:

"Thereat, once more he moved about and clomb
Even to the highest he could climb,
And stretching his eyes beneath an arch of hand
He saw, or thought he saw,
The speck that bare the King
Down that long water opening on the deep
Pass on and on, and go from less to less,
And vanish into light."

He has vanished, but only into light; and as the light mounts and grows, there is a returning and an abiding strength, and we say with all those who love his kingly spirit:

"Thy name and glory cling
To all high places, like a golden cloud, Forever!"

ALICE EMILY CAMP

Alice Emily Camp was born in Eagle City, Iowa, on September 16, 1881, to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hubband. Soon after her birth her parents moved to Rockford, Illinois. There she received all of her secondary school education. Later she became a trained nurse and followed that profession until she married Cecil Leroy Camp on September 16, 1910, at Rockford, Illinois. He was preparing for the ministry and she trained with him and both were graduated from Northwestern Theological Seminary at Evanston, Illinois, in June 1914. That same fall they sailed for India as missionaries. They carried on in that work until 1938 when failing health of Mr. Camp made it necessary to return to this country. They were assigned to the Methodist Church at Creswell, Oregon, but Mr. Camp had labored too hard at his mission duties and on May 12, 1939, he passed away. But Mrs. Camp thoroughly devoted to the Creswell Church, carried on there faithfully until June 1946 when her own health forced her to retire for a much needed rest. She went to Seattle to live with her sister, but a Higher Power evidently decided she deserved a more lasting rest and took her away on May 30, 1947.

She leaves two children to mourn her passing, John E. Camp of Seattle, and Mary Elizabeth Wright of Creswell. A brother, Guy R. Hubbard, lives at Sycamore, Illinois and a sister, Mrs. Everett F. Nuttall, at Seattle.
